Eastern Mails Delayed—For forty-eight hours last past the city of Astoria has received no Eastern mails, the blizzards and snow-drifts in Colorado being, presumably, the cause.

Good Time Ahead—Concomity Tribe, Ind. O. R. M., has appointed a committee to arrange for their annual masquerade ball on Thanksgiving eve. Logan Hall has been secured for the occasion; fine music has been engaged and the committee will go to Portland next week to make arrangements for costumes.

Off to Salem—Fritz Blum, the hideous idiot who was examined yesterday morning for insanity, was dispatched to Salem in charge of Asylum Attendant H. E. Bell, on the steamer Hassalo, yesterday forenoon. His unhappy sister, whose mind he has wrecked, has been comfortably installed at a sanitarium at Portland, where everything will be done to restore her equipoise.

Read the Papers—It is surprising the ignorance of some people residing in Astoria. A large number do not take the newspapers and are therefore not informed on current events. This is noticeable in application to register for the city election, many going to the county clerk's office for that purpose. All registrations for the city election must be made at the city auditor's office in the city hall.

Prodigal Returns—John L. Carlson, formerly a resident of Astoria, but now a citizen of Seattle, arrived in the city yesterday on a business and pleasure trip. He has recently returned from Taku Harbor, Alaska, where he is interested in a salmon cannery. He reports the pack this year equal to previous packs and entirely satisfactory to the company. After completing the business of the cannery in Astoria, he will take a trip to Southern California, where he will spend the winter. Mr. Carlson has not been in Astoria for nearly a year and expressed himself as being well pleased with the growth and prosperity of the city.

DRUNKEN LOGGERS FALL OVERBOARD

CHRIST ALATALO OF NASEL FALLS OFF THE SLIP AT FISHER BROS' WHARF LAST NIGHT AND IS DROWNED—COMPANION SAVED.

Under the influence of liquor, August Christ Alatalo, a native of Finland, was drowned last night about 7 o'clock. He with two other loggers employed at Wentworth's logging camp on the lower Nasel, boarded the steamer Shamrock at Knappton yesterday afternoon and made the round trip to Astoria. When the Shamrock tied up at her wharf at three went ashore and took on a few more jolts. One remembered that he had left his logging shoes aboard the boat and the trio started back to get them. They were barely able to navigate and when they reached the boat Gust Hannilla stumbled, causing the others to fall down and Hannilla fell over both of them. The gang plank had been pulled in and it was about three feet from the slip to the lower deck of the boat. After getting up, they attempted to jump to the boat, when Alatalo and Hannilla, missing the boat, fell overboard.

Jack Adams, who was near Fisher Bros' store, heard the men shouting for help and he, with George C. Layzell, mate of the Shamrock, went to their assistance, and succeeded in pulling Hannilla out, but Alatalo disappeared. Grappling hooks were secured and an effort made to find him, but without success. He must have sunk immediately.

His name was August Christ Alatalo, residing at 1337 Franklin Avenue, and he was at one time a fisherman on the river, but has worked in logging camps in recent years. He was formerly a resident of Astoria and has a sister living in Upper Astoria. He was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and one child.

When Hannilla was fished out, he did not stop to see what had become of his friend, but hiked off toward Uniontown and could not be found, although police officers tried to locate him in order to ascertain the particulars.

Saturday Last Day—An error was made in the Astorian when it stated that the time to file nominations for city officers expired on the first of November. The law requires all petitions for nominations to be filed fifteen days prior to the primary election. This occurs on November 12, consequently the time for filing petitions expires next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Up to yesterday, no petition had been filed. Chas. H. Abercrombie filed a notice that he would be a candidate for city attorney, but has not filed his petition, and the notice amounts to nothing.

Registrations—Thirteen legal voters registered at the auditor's office yesterday, being about equally divided between the two parties. The total registrations up to the close of business last night was 64, divided among the precincts as follows: No. 1, 8; No. 2, 9; No. 3, 14; No. 4, 26; No. 5, 0; No. 6, 13.

To All Interested—The Dorcas Society of the First Lutheran church will be entertained this evening by Mrs. Rose Nordstrum, at her home in Alderbrook.

Irving Club—The Commercial Industrial committee of the Irving club held a meeting last evening. City betterments and improvements were discussed and routine business transacted.

Paid Bonded Interest—City Treasurer Dealey has forwarded the sum of $1,503.75 to New York in payment of the semi-annual interest on bonds of the city of Astoria held in that city.

Moved to Goldfield—W. L. Robb, formerly collector of customs for the port of Astoria has established himself in business at Goldfield and will make his home there in the future.

Sold His Business—A. D. Craig has sold his harness shop and business on Bond street to R. M. Gaston who will conduct it in the future. Mr. Craig will remain in Astoria until next spring and then move to California.

City Receipts—Chief of Police Gamal yesterday turned over to the city treasurer the sum of $1,020.25, collected from sundry licenses in the city for the quarter ending September 30. This is the largest amount collected from this source for the corresponding period in any one year.

A wireless telegraph station is to be established at North Head for the United States government. W. N. Concanon of San Francisco, arrived in Astoria yesterday to make arrangements for the establishment of the system and expects to commence immediate construction. He has been engaged by the government to establish a line of stations at all the principal points between Alaska and San Diego, and has completed all but three of them. He has just completed the installation of the system at Tatoosh Island. He expects to have the station at North Head completed by January 1. A MOST WORTHY ARTICLE.

When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year, it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It positively cures coughs, and all Pulmonary diseases. One of the best known merchants in Mobile, Ala., says:
 "For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter coughs; we owe this to Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Hart's drug store.
