Visiting a Schoolmate—

Miss Emily F. Otis, a schoolmate of Mrs. C. E. Ward, of this city, is visiting the latter lady during the Regatta. Miss Otis is from Minneapolis, Minn., and is in the legal department of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company at Tacoma.

Fire Last Night—

Last night at about 8 o'clock an alarm of fire was turned in from box 1 and soon the apparatus responded. The fire was found to be at the old Trullinger mill and is thought to have been incendiary. Some time ago the main building was partially destroyed and the alarm last night was for a fire that consumed the remainder.

A Verdict of Not Guilty—

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of Nick George charged with assaulting Palo, the fisherman, after a deliberation of about five minutes brought in a verdict of not guilty. The evidence showed that George did not assault Palo until the latter attempted to strike George. The case of Vlachos, the boat-puller who was under $75 bonds, was then by mutual consent dismissed.

Gambling Law Enforced—

John Stephens was arrested yesterday by Liverpool Jack on a charge of allowing gambling in his premises, the Savoy saloon. His bonds were placed at $200 and the hearing of the case was set for 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Andrew Palo, who was also arrested for playing draw poker at this place was placed under $200 bond and his case will probably be called at the same time. Petition Filed—

Is Well Again—

Stark, the logger from Gray's River, who was taken to the hospital early yesterday morning in a bad condition, was discharged yesterday. Dr. Pilkington and the attaches of the hospital with good attention soon had him back to life although he was seriously ill. Acute alcoholism was the cause of his trouble.

Gaiety at Dance—

In addition to the many pre-Regatta features which were already in operation yesterday the Country Dance held sway last night. The large hall was filled and many of Astoria's society people were present tasting the first gaiety of the Regatta season. For those socially inclined last night the dance was an object of an evening's entertainment and at one time there were eighteen sets on the floor.

Exhibitors will call her up on the telephone not later than Monday afternoon, so that all the potted exhibits will be installed before Monday evening at the latest.

The prospects are that this show, to be held in connection with the County Fair, will be well worth seeing. Numerous exhibitors have commenced to send in handsome potted flowers and a great many more will take advantage of the means provided for the carrying of the plants to the exhibit. MAYOR WELCOMES OREGON YACHTS IN ASTORIA SINGERS

EXTENDS THEM HEARTY CORDIALITY AND AROUSES ENTHUSIASM BY HIS SPEECH IN FOARD & STOKES' HALL.

Then President Nanthrup introduced Mayor Wise to the Norwegian Singers yesterday all through his remarks, the large audience was very generous in its applause, and at the conclusion of the Mayor's speech, the enthusiasm was very pronounced. He said in part:

"Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen: A year ago, at the request of the local singing club, I sent you a cordial invitation, coupled with the promise that we would give you the freedom of the city. I am here to redeem that promise, and the people of this city are back of me and will see to it that you enjoy yourselves to your heart's content."

After some humorous remarks, the Mayor said:

"This is perhaps the most cosmopolitan town of its size in the world, here dwell men and women who have come from every part of the world and all are welcome; but after all, we do not care so much where a man comes from. 'Where is he going to?' is the paramount question."

"It is not accident of birth, but loyalty to this government and love for its free institutions that marks the real American."

"I prefer to judge each man by his actions in his rule of conduct on the level. Does he act squarely toward his fellow men? Does he support his family decently? Is he sober, industrious and peaceable? These are the standards by which to judge whether a man is going upward or downward."

"Therefore, since I have reason to know that our fellow citizens of Scandinavian birth are aiming high, since I know that they are industrious, peaceable and loyal to this city and the government, I take an especial delight in extending to each and every one of you, a most sincere welcome and hope that when you do leave, you will carry away pleasant remembrances and find upon your return home that your folks and your business affairs are all right and that you have been benefited by your visit to Astoria, as we feel, we have been benefited because of your presence."
