LOVELY WOMAN AND HER ALLURING PEN

CHICAGO HAS A LIVELY DEAL WITH AN ADROIT CHECK MANIPULATOR.

YIELDS PLUNDER AND FREED

Does a Clever "Baby Act" to Hoodwink a Detective and Succeeds Admirably—She Came From Denver.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—With $20,000 bonds which she had obtained from the firm of Babcock, Rushton & Loderback, bond dealers in the Rookery building, a woman known as Alice Cheney Brown was arrested last night at the Union Depot and made to return the securities. She had a ticket for Denver and was aboard the train waiting for its departure when Detective Frank Repetto found her preparing to retire for the night. Repetto's instructions from the brokers were not to detain the woman if she restored the $20,000 worth of bonds. This she readily assented to and she took them from a handbag on the seat beside her.

The woman also passed a worthless check for $63 on the management of the Congress Hotel Company. The detective who is employed by the Hotel Company, had this sole score to settle with the woman. She made good the amount of the check and was allowed to go her way.

The method by which the woman obtained the bonds was by passing a worthless check on the brokers for $19,720. Soon after the transaction Orville E. Babcock, one of the firm, became suspicious of the genuineness of the check and telegraphed to the Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York, on which bank it was drawn. An answer was received that the woman purporting to be Alice Cheney Brown had no account with the Farmers Loan & Trust.

It was known to the brokerage firm that Mrs. Brown was staying at the Annex, and a messenger was sent there to find her. At the hotel it was learned that the woman had paid her bill and left.

She had paid with a check on the Farmers Loan & Trust Company and had ordered a carriage to take her to the LaSalle Station.

Manager Southgate of the Annex examined the check passed on the hotel and inasmuch as the check on the brokerage firm was worthless, he declared that the smaller one was worthless also.

Detective Repetto secured a description and with Mr. Babcock, went to the municipal court where a warrant was sworn out charging the woman with operating a confidence game.

A cabman, who drove the woman from the Annex, was found and he said she had discharged him at the LaSalle Street station. He learned that a woman answering the description of Mrs. Brown had engaged another cabman and that he drove her to the Northwestern depot. After discharging the second cabman she hired a third vehicle and was driven to the Union Depot.

In the baggage room it was discovered that the woman had checked a suitcase to Denver, presenting her railroad ticket at the time. The Burlington train for Denver did not leave Chicago until 11:30 o'clock and Repetto waited in the depot until shortly before the time of its departure. How the woman got past him and aboard the train without being seen is a mystery to the detective. When questioned on that point by Repetto she looked out of the car window and laughed.

At first she pleaded for leniency, asking that she be permitted to pay the hotel bill and continue on her trip to Denver. The detective agreed to accept the $63 for the hotel bill and she paid him in cash. Then she turned over the bonds. When she did so she told him she had planned to obtain the bonds which she had hoped to sell in Denver so she could get funds with which to aid a brother who is under arrest in the East for some offense.

The securities were later turned over to Mr. Babcock who was waiting for Repetto at the Auditorium Annex. Mr. Babcock said the firm would make no effort to prosecute Mrs. Brown.

The bonds were 20 in number of $1000 each. They are first mortgage, five percent bonds of the Madison River Power Company.

Mrs. Brown went to the Annex last Thursday. She registered as "Mrs. E. Frank Brown, New York." The day following her arrival she called in Babcock, Rushton & Loderback with letters, presumably forged, purporting to be from a New York broker. Negotiations were begun for the purchase of the bonds, but the deal was not closed yesterday.

It was learned after the Denver train had departed that Mrs. Brown got through the station past Mr. Repetto by a clever ruse. Outside the station she saw a tired woman holding a baby and engaged her in conversation. Without arousing the woman's suspicion she induced her to let Mrs. Brown hold her baby and then accompany the child and its new friend to the train. In passing through the depot Mrs. Brown was seemingly intent on the child and as she was not supposed to have a baby passed unnoticed.

IN 300 SECONDS

OR FIVE MINUTES LATER ALL INDIGESTION GOES.

Don't Spend Another Miserable Hour With Stomach Trouble When Certain Relief is so Handy—Diapiesin Digests All Foods and Stops Fermentation.

Miserable is the man or woman who suffers from dread Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There are few diseases which create such misery, long drawn-out suffering, as Indigestion. It pursues them before meals, after meals and between meals; they take it to bed with them. It is with them wherever they go, though Indigestion is the simplest disease of all to cure.

Tell such afflicted ones, dear reader, of Pape's Diapiesin; urge the sufferer to go to any Pharmacy here and give 50 cents for a case. Such a sufferer would ever bless you, because five minutes after taking there would be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the Stomach, or Heartburn, or fullness and discomfort, no Belching of Gas or Eructations of Sour food, Debilitating Headache, Nausea, Water Brash and other symptoms of a sour, disordered stomach.

Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat without the aid of the Stomach.

Diapiesin is a wonderful Stomach purifier and splendid to keep the intestines clean and fresh then your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Diapiesin will rest the stomach and increase the gastric juices this is what is mostly needed—more and better digestive juices—and no Gas—then Indigestion and all stomach trouble will go.

Each 50-cent case contains sufficient to usually thoroughly cure the most chronic dyspeptic.

What Would You Do?

In case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Five Minutes saved at meal time may mean a bad case of indigestion before bed time. Cure it quickly with a dose or two of
