BRYAN DISCUSSES BANK GUARANTY QUESTION

LARGE CROWDS HEAR DEMOCRATIC LEADER'S LENGTHY ADDRESS AT TOPEKA.

ANSWERS TAFT'S CRITICISM

Bryan Points Out That Choice Was Between Postal Savings Bank and the Guaranty Bank and Accuses Taft of Favoring the Former.

TOPEKA, Aug. 27.—Before an audience which filled the Auditorium to overflowing Bryan tonight spoke on guaranty of bank deposits. Previously he had delivered three others, two from the Veranda Hotel and the third at Garfield Park where he attended a picnic of the Knights of Pythias, where he spoke on "Fraternity."

Due to the action of the Kansas republican state convention which endorsed the guaranty of deposits proposition, Bryan made some remarkable supplementary to his prepared speech on that subject. He took up the criticism of Taft and others and asked why the depositors should be left unsecured when the national government demanded security of any bank with which it deposited its money. He pointed out that choice was between the Postal Savings Bank and the Guaranty Bank and accused Taft of favoring unnecessary extension of the sphere of government in advocating the postal savings instead of the guaranty bank. Bryan declared the guaranty bank proposition which would allow the banks to attend to the banking business and yet compel them to give depositors necessary security. Bryan said that three-fourths of the bankers of Kansas favored the guaranty plan and one was opposed; that among the voters there is no opposition and Kansas bankers recognize IS MORE to be done and that a better than postal banks and that four national banks of Oklahoma operating under the guaranty law of that state, and 16 others have applied for state charters. Conclusive proof is that the Oklahoma law is a success.

PORTSMOUTH, N. The commandant's house at the navy yard where the famous fighter died, was the scene of the exercises and Admiral George Dewey, who served with Farragut, lifted the covering from the tablet.

The memorial tablet bears the following inscription:
"Died in this house, August 14, 1870—David Glasgow Farragut, Admiral in the United States navy. Faithful and fearless."

On the opposite corners of the tablet are displayed the United States seal and the regulation anchor of the United States navy.

The naval band played a hymn and salutes were fired by the navy yard battery.

ACTION OF GRAND JURY CAUSES SENSATION

REFUSE TO RETURN INDICTMENTS IN EXCISE CASES AT ORDER OF COURT.

JUDGE DISCHARGES JURY

Foreman of the Body Takes Liberties With Court and Says That Evidence Was Not Presented Upon Which to Base Indictments.

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 27.—The action of Governor Fort is threatening the sending of troops into this famous resort to enforce the state liquor laws. Those people of Atlantic City who observe the laws caused a sensation today by rumors from visitors. Another sensation was sprung at Mays Landing, the county seat of Atlantic County, when the grand jury absolutely refused to obey instructions of the court to return indictments against the excise legislators. The jury returned two indictments against the alleged proprietor and the Steward, so-called millionaires' club in Chelsea, on a charge of gambling, one indictment against an obscene postal card dealer.

Supreme Court Justice Thomas W. Trenchard, who had been requested by the governor to sit with the county judge was so incensed by the action of the grand jury that he instantly discharged it with severe reprimand. Assistant General Haskell who is assisting Prosecutor Goldenburg in the excise case said governor would call out troops although it is an unusual proceeding. Sheriff Johnson of Atlantic County, Mayor Sory of Atlantic City and County Prosecutor Goldenburg tonight refused to redress the situation.

When Foreman Salus of the grand jury heard the reprimand of Judge Trenchard he arose vigorously and took exception in his remarks to the court. He said the jury had done its duty. He declared it a supreme body and represented the will of the people of Atlantic county, representing $55,000,000 of property.

"And I do not intend the deliberations of this body shall be made of political capital," he said. "At every turn we were throttled as grand jurors and that the prosecutor had not presented evidence upon which to base indictments."

PLANS FOR AN "INVASION OF SOUTH" MADE BY TAFT AND LEADERS.

VIRGINIA WILL FIGHT HARD

Senator McCumber Predicts That North Dakota and Adjoining States Will go as Strong For Taft as They Did For Roosevelt.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—That some of the plans of the republican organization in the south are making increase in republican representation in congress from their states, was made known to Chairman Hitchcock today by visitors from Virginia, Alabama, Louisiana. The plan for an "Invasion of the South" was outlined by Taft in his recently speeches and interviews at Hot Springs. He expressed the opinion that the republican national committee managers ought to try and carry the close districts and Hitchcock concurs in him in that view. Today Hitchcock conferred with Alvah H. Martin, a member of the national committee of Virginia, Representative Slemple the state chairman who urged the effort to carry the three close districts of that state; R. P. Parker, national committeeman of Alabama and F. B. Williams, of Louisiana, both whom advocated a fight in their states to increase the representation.

Senator P. J. McCumber and National Committeeman James Kennedy, of North Dakota, predicted North Dakota and adjoining states to go as strong for Taft as they did for Roosevelt four years ago. H. G. Alexander, president of the Alaska-Pacific Steamship Company, while at the republican headquarters today expressed his opinion of a landslide on the Pacific Coast for Taft and Sherman.
