The Commercial.

One of the coziest and most popular resorts in the city is the Commercial. The best of goods are only handled, and this fact being so well known, a large business is done at the Commercial, on Commercial street, near Eleventh.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Astoria People Are Doing All They Can For Fellow Sufferers.

Astoria testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Astoria who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Astoria people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's an Astoria case:

J. Pedersen, 613 Commercial street, Astoria, Oregon, says: "For two years I suffered more or less from kidney complaint. At night there was such a terrible aching through the small of my back that I would be unable to sleep and consequently arose in the morning feeling tired and worn out. I was languid and nervous through the day, had severe headaches, dizzy spells were of frequent occurrence and at such times, spots would float before my eyes. At last I procured Doan's Kidney Pills, used them according to directions and received a complete cure." (From statement given January 19, 1906.)

The Cure Proved Permanent. On September 3, 1907, Mr. Pedersen said as follows: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and it gives me great pleasure to state that I have not suffered any sign of kidney trouble since I was cured through their use."

A Curious Grace.

The most curious form, or, rather, expression, of grace after meat which I have ever come across was that customary at Clifford's inn, one of the vanished inns of chancery. The society consisted of two distinct bodies, the principal and rules and the Kentish mess, each body having its own table. At the conclusion of the dinner the chairman of the Kentish mess, first bowing to the principal of the inn, took from the hands of the servitor some small rolls or loaves of bread and, without saying a word, dashed them several times on the table, after which they were taken away. Solemn silence reigned only by the thumps prevailed during this curious substitute for a verbal grace.—Cor. London Chronicle.

WHAT THE SURVEYORS ARE ABOUT

SOLUTION OF A MYSTERY THAT HAS BEEN A SOURCE OF SPECULATIVE AND SPEC-TACULAR INFERENCES.

There has been a great deal of conjecture in this city and neighborhood, lately, as to the significance of the surveying going on down around Fort Stevens and the coast country south of that post, and back, and north of, Forts Canby and Columbia, in Washington; and a number of more or less spectacular notions have gained credence. The Astorian, with a desire to cover the whole ground and get at the real object of the engineering activity that was essentially of a military character, went to headquarters for express information, and got it.

The work that has been done in this line, on both sides of the river, is part and parcel of a general purpose of the Government to secure specific data and surveys of all the country contributory to the three posts at the mouth of the Columbia, as well as about all other military establishments in this country, bearing on the coasts in order that perfect plans may be formed and placed in the hands of commanding officers, here and elsewhere, for the carrying out of land defenses and guarding the posts from attack from the rear. The scheme of defense takes cognizance of the topography of the country, the possible lines of invasion, the feasible landing points on the coast and every element of advantage the enemy possesses in such enterprise, and the counter-phases of the situation that cover the protection of the forts and entree to the country; nothing being left unknown and plotted that shall be of service in such an emergency.

This is the substance of the story and it comes from an unquestioned source of authority; and fact that goes far to make it an assuring piece of news to all concerned.

A Mean Question.

Charles—I heard the other day that Gerald is going to get married. Edward—Well, why shouldn't he? He's comfortably well off. "That's just the whole point. Why doesn't he remain so?"

It is better to cure the little cough than to take chances of consumption. The best cough cure is Kemp's Balsam. Druggists sell it at 25 cents and 50 cents a bottle.

Well Tested.

"It seems to me that I have heard most of the ideas advanced in your speech before." "That," said Senator Sorghum, "merely goes to show that they are good ideas, which will stand wear and tear." Washington Star.

A Reversal.

"What will happen when women rule?" "Among other things, I presume father-in-law jokes will come into style."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

OVERCOME ALL THE RHEUMATISM

EASILY PREPARED AT HOME—FORCES THE KIDNEYS TO FILTER URIC ACID AND WASTE FROM THE BLOOD.

A large New York health publication tells its readers of a number of simple and safe prescriptions that can be made at home. The following, however, for the cure of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles receives the greatest praise, viz., Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarasaparilla, three ounces. These simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at little cost and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle.

The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime, drinking a full tumblerful of water after each dose. It is further stated that this prescription is a positive remedy for kidney trouble and lame back, weak bladder and urinary difficulties, especially of the elderly people and one of the best things to be used in rheumatic affections, relieving the aches and pains and reducing swellings.

A well-known local druggist states that this mixture acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys; cleanses these spongelike organs and gives them power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood which is the cause of rheumatism.

Cut this out and hand to some sufferer which would certainly be an act of humanity.
