SOCIETY.

The annual bazaar program to be given in behalf of the First Methodist church of this city, on the evening of Tuesday next, December 4th, at the Reed Building, will be under the direct supervision of Miss Elmore, an assurance that promises the perfect disposition of that element of the evening's enjoyment.

Among the bright social events of the past week was the dance of the Owl Club, at Logan's Hall, under the patronage of some of the leaders of Astoria's social realm. It was conducted upon the best known principles of entertainment and in every phase was a marked success. It will be long remembered as the chief feature of this season's series of delightful social enterprises.

Mrs. Frank J. Donnerberg entertained the Clover club on Tuesday afternoon last, at her Harrison avenue home, and was responsible for the dainty lunch that followed the regular course of the club's business. She was a delightful and successful hostess.

The Astoria friends of Professor I. N. Garman (and their name is legion) were happily surprised at the announcement of his wedding in Portland on Thursday last, to Miss Cora S. Comstock of Essex, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Garman have returned to Astoria and have been the recipients of generous and widespread congratulations.

The Memorial service of the B. P. O. E., Astoria lodge No. 180, will transpire at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the lodge room in the I. O. O. F. building. John Claire Montleth, of Portland, will be master of ceremonies, and as usual, the work performed will be of the highest order and deeply interesting. The oration of the day will be by Mr. Albert E. Clark of the metropolis, and will be in perfect harmony with the sacred and beautiful character of the anniversary.

This was the second annual event of the kind given by this club and set the pace for those that a certain to follow. The decorations consisted of hemlock evergreens in transverse streamers, interspersed with brilliant colored electric lights, with plenty of ferns to soften the angles and junctions. The program was unique and very dainty, as well as wholly typical of the auspices and was made up of the nick-names of the club members and their friends. The patronesses were Mesdames Lounsbury, Troyer, Dunbar and Smith.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

Mr. Thomas George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by Frank Hart, Leading Druggist.

Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar, is especially appropriate for children, no opiates or poisons of any character, conforms to the conditions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law, June 30, 1906. For Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It expels Coughs and Colds by gently moving the bowels. Guaranteed. Sold by Frank Hart's Drug Store.
