The Public Records.—There was a big influx of instruments for public record yesterday, at County Clerk Clinton's office, among the bunch being the following, affecting the titles to realty: Phillip Weisenwald to Hattie Saloman, warranty, $1, 120 acres in section 26, T. 7 N., R. 6 W. Hattie Saloman and husband to Elton Bozarth, warranty, $350, 120 acres as aforesaid. Catherine Rist to William Matthews, warranty, $125, 54-10 acres of land in Clatsop county. Theo. Kruse Catering Company to Benjamin Latz, warranty, $300, lot 3, block 7, Gearhart Park. Jennie Campbell to Grace Ellen Gearin, warranty, $1900, lot 1, block 19, Clatsop Grove, Seaside and agreements for deeds, conveying certain rights-of-way, to W. L. Dudley, from the following named people, John Waterhouse and wife; G. B. Hegardt, Anna R. Gratke, administratrix; Mary E. Carnahan et al.; Mary E. Carnahan, Sarah E. Lighton, E. W. and F. J. Taylor, Clementina and Lydia Rodney, John Adair and wife; Leon Mansur and wife; E. Z. Ferguson and wife and D. M. Stuart and wife; and the heirs of Charles Ward, deceased.

Released From Custody.—John Henry Johnson, who was under detention at the county jail for suspected participation in the attempted robbery of Judge J. Q. A. Bowlby's office on Wednesday morning last was released by Sheriff Linville yesterday morning at the expiration of the legal 24 hours provided for holding suspects, and went about his affairs without any further word of explanation as to his unaccounted-for hours during the early morning of the theft and arson, except that a little after his discharge he remarked to Officer Oberg, of the city police force, that "with all that testimony against him, he was surprised that they had released him."

At the Last Moment.—For some time Rev. John H. Coleman, president of Willamette University, has been booked for the post of orator at the High School commencement exercises, but at the last moment he was taken quite ill, and the able service of Rev. Dr. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of the First Methodist church at Portland, was invoked in this behalf. The latter gentleman, accompanied by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, arrived from the metropolis, on the noon express yesterday.

To Wed in Portland.—Two well known young people in Astoria have been licensed to wed in the metropolis, Mr. William E. Oman, one of the locomotive engineers on the Columbia jetty, and Miss Alice Sweeney, formerly of Warrenton, and later a successful pupil here in St. Mary's convent. Miss Sweeney is an accomplished musician and has many friends in this city and section, as her husband-to-be.

At Her Mother's Request.—County Judge Trenchard, yesterday, upon the petition of Mrs. Anna Bird, of Seaside, issued commitment papers for a young girl by the name of Daisy Waldref, who is incorrigible, and Sheriff Linville went down there after her on the noon train yesterday, and took her to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, at Portland, on the through train last night.

Done in Probate.—Sitting for probate matters yesterday Judge Trenchard made an order appointing Halvor Jeldness guardian of the persons and estates of Mary Erickson, an insane person, and of Steiner Erickson, a minor; and at the same time appointed Maxwell Young, Anton Baug and Ole Jeldness, appraisers of the said estates. The bond of Halvor Jeldness was fixed at $1500.

DELIVER ORATIONS

Astoria High School Fourteenth Annual Commencement.

METHODIST CHURCH CROWDED

Orations of Graduates Are Well Delivered—Musical Program Very Successful—Dr. Clarence True Wilson Delivers Address.

The fourteenth annual commencement exercises of the Astoria high school took place last evening in the First Methodist church. The attendance was very large and the capacity of the auditorium was taxed to the utmost.

The opening number of the program was a march selection by a violin orchestra of nine pieces, after which Rev. C. C. Barick gave the invocation.

The Ladies' Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Claire Montieith, rendered two selections, "The Sweetest Flower That Blooms," and "The Wind and the Sunbeam." Both numbers elicited warm encores.

Miss Wilhelmina Bergman delivered the salutatory, after which the audience listened to her oration entitled, "A Plea For Higher Citizenship." Miss Bergman stated that the standard of no popular government can rise higher than the standard of her citizens. High ideals make for high living, and accomplishment in the advancement of the nation. The future of a nation depends on the character of the citizenry of today.

"The Great Awakening" by Otto Emilie Utzinger was the next oration, Greed for gain, and the consequent deterioration in the morals of the race, was given as the root of all the evils that had in former times, and even today, worked for harm. Of late a desire for justice to all classes, had sprung alive, and the grafters were being brought to time. "The Great Awakening" was defined as the universal clamor of the people all over the world for their rights, and the demand that the balance of power in wealth and politics should be wrested from the few and given into the hands of the majority. The theme throughout was essentially socialistic.

Miss Laurie McCann sang in her customary charming manner, "A Summer Night," responding to the encore with "Annie Laurie."

The title of Miss Blodwen Davies' oration was "Two Rulers." These were designated by Miss Davies as Catherine the Great of Russia, and Queen Elizabeth of England. The two different types of women were compared and the methods of ruling their respective countries. Catherine was shown to have worked for Russia's greatness, only that her name might become famous, and not for the love of country and people. Elizabeth was a woman who ever held uppermost in her mind the welfare of England, and ruled that her people might love her. At Catherine's death the country was unadvanced and the people poverty stricken and oppressed; when Elizabeth died England was enjoying prosperity and her people mourned her loss.

Miss Maja Frederickson pleased the audience with an exceedingly well executed violin solo entitled "Air Variet," by Vieuxtemps. She responded to the encore.

Franklin Thomas Parker, valedictorian of the class delivered an oration on the subject of "The Growth of Republicanism," closing with the valedictory. The gradual growth of the idea that mankind as a whole had any rights, was briefly outlined. The absolute monarchy of ancient times was touched upon; how man, except the favored few, was taught to believe that he had no right save that dictated by his superior. This growth of "equal rights for all" was originally asserted to have started in the Hebraic race. The idea grew and spread to Greece, thence to Rome; England saw it's dawn in the Magna Charta, and the House of Commons. Today the doctrine of equality has spread; Russia, where absolutism has long been strongest, is now undergoing the inevitable change, and republicanism is fast becoming a reality.

After the Ladies' Glee Club had rendered the song, "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," Dr. Clarence True Wilson, of Portland, delivered an address on "The Force That Moves the World." Dr. John H. Coleman of Salem, had been originally scheduled for the address, but because of sickness, could not be present.

Dr. Wilson first defined the different forces in the natural, physical and political world. The power of these forces was ably portrayed, and then the doctor stated that the mind of man, was superior to all. The force that moves the world, he said, was represented in the young people. Youth was termed the prime essential toward success. More young men directing the nation's affairs, would bring about better laws, and a more prosperous nation. The necessity of application to the work in hand was urged. "A wasted youth makes a successful after life impossible." In closing the doctor said that the education of the soul must not be neglected in the school of life. This was deemed the most important of all. If a man is deficient in morals and religion he can not hope to be perfect in the other essentials.

At the close of the address, Mr. Claire Montieith effectively rendered "A Gypsy Maiden I," responding to an encore.

Presentation of the class by I. N. Garmann, and the conferring of diplomas by Hon. Frank J. Taylor, of the board of directors, was followed by a selection by the orchestra, and the presentation of the flowers and gifts to the graduates. The music was under the efficient direction of Miss Nellie Buscy, who is entitled to a great measure of credit for the very successful carrying out of the program. Mrs. Brooks and Miss Anna Campbell acted as accompanists.

The graduating class this year consists of eleven members as follows: President, Joseph Leahy; vice-president, Kate Wood; secretary, Blodwen Davies; treasurer, Otto Utzinger; sergeant-at-arms, Grace Magladry; valedictorian, Franklin Thomas Parker; salutatorian, Anna Bergman; Edith Elsie Butt; May Karinen; Magna Sophie Carlsen; Maret Louise Settem.

THE SCALES OF JUSTICE.

Matters Disposed of by Judge McBride in the Circuit Court Yesterday.

The Hon. Circuit Court convened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with Judge McBride on the bench and the officers of the court in attendance; and the course of justice took up its dignified and unerring course.

In the matter of Mina A. Hedrick vs. J. W. Hedrick, default was entered against the plaintiff, and the decree will ensue.

In the case of the State of Oregon vs. Frank Hendricks, charged with illegal voting on June 4th, last, the defendant entered a plea of guilty and gave a detailed account of how he came to make the bad break, whereupon the judge quietly assessed him in the sum of $100, or fifty days in the county jail. He went to jail for the time being, at least.

In the matter of the State of Oregon vs. Edward, and Edward A., Anderson, of Seaside, father and son, charged with a deadly assault upon the person of A. H. Barr, foreman of the Seaside Spruce Lumber Company, and who was pretty nearly put out of business for all time by the viciousness of the attack, Judge McBride permitted them to plead guilty to assault and battery, and then gave them the limit of the law for such an offense, to wit, one year in the county jail. This case was one of peculiar interest owing to the severity of the assault and the coarse bravado with which the defendants carried off their share in the disgraceful episode, and the sentence of yesterday was received in this city with emphatic satisfaction, the only wonder expressed being that they were permitted the milder plea, thus escaping a penitentiary sentence.

Have You a Cough

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? Try it for whooping coughs, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. First street, Hutchison, Kans. writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for five years and find it the most palatable medicine I ever used. Sold by Hart's drug store."

DID NOT DO IT.

The following is quite self-explanatory, and is published at the request of Editor Karinen, agent the report of the theft and arson case in Wednesday's issue of this paper:

"Astoria, Ore., June 21, 1906.
"Editor Astorian: Sir.—The statement that Mr. Karinen recommended J. H. Johnson to me does Mr. Karinen an injustice, as I had not seen him concerning Johnson. Johnson referred me to Karinen, but I did not make the inquiry. (Signed),
"J. Q. A. BOWLBY."

Cures Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kans., May 5, 1902: Ballard, Snow Liniment Co., your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Mifflin Co., Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. Sold by Hart's drug store.

TIRED OF LIFE AWFUL SUFFERING

From Dreadful Pains From Wound on Foot—System All Run Down After Six Months' Agony—Not Able to Work—Completely Cured in Two Weeks

MIRACULOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Words cannot speak highly enough for the Cuticura Remedies. I am now seventy-two years of age. My system had been all run down. My blood was so bad that blood poisoning had set in. I had several doctors attending me, so finally I went to the hospital, where I was laid up for two months. My foot and ankle were almost beyond recognition. Dark blood flowed out of wounds in many places, and I was so disheartened that I thought surely my last chance was slowly leaving me. As the foot did not improve, you can readily imagine how I felt. I was simply disgusted and tired of life. I stood this pain, which was dreadful, for six months, and during this time I was not able to wear a shoe and not able to work."

"Some one spoke to me about Cuticura. The consequences were I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies of one of my friends who was a druggist, and the praise that I gave after the second application is beyond description; it seemed a miracle, for the Cuticura Remedies took effect immediately. I washed the foot with the Cuticura Soap before applying the Ointment and I took the Resolvent at the same time. After two weeks' treatment my foot was healed completely. People who had seen my foot during my illness and who have seen it since the cure, can hardly believe their own eyes."

Robert Schoenhauer, Newburgh, N. Y., Aug. 21, 1905.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Soap, 25c. Ointment, 25c. Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 60, may be had of all druggists. Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. "Be Healed Free," "The Great Skin Book."
