HERMAN WISE

ASTORIA'S GREATEST CLOTHIER.

TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

A Good Investment—
For Sale—A fine piece of improved city property bringing good rents. Address "Marks," Morning Astorian office.

May Return Today—
Police Commissioner Martin Foard is expected home today from Bucoda, where he has been looking after his lumber interests.

Marriage License—
A marriage license was issued in the county clerk's office yesterday to Paul Olson and Helena Anderson, both of this city.

The Commercial.
The Commercial still continues to do a good business. The finest grades of different kinds of refreshments kept at this well known establishment assures a continuance of its popularity. The proprietor, Otto Sund, is a genial gentleman, and is well and favorably known in this city. Drop into the Commercial when in the neighborhood. It is on Commercial street near Eleventh.

Certified Copy of Will—
A certified copy of the last will and testament of Robert Catlin, was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. The will was made in Washington, D. C., on September 19, 1901, and Mary L. Catlin is the legatee, and made executrix, without bonds. Robert Catlin died on December 28, 1903.

Dog Drowned—
M. N. Adams, of the Astor House, mourns the loss of "Buck," his well-known dog. "Buck" fell overboard and was drowned and on the recovery of the body it was given a burial. Mr. Adams feels the loss of his pet who was his constant companion for over 16 years.

Letter From Dr. Aug. Kinney—
In a letter to W. E. McAfee, received yesterday morning from Dr. August Kinney, the latter, who is traveling in Europe for his health, writes that he is physically in about the same condition as when he left here, and that Mrs. Kinney's health is fine. They will remain in London for some time and their return is indefinite.

Police Matters—
Officer Stark yesterday tendered his resignation as patrolman, as requested. Officer Twombly has refused to submit his resignation, to the board of police commissioners, and action will be further taken in his case at a meeting that will be held next week. The evidence taken in the recent investigation is now on file in the city auditor's office and is public property.

At The Hospital—
Fred English, who had been ill, for the past few weeks, has recovered, and left the hospital yesterday. C. J. Stanley is reported as being very low and little hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Will Not Come—
The Bunker Hill football team, of Portland, will not come to Astoria, as was expected. The team is being reorganized and is out of practice but hope later to play a game with the local club.

Board of Equalization Adjourns—
The county board of equalization adjourned yesterday for the year. The work of the assessor in the making of the assessment has given general satisfaction there having been no objections filed by taxpayers.

Rumored Change—
The Olney school building will be vacated when the rooms at the Taylor school are completed. It is thought that the building will be remodeled for an engine house to be used by hose No. 1 when compelled to remove from the court house.

New Manager—
The management of the insurance department of the Columbia Trust Co., will after November 1 be vested in Mr. N. J. Judah who will give it his exclusive attention. Mr. Judah's popularity and his reputation for probity and energy assures a successful management. His many friends wish him every manner of success.

A Wireless Message—
The first wireless message to be intercepted in Astoria was one, that was picked up by the steamer Roanoke while she was lying at the Callender dock yesterday morning. The message was being sent from the steamer President to the agent at San Francisco and read as follows: "C. D. Dunham, G. P. A. of P. C. S. S. Co., Frisco steamship President, 8 a. m., October 26, off Destruction Island, foggy." When the Elmer, owned by the same company as the Roanoke, is equipped with the wireless apparatus the movements of these boats will be known at all times, and the innovation will be much appreciated by the traveling public.

Ice Cream Sherbets

Candies

Sons Born—
The wife of J. P. Carlson presented him with a fine boy yesterday morning. A son was also born in this city to the wife of Bernard C. Bjornsgard, of Skamokawa.

A Chicken Dinner—
There will be a chicken dinner served at the Irving Hotel today. This popular hotel, under the new management, is becoming successful.

Go To Seaside—
Lem Howe, Earl Siebert, O. H. McNairy and Charlie Hobson leave for Seaside this morning. These gentlemen are going on a clam investigating trip and they promise an interesting report of the results of their investigation.

A Fish Story—
Neil Crosby is on a fishing trip to Gray's River. Yesterday he shipped, by the steamer Wanona, a fine batch of salmon trout to Mrs. Crosby. Capt. Hull said last night that he brought the fish but didn't eat them. Mrs. Crosby attended to that.

Death of Old Resident—
Julius Strauss, who has been a merchant of Astoria for over 30 years, died last evening at 8 o'clock, of stomach troubles, after an illness of nearly a month. Mr. Strauss, who was 62 years of age, was born in Germany and came to this country when a boy. He located in Astoria in 1877, and since that time has held the confidence and esteem of Astoria's people. He leaves a devoted wife, a daughter, Mrs. Joe D. Strauss, a sister, Mrs. L. H. Lewis, of Portland, another sister, Mrs. T. L. Ayres, of San Francisco, and a brother, Jacob Strauss, of San Francisco. Mr. Strauss was a member of Seaside Lodge, A. O. U. W., of this city. His remains will be taken to Portland, tomorrow evening, for burial in the Jewish cemetery in that city. The many friends of Mr. Strauss, in this city, will regret to learn of his demise.

Fined For Vagrancy—
In the police court yesterday Sophie Oliver and Ethel Williams were charged with vagrancy. These young women have been frequenting Astor street and that vicinity and were inmates of a house on Sixth street, near the railroad track. About two weeks ago Sophie Oliver was arrested and fined $30 for the same offense, which she paid. She was warned by the court that if she did not change her mode of life she was apt to be arrested at any time. She continued in her ways and was again arrested yesterday. Ethel Williams, her cousin, was also arrested and the pair were given a good lecture by Judge Anderson. Ethel Williams, when asked her age, stated that it was 21 years although the judge had his opinions as to that, it being said that she is but 18. On their promise to leave the city they were fined $30 or 15 days in jail and sentence withheld. Judge Anderson admonished them to lead better lives in any city they may go to and they were released.

Olsen-Anderson—
One of the prettiest weddings of the week was celebrated at the home of Albert Johnson on Grand avenue, last evening, when Miss Helen Anderson became the bride of Mr. Paul Olsen. About 25 guests were present, being the immediate friends of the happy couple. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Isarick of the First Methodist Church, a delicious luncheon was partaken of by the assembled guests. The parlors of the home were beautifully decorated with clusters of white carnations, roses and chrysanthemums. The young people will make their home in Astoria.

Want More Literature—
The Chamber of Commerce has been requested by the Northern Pacific and Great Northern roads to supply them with additional literature exploiting the resources of Astoria and vicinity. In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.
