IMPORTATIONS INCREASED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Secretary Shaw today authorizes the announcement that deposits to facilitate gold importations shall be discontinued. He said the importation has exceeded all expectations and believed for the present that America had its shares and he had no disposition to disturb conditions in Europe by a continuation of that method of relief. The secretary announced that he would stimulate national bank circulation to the extent of $18,000,000 by accepting approved securities, other than government bonds, for deposits already made.

ADVICE TO HOUSEWIVES.

No home is so pleasant, regardless of the comforts that money will buy, as when the entire family is in perfect health. A bottle of Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup costs 50 cents. It will cure every member of the family of constipation, sick headache or stomach trouble.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate cough and expels the cold from the system, as it is mildly laxative. It is guaranteed. Do not risk taking any but the genuine in the yellow package.

Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney trouble that is not beyond medical aid.

ST. LOUIS GREATLY EXCITED

L. T. COOPER HAS STIRRED UP PEOPLE OF THAT CITY—THOU-SANDS CALL AT HIS HEADQUAR-TERS EACH DAY.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—This city is at present in the midst of an excitement beyond anything that it has experienced in recent years.

Old and young, rich and poor, all seem to have become beside themselves over an individual who was a stranger to St. Louis until two weeks ago.

The man who has created all this turmoil is L. T. Cooper, President of the Cooper Medicine Co., of Dayton, Ohio, who is at present introducing his preparations in this city for the first time.

Cooper is a man about thirty years of age, who has acquired a fortune within the past two years by the sale of some preparations of which he is the owner.

Reports from Eastern cities that preceded the young man here were of the most startling nature, many of the leading dailies going so far as to state that he had nightly cured in public places deafness of years' standing with one of his preparations. The physicians of the East contradicted this statement, claiming the thing to be impossible, but the facts seemed to bear out the statement that Cooper actually did so.

In consequence people flocked to him by thousands, and his preparations sold like wildfire.

Many of these stories were regarded as fictitious in St. Louis, and until Cooper actually reached this city, little attention was paid to them. Hardly had the young man arrived, however, had he begun demonstrations, as he calls them, in public, and daily met people afflicted with deafness, and with a single application of one of his preparations, actually made deaf people hear again.

In addition to this work, Cooper advanced the theory that stomach trouble was the foundation of nine out of ten diseases, and claimed to have a preparation that would restore the stomach to working order, and thus get rid of such troubles as rheumatism and affections of the kidneys and liver in about two weeks' time.

This statement seems to have been borne out by the remarkable results obtained through the use of this preparation, and now all St. Louis is apparently made over the young man.

His headquarters resemble a veritable stampede. Thousands of people are visiting him each day and the druggists are selling his medicines in enormous quantities.

What seems to make Cooper still more popular is the fact that he practices extensive charitable work and has already dispensed a small fortune among the poor of this city.

How long the tremendous interest in Cooper will last is hard to estimate.
At present there seems to be no sign of a let-up. Physicians claim it to be a fad that will die out as soon as Cooper leaves.

In justice to him, however, it must be said that he already seems to have accomplished a great deal for the sick of this city with his preparations.

NEW POLITICAL

Harry New of Indiana had been selected to succeed him. For some reason there was a slip, and it is not known now whether Mr. New would step in should Mr. Cortelyou step out during the coming winter. There has been a good deal of talk lately that Elmer Dover, secretary of the committee, might be elevated to the chairmanship. Mr. Cortelyou's successor, of course, will serve only until the meeting of the next Republican national convention.

One of the familiar symptoms of an "off" year in politics is the expression of alarm by the party in power that over-confidence may bring about party disaster on election day. The alarm arrived on schedule time this year, and has been given the official endorsement of President Roosevelt and other prominent party-leaders.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon was in town this week and voiced the universal apprehension. Said the Speaker of the House: "I have never seen the people so universally employed, both on the farm and in the factory, and this furnishes work to all those engaged in transportation. The great mass of the people are thoroughly satisfied with present conditions and from the Republican standpoint the only object of a campaign is to see that this satisfaction of the people is registered at the ballot box."

To read between the lines, it can be seen that Speaker Cannon fears that every other thinking Republican fears, that the Republicans will be victims of their own negligence or overconfidence.
No Republican leader will admit that his party could be defeated on a full vote, but from the President down the cry goes up to get out the vote.

The Speaker did not discuss conditions in his own district, further than to say he has no fear in submitting his record as a friend of labor to the voters of his district. Those who have been with the Speaker claim there will be no falling off in his majority.

Representative James W. Watson, the Republican "whip" of the House, who has been accompanying Mr. Cannon on his campaign tour this fall, expressed the opinion that the forecast of the result of the Congressional elections made by Gen. Grosvenor was quite accurate. Mr. Watson has been keeping in touch with the situation in the various states and says that his estimate corresponds with that of "Old Figures," as the Ohio Representative is sometimes called. As a matter of fact, Gen. Grosvenor and Mr. Watson compared notes before the former prepared his table.

Albert W. Wishard, of Indianapolis, Ind., solicitor of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, during Mr. Roosevelt's first term, and United States district attorney for his home district during President McKinley's administration, was among the week's visitors. He managed several of the campaigns of Mr. Fairbanks in years gone by, and knows politics in Indiana like a book.

"Next month Indiana will give a Republican majority of between 40,000 and 60,000," said Mr. Wishard. "Gov. Hanley has made the best executive of the state that I have known,—and I have been watching politics in the state for the past twenty-five years. He is an absolutely honest and fearless man, and is very popular everywhere. If it were not for the constitutional provision that a governor shall not serve two terms in succession, he would easily be renominated and re-elected two years hence. As it is, we must look elsewhere for our next executive.

"This time we elect a secretary of state, treasurer, auditor, school commissioner, and members of the Supreme and Appellate courts. The fact that the last auditor was tried for malfeasance, convicted and is now serving his term in the penitentiary, removed all blame from the State administration on that score. The campaign is without great issues, and the Republicans get their strength largely from the weakness of the Democrats who are in a bad way. They have neither definite principles nor leaders."

While Washington, as a matter of course, is interested in the political contests in all the States, no other struggle is of such absorbing moment as the New York gubernatorial contest. Every visitor who can throw any light on the New York situation is given an eager hearing. J. J. McCloskey, a well known New York manufacturer, who was here this week, added his prediction to the many already recorded that Mr. Hearst will be defeated, and that his defeat will be brought about by Democratic votes for Hughes.

Discussing the situation in New York Mr. McCloskey said: "The vote against Hearst below Fourteenth street is going to be something terrific, and it will be cast by men who heretofore always supported the Democratic ticket.

I am not speaking as a politician, but as business man and observer of current events. In my manufacturing plant there are employed at least 450 voters, and I haven't heard of any intention on the part of any of them to support Hearst. Doubtless he will get some votes among them, but no evidence of Hearst enthusiasm are manifest. The odds are 2 1/2 to 1 against him at present and they are apt to be larger on election day."

WANTED TO SEE HIS GIRL.

Steals Livery Rig and Drives 50 Miles Over Rough Road.

ELLENBURG, Wash., Oct. 22.— Deputy Sheriff Crowley returned last night from Conconully with H. C.
Wright, captured there for stealing a livery rig and team from an Ellensburg stable. Wright made a rapid drive in one day traveling 50 miles with a team over a rough road. He was absent for about a week before captured and during this time traded one of the horses. He said that the reason he stole the horses was that he had a sweetheart at Conconully whom he desired to visit, and that he did not have sufficient funds for railway fare, so he decided to travel overland and stole the team.

Under the name of H. Mutehart he was sentenced to the penitentiary from Kittitas county for a similar crime. He also served a term in the Oregon penitentiary, and was once tried upon the charge of smuggling guns into prison for Tracey and Merrill when they made their sensational escape.

Henry E. Jones, of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health due to Foley's Kidney Cure.
I tried Doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing did me much good until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old, and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine." T. F.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The political activity in all the cities in the state was renewed today with energy by the with the leaders among their supporters and tonight both addressed large audiences in this city.

DREW A BIG CROWD.

W. R. Hearst Addresses Large Audience in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—W. R. Hearst drew a large and enthusiastic audience at Madison Square Garden tonight. He had much to say about corporations and something about his opponent. He believed he would be elected by 150,000 majority. Hearst told how he had fought the trusts. He fished out and killed the gas and fuel trust and ice trust, and next put the ice trust mayor out of business. He then made war on the beef trust and rebating system. He declared that he had made no deals of any kind.
