THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alet, the Astorian office. Phone Main 661. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

The Dorcas Society of the First Lutheran Church held their annual business meeting on Friday night in the church parlors. During the evening refreshments were served. The meeting was well attended.

Judge and Mrs. F. J. Taylor are touring California, while at Palo Alto they were met by Frank Parker, Otto Utzinger and Hamilton Garner who are students at Stanford University and shown the different points of interest in and about the college.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Perry, of Houlton, Oregon, arrived in Astoria Friday for a short visit. Mr. Perry attended the meeting of the delegates of the Knights of Pythias who are arranging for a convention to be held in this district.

Baron Karerichen, of Rensburg, Germany, who has been spending several days at the beach in Astoria Friday en route to Portland.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the English Lutheran Church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Vercheuren on Tenth street and Jerome avenue on Thursday afternoon. The meeting was well attended by the members and friends. A short musical program was rendered after the close of the business meeting and refreshments were served. All present thoroughly enjoyed the meeting.

The Liberty Bell Social Club held another of their successful dances in Logan's Hall last night. There was a good attendance and excellent music was furnished by the Pacific orchestra. All enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. J. Tuttle entertained the members of the Pastime Club on Friday evening. Every one present had a delightful time. Cards were played, the lucky prize-winners being Mrs. James Welch and Mr. G. Wingate. During the evening the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Dr. and Mrs. O. B. Estes are entertaining this week Mr. J. W. Estes, Mrs. E. E. Estes and Master Eugene Estes, of Seattle, Wash.

The members of the D. M. C. D. Club met with Miss Anna Campbell at her home on East Duane and thirty-seventh streets on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. William E. Tallant and Miss Tallant charmingly entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club this week at their palatial home on Grand avenue. Mrs. Brink winning the prize at cards, which was the form of amusement for the afternoon.

Mrs. A. A. Finch and Mrs. Nelson Troyer were the hostesses on Friday night at the Troyer home on Third street for the Fortnightly Euchre Club. The attendance was large and the evening passed very pleasantly for all. The prize winner on this occasion were Mrs. R. G. Prael and Mr. C. B. Allen.

On Wednesday, January 8th, at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reith, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Kathryn May Reith to Mr. K. Albert Johnson. The residence was beautifully decorated for this auspicious occasion with holly, fern and ivy. Promptly at the noon hour, to the solemn strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bridal party entered the parlor. The groom attended by William O. Reith, brother of the bride, leading the way. Miss Rose Nisbet, of Portland, charmingly gowned as brides maid, preceded the bride, who entered leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. J. W. Reith. The Rev. William S. Gilbert pronounced the impressive words which united the lives of these young people. At the close of the ceremony, congratulations were showered upon the happy couple. A sumptuous dinner was served which all present enjoyed. About one hundred and twenty-five guests were in attendance, a launch being chartered to carry those going from Astoria.

The bride elegantly attired in white looked very sweet and lovable. The groom is a rising young business man of Astoria. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left one the evening train for a tour of the coast cities and on their return they will make Astoria their home.

The members of the Knights of Pythias lodge held a very successful public installation on Friday night in Logan's Hall. Over three hundred people many coming from Seaside and St. Helens witnessed the ceremonies. During the evening Mayor Wise gave an entertaining address on "Friendship" and Mr. J. W. Whyte handled his subject, "Benevolence, well. Mr. J. H. Grutke's talk was on "Charity." Mr. William Grutke and Miss Larsen favored the audience with solos. Mr. Drott sang a Swedish song. Miss Ester Sundquist delighted the listeners with the violin playing and Mr. Larsen gave a solo which was well received. At the conclusion of the program dancing was engaged in, excellent music being furnished by an orchestra of five pieces.

Coming Social— The evening social, which will take place at the residence of Mrs. Chas. S. Brown, on Franklin avenue, next Friday evening, promises to be an enjoyable affair. It will be given by the Ladies' Guild of Grace Episcopal Church.

A very interesting program was rendered by Prof. Enna and pupils on last Tuesday night at their regular monthly musical recital at the home of Captain and Mrs. C. S. Gunderson. In spite of the inclement weather many were in attendance and all were enthusiastic in their praise of the different numbers rendered. The professor gave an instructive talk on "Technique" which was well received. During the evening Miss Harriet Wise was the recipient of a handsome gold medal given as an award of merit for her excellent work on the piano during the past term. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the recital. Following is the program rendered in full: Allegro in G Minor, Scarlatti-Tausig; No. 9 and 13 from Well Tempered Clavier-Chop. Bach; Sonata op. 25, Louis Glass; Fantasia in D Minor, Stenhamer, Concert Study, Strelezki; By the Sea, Smetena; Concert Polonaise, Op. 41, Emil Liebling.

The Greig memorial concert which was to have taken place the coming week has been postponed until January 21st, on account of the illness of some of those who were to participate. This is an event which is being looked forward to with pleasure by the music lovers of Astoria and no doubt it will be well patronized by the "elite" of the city.

Miss Gertrude Stockton, of Portland, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. G. Prael, this week.

The "Old Ladies' Club" of East Astoria, was entertained by Mrs. Charles Goddard on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The Clover Club members were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. J. J. Uyard on Seventh street on Tuesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Baptist Church held a successful social and business meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Graham on Exchange street.

Mr. J. T. Robinson, of Iowa City, has arrived in Astoria for an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. L. Graham and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wygard had as their guests for a few days Mr. and Mrs. Bert White, of Portland, who had been spending the holiday season at their cottage at Seaside.

A delightful surprise party was tendered Mrs. J. W. Smith of East Astoria on Friday evening by a score or more of her intimate friends. Five hundred was played, every one enjoying the game. Delectable refreshments were served. Among those present were the following: Mesdames Goddard, Gambel, Knutsen, Burckholder, Swartz, D. Gambel, Utzinger and Linley, the Misses Goddard, Gambel, Knutsen and Basie, and Messrs. Morton, Havard, George, Harry and Gus Gambel.

Miss Francis Estes has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends at McMinville, Oregon. On New Year's day Miss Estes had the pleasure of acting as brides maid at the wedding of her friend, Miss Marian Hull to Mr. William Robinson.

Mr. Christian Flor, of Fort Stevens, and Miss Lydia Nelson were married on Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Brown in Alderbrook. The Rev. J. T. Field of the Norwegian Methodist church officiating. The bride is a niece of Rev. Mr. Ellefson of the Seamen's Institute.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the Seamen's Institute. The meeting which was an instructive one, was much enjoyed.

The Rev. Mr. Ellefson and a number of invited friends will hold religious services today on board the British ship Rajore.

A very pleasant "social evening" was given at the Seamen's Institute last night. About 40 friends gathered in the parlors to assist in the entertaining. An excellent musical program was rendered. Solos were given by the Misses Larsen, Mildred and Bertha Stevenson and Mr. Ziegler. Misses Rannels and Jeffers played violin selections; Rudolph Kinkella gave a cornet solo, and Miss Jennie Jeffers favored those present with an entertaining recitation. Mr. Gaston was master of ceremonies and furnished popcorn. Mrs. Gearhart and Mrs. Gaston assisted Mrs. Ellefson in serving coffee and cake. The sailors of the British ship Rajore were unable to be present on account of the vessel having gone out into the channel.

Stomach Trouble Cured.

If you have any trouble with your stomach you should take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. P. Klotz, of Edina, Mo., says: "I have used a great many different medicines for stomach trouble, but find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used." For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.
