Eastern Bankers Refute Statements That They Are Not Trying to Help West.

Bradstreets Says Good Progress Has Been Made in Changing Conditions—With Returning Confidence Hoarded Money is Being Again Deposited.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Leading New York banks are exerting themselves actively today to meet the demand of their country correspondents and depositors for currency. They declare that the suggestions made from several Western sources that they are not meeting legitimate demands for currency from the West are entirely unfounded and that they are on the contrary taking every practical measure to aid the West and South. It is admitted cotton shipments are seriously checked by the lack of small bills and the inability of Southern banks to handle the immense amount of business accumulating at Southern points. On the other hand grain shipments are in better shape owing to the gold secured by St. Paul and Minneapolis banks, and arrangements for paying cash in New York on grain bills. The total engagements of gold now amount to $50,000,000 this total being materially increased today by announcements of several purchases not heretofore made public. This gold will afford a basis for approximately $200,000,000 and will materially assist the New York banks in their efforts to meet the pressure for currency throughout the country. The extent of effort made by the New York banks to meet demands upon them is indicated by the showing made by the bank statement, which shows that nearly $60,000,000 has disappeared from New York banks since last week's statement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Bradstreets tomorrow will say that good progress has been made in accommodating the country to the changed financial conditions, this too with strikingly little friction, considering the scarcity of currency and the widespread substitution of credit instruments for actual cash.

At the same time the wholesale and jobbing trade has quieted down perceptibly and the disposition in industrial lines is to curtail production where ever possible. There prevails this week a rather more optimistic tone than last, the outgrowth of better feeling in the East. Large arrivals of gold from Europe and the ideal basic conditions, both as regards the purchasing power of the people, and the absence of large stocks, are better than in some preceding years of stress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Dunn & Company's weekly review of the trades will say tomorrow there are fewer commercial failures in the United States this week than for two weeks past reflecting improved conditions. The situation is more encouraging because of the belief that the financial storm is being weather remarkably well. Immense importations of gold has served to restore confidence in banks to a great degree and with the returning confidence much hoarded money is being deposited.

Slayer Claims he Mistook Man for Burglar.

POLICE HAVE OTHER THEORY

Many Endearing Letters Found in Effect of Dead Man Which Were Written by Wife of Andrew Detsch Who Did the Killing.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—The shooting affair, in which Harry Ferree of this city was killed last Tuesday night, by Andrew J. Detsch at the latter home, where Ferree boarded was inquired into today by the coroner's inquest. Detsch committed to jail. Ferree was found lying in the hall outside a bedroom occupied by Detsch and his wife. Detsch claimed he mistook Ferree for a burglar and shot through the door, but among Ferree's effects were found many endearing letters from Detsch's wife. When confronted with these Mrs. Detsch confessed her relations with Ferree and said her husband learned of them. Detsch however, maintains he mistook Ferree for a burglar and did not know of his wife's relations with Ferree. The police are working on the theory that Detsch, who is a traveling salesman, learned of his wife's conduct, compelled her lure Ferree to her room and then shot him as he was about to open the door.

Engineer in Saving Town Meets With Death.

SECTION GANG IS DESTROYED

Train on Which Were Explosives Takes Fire and Explosion Occurs While Passing a Gang of Mexicans—Ran Train Half a Mile From Town.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 8.—The death list as the result of the Neozari explosion yesterday is now placed at 14 or 15, all Mexicans besides John Chisholm, aged 13, who was riding on the train when the explosion occurred. The train on the narrow gauge railroad to the Pilsars mine in some way caught fire.

In the train were two cars of explosives and the fact that the concentrator and a good part of the concentrator were saved is due to the bravery of the Mexican engineer of the train, Jesus Garcia. Garcia after calling to the rest of his crew to jump, ran the train away from the town. He had proceeded about half a mile when the explosion occurred and he was blown to atoms. It is reported that another member of the train crew stayed with him and was killed. The heavy death list is due to the fact that the explosion occurred just as the train was passing a section gang.

'Jack the Ripper' Murders in Berlin Are Cleared by Confession.

MIND BECAME DISORDERED

Patient at Asylum for Insane Makes Heartless Statement as to Details of Shocking Crimes—Was in a Rage at Mother and Sister.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—A series of crimes resembling those of the "Jack the Ripper" murders, only here the victims were little girls, instead of women, has been cleared up by the confession of a printer's apprentice named Paul Minow, an epileptic 22 years old, who recently was confined in the asylum for the insane at Herzeberg. Authorities of the institution were informed that Minow had been talking in a rambling manner of murders. Suspecting him of having committed murders they encouraged him to talk with the results that he freely related in a heartless manner how he had been taunted by his mother and sister with laziness, had gone out into streets in a rage and vented his feelings by stabbing four little girls, one after another. He then rambled about the city for awhile and eventually returned home. His mind became so disordered that he was sent to the asylum a week later. The Police have confirmed Minow's confession.

CHEWS GUM.

Steve Adams Listens to Testimony of Phillips Couple.

SPOKANE, Nov. 8.—A special to the Spokesman-Review Rathdrum says: Steve Adams heard like a voice from the grave today, the evidence of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Phillips giving the details of the circumstances surrounding his movements at the time of the killing of Tyler. Unmoved, Adams sat twirling his lead pencil or chewing gum, his head against the wall, his eyes shifting, but there was no smile on his lips as during the first days of the trial. All day attorneys followed the path made by Mr. and Mrs. Phillips at the first trial. Frightened out of the country by threatening letters and dynamite, Phillips and his wife refused to return and tell what they knew of the wild experiences along Marble Creek in 1904. According to the attorneys in the case, they are making better progress than at the former trial. Tomorrow the state will go back to the finding of Tyler's body.

FORGETS THE PLACE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—At a time when she needs money badly in her fight for life, Mrs. Doris McDonald, charged with the murder of Webster Guerin has forgotten the hiding place of $18,000 worth of bonds given her by her late husband, Michael C. McDonald.

This proof of the woman's mental aberration, cited by her counsel, Col. J. Hamilton Lewis, was sufficient to induce Judge Branteno yesterday to permit her case to go over until the December term of court.

"The condition of my client is pitiable," said Colonel Lewis. "She cannot talk connectedly of the events connected with or following the shooting. I have tried to talk to her 60 times that I might be ready for trial but I have not been able to get a coherent story.

"What could be more convincing that her insanity is real than that she is unable to tell me where she has hidden valuable bonds. Her inability to produce these bonds has delayed the settlement of her husband's estate. She has spoken to me frequently of these lost bonds and I have done everything in my power unsuccessfully to bring her back to some remembrance of where she placed them. She does not know the exact value of the bonds, but I suppose it is around $18,000. The bonds are of the Lake Street Elevated Road and other West Side properties in which McDonald was interested."

They will be parts of the biggest steel safe deposit vault in the world. The vault, which will be ready for use next March, will weigh 1215 tons. It is a two story structure with special elevator and stairways between the lower and upper stories. The inner dimensions of the lower vault, which is many feet below the sidewalk are: Length 19 feet, width 30 feet 6 inches, height 9 feet 4 inches.
