COLLEGE HEADS CONFER

SPARTANBURG, S. C. March 18.—Many educators of note gathered at Converse College in this city today for the second annual session of the North and South Carolina Association of Colleges for Women.

The conference will remain in session over Friday and Saturday and will be devoted to the discussion of numerous topics relating to the work of the colleges.

The programme carried out at Carnegie Hall this afternoon is to be continued this evening with exercises in the great hall of the College of the City of New York.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FIT-INGLY OBSERVED

PLEASING PROGRAM RENDERED AT ST. MARY'S HALL TO A LARGE AUDIENCE.

The feast of Ireland's patron saint was observed in a fitting manner at St. Mary's hall last night.

The program was pronounced by those who have been in attendance during former years as the best ever rendered in Astoria.

Miss K. Shively sang "I'll Take Thee Back Again Kathleen," with due expression. "Believe, Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," was rendered by Mr. Frank Cearn.

Mr. W. P. O'Brien was then introduced by Father Waters, and in a brief, but effective manner gave the reason "Why We Celebrate St. Patrick's Day."

Miss E. Sundquist then played a medley of the heart-stirring melodies of "Old Ireland" which brought the house to its feet.

The orator of the evening, John Fleming Shields, L. L. D., of Portland, was then introduced by the chairman of the evening, Father Waters, with a few appropriate remarks.

"Killarney," by Mr. J. Moore with violin accompaniment by Miss Sundquist, and a violin solo by special request, "Come Back to Erin," closed the entertainment.

The accompanists, Mrs. M. Brooks, Miss G. Kearney, Miss A. O'Connor displayed due discrimination. The musical program was under the direction of Miss L. McCann.

MEMORIAL MEETING

NEW YORK, March 18.—In the presence of a large audience that comprised many persons of national fame, President Taft, Chief Justice Fuller, Governor Hughes and other speakers this afternoon paid tribute to the memory of Grover Cleveland.

Every available inch of space in the galleries and on the floor was occupied, and the audience was an immense one. Admission to the hall was restricted to the holders of tickets. Mayor McClellan presided.

The programme carried out at Carnegie Hall this afternoon is to be continued this evening with exercises in the great hall of the College of the City of New York.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death."
