Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, Sept. 26.—The season for cranberries is now fairly on and the arrival of car lots from the Eastern bogs directs attention to the Oregon product.

There are large bogs at Tillamook, Coos Bay and Ilwaco, and their cultivation has progressed steadily for 10 or 15 years. Just why this market should bring in Cape Cod berries, where there should be a sufficient crop on our Coast, is a matter of considerable conjecture by those interested.

It is said by the fruit trade that the Eastern berries are superior in some respects to the locally grown, and it is also said that some difference of opinion exists between dealers and growers as to values.

Quotations are about uniform along the street at $9 per barrel.

The steamer Roanoke brought up quite a large line of vegetables under ice. Beans, sprouts and some other garden truck made up the shipment. The stuff arrived in good shape, and was moving today satisfactorily. Two cars of sweet potatoes were delivered on the street today. Potatoes are in much better supply than for some time past, the farmers evidently having wakened up to the fact that a good market awaited their product.

Some little inquiry from the South is reported, though not of unusual proportions for the time of year. Local demands were filled promptly.

PRISONERS ATTACK JAILOR.

Thirty-five inmates keep officers at Bay for Four Hours.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Knoxville, Tenn., says:

"Thirty-five negro prisoners, including 18 murderers, two of whom are sentenced to die, rebelled against the jailer at the Knox county jail last night, refusing to go from the corridor into their cells. Four hours they kept the officers at bay. All were inclosed behind bars. Four officers were cut with bottles thrown by the prisoners and C. A. Reeder, Jr., aged 12, son of the sheriff, was slightly cut. The jailers turned the hose on the refractory negroes, but this frenzied them. The negroes finally captured the hose and turned it upon the officers and then attacked the latter with bottles, plates, cups and saucers and with broomhandles on the end of which open knives were fastened. Three of the officers were hemmed in by the negroes and had to draw their pistols in order to get out of range of the bottles. The arrival of the sheriff and police finally quelled the negroes. The trouble is said to have resulted from the negroes reading of the Atlanta riots.

PERUNA AS FUEL.

W. C. T. U. of Chicago Holds "House Warming" and Medicines Burn.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—The Women's Christian Temperance Union has discovered a new use for whiskey and patent medicines, against the use of which as beverages the organization has made a world-wide fight for the last half century. Today at the Cook county W. C. T. U. convention at the First Methodist Episcopal church, the women will demonstrate the use of these liquors as "illuminating fluids." Whiskey of various brands and seventy "popular" patent medicines will be burned in genuine lamp fashion. The demonstrating will be conducted by the medical temperance department of the union, of which Dr. Mary Wild Paulson of the Hinsdale Sanitarium, is the head.

"Why, they will burn just like an alcohol lamp," said Dr. Paulson. "We do not change the ingredients of the medicines. We just pull out the corks, insert wicks beneath 'mantle' burners and they burn brightly. This is one of the plainest experiments we know of to show the large quantity of alcohol in patent medicines."

The women figure that they have enough of the medicines and whiskey on hand to illuminate the room today and this evening.

THE BREATH OF LIFE.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Chas. Rodgers, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

APPEARANCES. Often a person is sized up by his appearance; by the tone that surrounds him. And more often a business house is sized up by the stationary it uses. A cheap letter head or a poor bill head gives a mighty poor first impression and makes business harder to transact. Good printing costs no more than poor printing. The first impression is half the battle in business. You wouldn't employ a "sloppy" salesman; why put up with "sloppy" stationery, that gives a wrong impression of the importance of your business. Let us do your printing and help you to make that ten strike. The J. S. Dellinger Co. ASTORIA, OREGON
