Licensed to Wed—County Clerk Clinton yesterday issued a marriage license in favor of Mr. Ernest Ferchan and Miss Bertha Newman, young people of the Jewell district.

Hunting Pheasants—Lieutenant Cooper of Fort Stevens and County Surveyor Astbury left for the Willamette valley yesterday morning to hunt pheasants and expect to be absent about one week.

Some say that city girls are poor, ignorant things. Some of them cannot tell a horse from a cow, but they do know that Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea is one of the greatest beautifiers known. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. For sale by Frank Hart.

Commercial Saloon—This popular place, situated at 500 Commercial street, is up-to-date in every particular. The choicest of wines and all kinds of liquors can be procured here. Best quality cigars. Billiard table in connection. If you can't come in person, call up Phone 1231 Main.

Do You feel sleepy and not a bit like working in the afternoon? Perhaps it's because of the kind of lunch you're eating—too heavy and too hard to digest. Why not try the Palace restaurant on Commercial street, where all the baking is done in those famous slow-process ovens, which turn out light appetizing, wholesome things? You'll save money, too.

Register Today—The registration books for the city election will be opened this morning at 9 o'clock and an opportunity for all legal voters to register and declare their politics, if they want to vote at the city election.

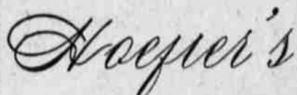

Soon Be Home—Will Benoit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benoit of this city, who for the past four years, has served his country in the federal navy and is now on duty on the Wisconsin, en route to Bremerton navy yard from San Francisco, will soon be home, much to the pleasure of his kinsmen and friends.

Canine Aristocrat—The ranks of Astoria's swell dogs is to receive a distinguished addition in a few days. Charles L. Houston, now in the East, having purchased and shipped here to the care of Ed. Llewelyn, a thoroughbred English pointer with a pedigree that tops nearly anything on this coast in length and quality.

On to Portland—Hon. and Mrs. Louis J. Simpson, of North Bend, (of which city Mr. Simpson is the mayor) were passengers for Portland via the steamer Alliance yesterday. He is making a short business trip to the metropolis on matters of a private nature and will probably return on the same vessel next Thursday.

Farmers Complain—Farmers from the vicinity of Elsie complain that the present road leading from the main road to the J. C. Reinson place has not been completed, although the work was to have been finished by the first of September. It is the only route the farmers have coming over the burnt ridge, and they will probably send a communication to the county court at its next meeting, asking that the provisions of the contract be complied with.

"The College Widow"—A fine house greeted the fine troupe offering George Ade's "The College Widow," at the new Astoria, on Sunday night last, and the last soul present went away pleased to the limit. To segregate the individual merits of the cast would be to deal at length with all the forty-odd people presenting it, and space forbids more than a general summary. The play, primarily, is delightful. It is full of snap and color and wit, and there is not a dull or idle moment in the four long acts. One's interest is kept on feather-edge every moment, even when the curtain is down, when the liveliest and happiest discussion ensues as to what has appeared, is pending, and is to come; and as the play is intensely modern and American, it captures everybody, despite all prejudice or disinclination. Nothing better nor brighter has been offered in this city for years and the splendid essence of the play loses absolutely nothing at the hands of a single player in the big group.

Police Court—The forfeitures in the police court yesterday afternoon amounted to $190, of which amount $175 was from gambling fines. Otto Beach left a five-dollar deposit and C. Willmy left ten. H. Beach plead guilty to being surcharged with booze; said he was sorry, and as he had been in the incubator since Saturday, Judge Anderson fined him $5 and remitted the fine. Albert Anderson appeared on a charge of being an idle and dissolute person, having no visible means of support. He denied the allegation and defied the police force. The evidence showed that he had been officiating as booster for a stud poker game the past two months, but he claimed to have worked at longshoring in Portland last July. The court assessed him $40 with a proviso, if he would leave Astoria, he could owe the city that amount. He will be given a tie ticket for Portland this morning.

Death of Mrs. Hills—Mrs. A. H. Hills, a pioneer resident of Svensen, died at her residence Sunday night after an illness of several years. Mrs. Hills came to Clatsop county with her husband 26 years ago and located on a farm near Svensen, where they lived continuously. Her husband died four years ago. She was well and favorably known in Astoria, where she had many friends. She leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn her loss: Arthur and Georgs Hills of Svensen, Mrs. D. P. Rosa of Astoria, and Mrs. I. T. Lemmens, of Akron, Ohio. The funeral will take place this morning from the family residence, and interment will be in the Knappa cemetery.

Astoria is Good Enough—Fred Lephart, well known as one of the popular clerks with the old Ford & Stokes Company grocery here, returned from Coos Bay points yesterday on the steamer Alliance. Mr. Lephart says Astoria is good enough for him. He says there is an artificial boom on down there, with real estate values excessively inflated and current prices for everything in strict proportion everywhere, and all predicated on a railway three years away. He does not think the farming nor dairy acreage anything to compare with Clatsop in scope nor quality, and is well satisfied to return and remain here.

Killed in Logging Camp—Word was brought to this city yesterday morning that Alvan Rinkella, a native of Finland, and employed by the Pacific Logging Company, of Deep River, was instantly killed Saturday afternoon. He was assisting in loading logs on the cars, when a log rolled down and pinned him between it and another log. It was one of those unforeseen accidents that cannot be avoided. He was buried at the Deep River cemetery yesterday.

We Want to Lease a Modern Store-building. The Brownsville Woolen Mill Store, now located at 684 Commercial street, desires to meet owners of property on Commercial street between 11th and 14th, who are contemplating building or who might have property to rent. We need a building about 40 foot front with modern plate glass windows, suitable lease at a good rental for desirable location. Either address Brownsville Woolen Mill Store, Portland, Ore., or call on our manager in Astoria.

A Gold Romance—One of the most realistic illustrations of the gold miner's dangerous and romantic career, ever seen in an epitomized way, is now on exhibition at the Waldorf concert hall. These moving pictures are replete with all the essential and vivid elements of camp life and the perils the miner faces and overcomes in his plucky and determined search for the alluring metal. They hold the onlooker breathless with lively interest until the last film on the 700-foot string is displayed. No one can afford to neglect this opportunity to see this fine set of views now on at the Waldorf.

Sold Hop Crop—Gus Gronell of Elsie arrived in the city Sunday night and disposed of his hop crop to Portland buyers. The crop was one of the best ever raised in the Nehalem valley, and Mr. Gronell could have sold for 20 cents, but received only 15 cents. This is the prevailing price for hops at the present time.

DANGER FROM THE PLAGUE.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Chas. Rogers' drug store. Trial bottle free."
