TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Meets This Afternoon--

Cushing Relief Corps, No. 3, will hold a special meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock in their hall. Business of importance. Mamie Clinton, Secretary.

Property Sold--

Harnegat, the Tillamook Bay property of the late Edward Hallock has been disposed of by the administrator of the estate, his sister Mrs. Cotter of Portland. The consideration was given at $5,800.

To Portland Soon--

Frank L. Bishop, the secretary of the Astoria Iron Works, has filed his resignation with that house, and will go to the metropolis on the first of May to accept a fine position with the Portland Hardware Company.

Home From Coos--

G. Wingate, of this city, was a homing passenger on the steamer Alliance yesterday, from Coos county, where he has been for several weeks past on business. Mr. Wingate reports that country alive and booming, with all hands following up some cherished plan, or other, and, apparently, making them develop satisfactorily.

Debate At Eugene

A telegram from Eugene was received late last night saying that the Judges were two to one against the Astorians and while they last their work was of high class. It is understood that Eugene has been debating this same question for three years with outside students and if such is the case of course the advantage of being thoroughly prepared was on their side.

In Full Blast Again --

The mills of the Westport Lumber Company, at Westport, which, owing to the car-shortage and other matters, have been closed down for several months past, are once more in operation with a full crew and doing business at full blast, which is a good sign, not only for the company, but for many others to whom the resumption is a boon in the way of labor and business.

On A Business Trip --

Travelling Auditor A. E. Buttner, of the Weinhard Brewing Company, was in the city yesterday, on a business trip, and in the course of conversation said that just as soon as Trustee Westinger, of the Weinhard Estate shall have recovered from his recent indisposition, he intends to come to Astoria and make all essential arrangements for the new hotel proposition he and his colleagues will erect in this city, bringing his architect with him and determining fully and finally, the scope of the venture and its general plans, ascertaining first just what the citizens here really need in this particular line.

Hospital Items--

William Nyfre, was received at St. Mary's yesterday with a broken leg. In some manner or other he slipped and fell at his home fracturing the left limb.

Peter Nickk a cannery worker of Union Town was brought to the hospital afflicted with fever. Just the exact nature of the fever has not been determined.

The Misses Beth Darling and Elizabeth Henry, nurses at the St. Mary's Hospital who have completed their allotted four months leave on the morning train tomorrow for Portland where they will finish their years course of training.

Commits Arson On Himself--

There are arsonists who delight in setting fire to other people's property and who are really not averse to including the persons of others if things must go that far, but the first arsonist who was quite willing to fire his own person, and that without suggestion from anyone else, arrived here yesterday on the noon train. It was Charlie Gilman, of the R. N. Nason Company, the painters, of Portland. He absently-mindedly lit his pipe just before he mounted the Occident bus to come up town, and when he got inside he thrust the pipe in his pistol pocket and forgot it until the bus began to fill with smoke and the other passengers were making hasty slides out of all possible exits; then it occurred to him that maybe it was his pipe. He put his hand in his pocket and that caught fire, too; so he sprang from the vehicle and begged a passing citizen to open up a fire-hydrant that was near, and this was all that saved him from utter extinction. It is said this was the closest he has been to real water for a good while.

An Astorian Honored--

The Portland presbythly has appointed John Bryce, one of Astoria's most respected citizens, as commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, which meets at Columbus, Ohio, on the 15th of the coming month. Mr. Bryce has been an elder in the Presbyterian church for the past 30 years, and for this, and all other reasons, is entitled to any honors that may be devised in his behalf.

Still Hunting For It--

The telephone cable, lying on the bed of the Columbia river between Fort Stevens and Columbia, which was broken by the steamer Coaster some weeks ago, still eludes the government officers who have been searching for it on the engineering steamer Major Guy Howard. Today the steamer will pick the south shore end of the parted line and follow it to the break in the hope of sooner locating the other end.

Done In Probate--

The following orders were made by Judge Trenchard in the probate court yesterday appointing William Deeds as one of the appraisers of the estate of the late David Johansen, vice William Newman who has removed from the state. Appointing Annie M. Powell as administratrix of the estate of Hannah Brown, deceased, and naming Messrs: E. A. Gerding, G. F. Parker and T. S. Cornelius as appraisers thereof. The bond of the administratrix was fixed at $500.

Big Catch Reported--

Fish Warden Van Dusen received a letter yesterday from Water Bailiff Smith, of the Clackamas district saying that the catch in the Clackamas and Willamette was the heaviest in years. While the fish were small in size, there were more of them than in a long time. Wednesday night Charles Eley of Oregon City caught 2600 pounds of fish, using 4 or 5 nets and one drift net. Henry Himler caught forty in one night. A fisherman by the name of Oldenberger caught over one hundred in one boat.

"Other, Peoples Money"--

The new bill at the Astoria last evening drew a crowded house and was well received. "Other Peoples Money" is sketched on the generous lines of farce comedy, and its broad humor is infectious to an unlimited degree. While it is an excuse to laugh and the Astorians present availed themselves of the privilege, there is many a jest that is only too true, in life. The cast could not be in more capable hands, the action is carried out with a swing and dash, there is something doing every minute. Mr. George B. Howard whose work was so satisfactory in

BEHIND EACH ARTICLE SOLD IN HIS STORE

Christopher Jr., has even a better advantage to display his ability. As the broker and father, Hutensin Hooper, he had the audience in convulsions the whole time he was on the stage. Miss Stella Raxette, as the daughter, plays her part with a shy, coy grace and just enough expression to endear her to the hearts of her audience. "Other Peoples Money" will be repeated tonight and Sunday.

To Property Owners--

The undersigned for ourselves and those we represent are willing to buy and pay for property in this vicinity to the value of $1,000, to $100,000, or several pieces of property of various kinds, business property, or lots or acreage, but we must have fair prices and will not under any circumstances pay profits to land grabbers who have no bona fide intentions, but who have tied up desirable property on contract and expect new-comers to pay them enormous and unfair advances on same. If you want to sell and will offer us a fair deal, address L. L. Folsom or W. D. Field, care of F. N. Clark, Astoria, Oregon.
