

The Week in Astoria Society

Items of Social Interest are solicited for these columns and should be sent direct to the Astorian office to insure their insertion.

There has been quite a bit of entertaining this week and a few concerts, recitals and operettas are scheduled to help break the monotony of the dreary winter season. Old Witch Halow'en, after keeping things lively around here, last week, rode out on her broom stick into nowhere, and now the society folk are looking forward to something new and if Society's bulletin reads right they want to wait long for there is to be quite a lot of entertaining around the Thanksgiving holidays which everyone is eagerly looking forward to, it is rumored that there will be several select masquerades beside a great many other functions, and there will be no end of merry making in the next few weeks to come.

Smart Wedding.
Cards are out to one of the smartest weddings of the year, which will take place during the near future when Miss Margaret Higgins one of Astoria's most popular young ladies will be united in marriage to Mr. Walter Stokes of this city, a popular young business man here; the young lady has been feted and dined so extensively lately that she has been the busiest little lady in seventeen counties.

Kitchen Shower.
Mrs. William Sherman entertained about twenty four guests on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Margaret Higgins at her home on Jerome Avenue with a kitchen shower which was one of the principal affairs of the week.

Hearts were played during the evening, Mrs. J. T. Allen being the fortunate prize winner.

The home was beautifully decorated with chinese lanterns, and candles with the daintiest hand made shades prettily ornamented with hearts and cupid's which very appropriate; the score cards were very neat being pretty hearts and the refreshments were also in the shape of hearts.

The ladies who assisted Mrs. Sherman in entertaining were neatly dressed in kitchen aprons which were in accordance with the evening.

After refreshments were served Miss Higgins was presented with a galvanized tub which was literally overflowing with kitchen utensils of all shapes, forms and descriptions given to Miss Higgins by her many mutual friends. The porches and yard of the Sherman home presented a pretty spectacle, chinese lanterns hung all about which made a very novel decoration.

Entertains.
On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. C. S. Brown entertained about thirty friends in honor of Miss Higgins by giving an informal kitchen shower. The guests enjoyed themselves by devoting most of their time to needlework on this particular afternoon. Refreshments were served during the afternoon.

Informal Evening.
Miss Margaret Taylor entertained a number of young people at her home at an informal party. Five hundred was played during the evening and a dainty luncheon was served after which Miss Irene Simington and Mrs. Harry Flavel sang a few selections. The color scheme in the dining room was carried out in pink and green, and the place cards were hand-painted.

Among those who enjoyed Miss Taylor's hospitality were the Misses, Winifred Higgins, Fay Ball, Irene Simington, Freda Foard, Margaret and Helen Taylor, Mrs. Harry Flavel, Mr. Souther of San Francisco, Edward Higgins, Allan Hughes, Mervyn Lounsbury, Harry Flavel, Harry Harbart, and Lawrence Rogers.

Saturday Girls.
Miss Beas Reed entertained the Saturday Club girls this week at her home on Bond Street. About ten or fifteen were present and the game of Five Hundred was played during the afternoon and Mrs. J. T. Allen was the fortunate prize winner.

The fair given by the ladies of St. Marys Catholic church on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week was a decided success from a social and financial standpoint; there were all kinds of pretty fancy and useful articles, such as aprons, the daintiest creations one ever gazed upon, cushions, pillow tops, collars, handkerchiefs, dainty bags, and all sorts of things all handmade and the prettiest tray cloths two of which were noticed by everybody; they were donated by Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Lightfoot and there were water sets, dishes and other valuable articles which were raffled off and the watch given to one of Astoria's most popular young ladies was a beautiful one.

There were lunches and dinners cooked and prepared by the ladies which certainly were appreciated by the crowds that kept coming and going. The ice cream and candy booths were very much in evidence and found a ready sale for those with a sweet tooth. Every night there was a fine musical program some of those who entertained with musical selections were Miss Gertrude Kearney, Miss Esther Sundquist, Mr. Deneen, Mr. McCann, Miss Laurie McCann, Miss Lenora Benoit, Mr. Haguc and others who were the recipients of much applause among the ladies who were in charge of booths and tables and those on the committee and the ones who assisted were:

Mrs. C. Abercrombie, President; Mr. O'Bryan, Secretary; Mr. Kearney, Treasurer; Miss Laura McCann and Mrs. Moore, doll booth. Miss Leahy, Miss Wilson and Mrs. Riley ice cream stand. Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Carney and Mrs. Rouslow, fancy articles. Mrs. Lightfoot, Mrs. Babbage and Mrs. Murphy, plain articles. Miss Laws and O'Connor, and Miss Mamie Wilson, candy. Mrs. McPharland, refreshments.

Herse Concert.
The concert given by Otto F. L. Herse the distinguished tenor won for him a name as a singer in this city, in spite of all sorts of inconveniences he was subjected to while here. Only a few were present to hear him sing but those who did hear him say he is one of the best that has been in our city for many moons. Mr. Frank White a pianiste of much ability, who accompanies Mr. Herse is an excellent musician and gave some very fine piano selections which pleased his listeners.

Five Hundred Party.
Mrs. Earl Fisher entertained a few of her friends at an informal afternoon party on Friday afternoon.

Cards were the principal amusement of the afternoon, Five Hundred being the game of the day. Mrs. Harry Flavel won the prize for holding the highest hands in cards during the afternoon. A delicious luncheon was served and afterwards music was indulged in. Those present were, Miss Winifred Higgins, Miss Irene Simington, Lois Parker, Ellen Nowlen, Maud and Winifred Van Dusen, Laura Fastabend, Esther Gearhart, Margaret Taylor, Fay Ball, Freda Foard, Barbara Eakin, Mrs. Harry Flavel Mrs. Earl Fisher and a few others.

MRS. A. JALOFF,
537 Commercial St., Astoria, Or.

Star Course.
The first of a series of entertainments to be given by the Young Men's League of the Presbyterian church on Friday evening when the Four Great Musical Artists made their appearance, it was by far the best concert given in this city and the parlors of the spacious church were filled to the doors; the concert commenced promptly at 8:15 and the artists stuck close to their program which was a great relief from some others who do not follow the program at all. Miss Smith the soprano sang a number of vocal selections which were enjoyed by all as no two were the same and which did not get monotonous; she wore a gown of pale pink, and looked very stunning, Mr. Shonert, the pianist without an equal, his technique is something wonderful and he is the greatest pianist who has ever visited Astoria, Mr. Carr, basso, was the recipient of much applause and was encored and encored; he is one of the few singers who have strength and quality combined, his voice was very strong, yet as sweet as the sweetest soprano voice one ever heard; he sang a short Irish song which was enjoyed by those who do not care so much for the more classical numbers. Mr. Piouts playing was beautiful; all the time he was playing there wasn't a sound, he held his audience so well, words cannot express Mr. Piouts ability as a musician. Taken as a whole the concert was one of the rare treats that has lately been afforded the people of Astorian.

Bowlsby-Stanton.
On Friday evening Nov. 6, Miss Nora Bowlsby of this city was married to Mr. Norman Stanton of Ft. Stevens the Rev. William Seymour Short Rector of Grace Episcopal church officiating, the young couple left on the evening boat the Lurline for a short trip to Portland after which they will return to this city where the groom will engage in business.

H. M. S. Pinafore.
Prof. M. E. Robinson who presented the school entertainment 'The Pixies' which was so successful, is here again to coach the school children in the production of the old and popular light opera H. M. S. Pinafore which always pleases old and young.

At Warrenton.
Mrs. J. T. Lee, of Warrenton entertained the Ladies Aid Society at her home last week, the ladies enjoyed themselves in conversation, and with music Mrs. Lee being a very good musician and a pleasant afternoon was spent by all the ladies.

Bridge Party.
Mrs. George Flavel delightfully entertained the ladies of the Wednesday Bridge club at her beautiful residence in this city.

Wick-Wick Club.
The Wick-Wick club girls are going to have another novel little party this coming week in the form of a "baby-party."

Card Party.
Mrs. Charles Callendar entertained a few of her friends on Thursday afternoon at a 500 party. The rooms of her lovely home were decorated in autumn leaves which made a pretty decoration.

St. Agnes Guild.
The ladies of St. Agnes Guild of Grace Episcopal church are planning to give an organ recital some time in the near future along about Thanksgiving holidays.

D. M. C. D.
The D. M. C. D. girls met at the home of Miss Lucy Morton on last Saturday night and were entertained in a charming manner, they will hold their next week's meeting at the home of Miss Hattie Utzinger.

High School.
Miss Wilma Young entertained a merry crowd of young people of the Astoria High School at the beautiful residence at Uppertown on Wednesday evening in honor of the members of the Astoria High School football team. There were twenty seven guests in all, about equally divided between the young ladies and gentlemen. The occasion was a pleasant one for all. The decorations were purple and gold the high school colors, and from the chandelier a football was suspended. A sumptuous supper was served and the evening was passed in games and other entertainments.

Out of Town Weddings.
The Rev. G. A. Rydquist, of the Memorial Lutheran Church of this city on Thursday officiated at two very happy weddings in which brother and sister figure, respectively as bride and groom. The first was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olesen, at Gray's River, when Mr. Victor Carlson, of this city and Miss Ida Olivia Swanson, of Gray's River, were made man and wife according to the beautiful and solemn ritual of that church. This pleasant event was first intended to be performed in this city, along with the marriage of the couple later wedded by Mr. Rydquist but the law obviated this, in that the Washington license was not effective on this side of the river. When Mr. Rydquist returned to this city accompanied by the north shore wedding party, it was to join in holy wedlock Mr. Theodore Swanson (brother of the bride above named), of Gray's River, and Miss Litta Knifong, of this city, the Hotel Oregon being the scene of the happy event; the two parties uniting in the pleasures of the hour with their many friends from both banks of the Columbia. The young people left on their honeymoon on Friday morning and will spend a few days in Portland.

Mountain King.
Dr. Emil Enna is getting along very nicely with his play "The Mountain King," a rehearsal for the play being held last week. Everyone is getting anxious to see the play and it is supposed that when the time rolls around for its presentation there will not be on vacant seat in the house.

Monday Club.
The ladies of the Monday Club of the Presbyterian Church were entertained by Mrs. H. F. Prael at her home this week. The afternoon was spent in the usual way. The ladies are making preparations for a bazaar which will be given in about a month.

Ladies' Aid Society.
Mrs. Matt Nyland was hostess for the Ladies' Aid Society of the Memorial Lutheran church on Thursday afternoon. A large number of ladies were present.

Tuchabachee Club.
The ladies of the Tuchabachee Club of the Presbyterian Church will give a social in the assembly room of the church on Friday next.

Card Party.
A card party was given on Friday night by the members of Gateway Rebekah Lodge of the I. O. O. F. Dancing and refreshments were indulged in during the evening and whist was played the prize winners were Mrs. Chas. Haddix, Miss Mary Settem, L. O. Belland and Chris Johnson.

High School Hop.
A dance was given last night by a committee of the High School class in Logan's hall in honor of the football team who returned from Salem and Eugene. There was a good crowd present and all enjoyed themselves immensely. There was very good music and the patronesses were: Miss Dora Badollet, Miss Hulse, Mrs. J. G. Imel, Mrs. C. V. Brown and Mrs. C. S. Brown.

Society Personals.
Miss Grace Stokes will soon leave for Portland where she will visit with her aunt.

Mrs. M. C. Flavel and the Misses Nellie and Kate Flavel left for Portland last evening from whence they will go to New York on Tuesday next and there they will remain during the winter.

Miss Clara Munson of Warrenton spent a few days in this city this week.

day for Portland where she will spend a few days.

Mrs. A. A. Finch and Mrs. F. H. Haradon entertained the members of the Monday Afternoon Bridge Whist club this week and a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Finch to the ladies during the afternoon.
