

RIVAL INTERESTS TOGETHER

Hill and Harriman are Now at San Francisco in Close Companionship

DISCUSS MUTUAL MATTERS

Harriman Says he Has Not Got the Rheumatism and Never Felt Better—The People Will Probably Have Rheumatism After This Conference

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—Cancelling his arrangements for a more extended stay in California, E. H. Harriman left Paso Robles before daylight and came to San Francisco with the unexpected announcement that he would depart for New York tomorrow night or Sunday, his sudden change of plans he attributed to a desire to spend a few days with his sons before they returned to school and he conveyed the impression that he is anxious to resume his duties laid down two months ago. Since yesterday Harriman has been almost constantly in company with Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern who accompanied Harriman to this city today from Paso Robles. Hill explained that he had come north to discuss matters of general interest with Harriman. The two presidents will probably remain in close companionship until Harriman leaves for the East. Harriman declared to the newspapermen that he has been doing practically nothing for the past two months, that he is feeling quiet well and that he will not go to Paso Robles for treatment but to look over the place in case such necessity arose. He declared that the farmers are in control of the situation; that farmers have been getting rich and will be richer; the farmer will furnish, Harriman says, a great deal of capital for legitimate uses and our prosperity depends upon the purposes for which this money will be used. If it goes into legitimate channels, business will be better off, if it is tied up in new and unproductive schemes it is going to be hard for those people who need money at regular intervals.

The most important incident of the day was the conference of Harriman with H. C. Nutt of the Northern Pacific and J. P. O'Brien of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company. Messrs. Nutt and O'Brien will confer tomorrow with Hill who was not present at today's conference. The subjects under discussion related to traffic in and out of Portland. Apparently, Harriman came to San Francisco especially for this conference for he immediately departed for Burlingame where he had dinner, returning here two hours later where he joined his party at the theater. It is understood that the entire party will spend the day tomorrow at Burlingame.

FOUNDER'S DAY
BARNESVILLE, Ga., March 26.—Founder's Day was celebrated at Gordon Institute today in honor of the memory of Charles E. Lambkin, founder and first president of the institution. An interesting programme of exercises was carried out. Among the speakers were State School Commissioner Jere M. Pound, Dr. W. B. Bonnell of Wesleyan College, R. Powell Stephens of the University of Chicago, Prof. G. P. Oliphant of Macdon and, Hon. A. Pratt Adams of Savannah.

CONGRESS PENURIOUS.
Conservation Commission Denied an Appropriation at Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The work of conserving the nation's natural resources will be continued with the renewed vigor notwithstanding the fact that Congress adopted an amendment to the Sundry Civil act cutting off the appropriation of the National Conservation Commission. Through private contributions national headquarters with Thomas R. Pipp's secretary in charge of the joint committee on conservation, representing the states and nations, have been established here for carrying forward vigorously the co-operative work which has been going on under the Conservation Commission. President Taft intends to ask Congress for an appropriation for the use of the commission.

MRS. CRADLEBAUGH ON WITNESS STAND

TELLS OF TRAGIC MEETING OF WALTON AND HER HUSBAND.

DENVER, March 26.—In an effort to exonerate her husband for killing F. W. Walton of Wallace, Mrs. John H. Cradlebaugh took the stand this afternoon and told without hesitation of her relations with Walton and of the discovery of Walton in her room by her husband on December 6, 1908. She told how she held her husband while Walton escaped. Cradlebaugh continued his testimony today and told in graphic words his meeting with Walton in Denver; of Walton's refusal to disclose the whereabouts of his wife and child and of his shooting him. He said his refusal was accompanied by a threatening motion toward his hip pocket and Cradlebaugh in terror of his own life, drew his own weapon and fired. Cradlebaugh was subjected to a searching cross examination concerning his relations between Walton and his wife and admitted these relations had been the subject of a trial before Sister of Rebecca Lodge of Lath. Mrs. Walton wife of the slain man, will take the stand for the state tomorrow.

FLEE TO SEATTLE FROM OREGON

Archdeacon Emery and Family Arrive in Washington Driven by Adverse Criticism

MAY GO TO BRITISH COLUMBIA

Girl and Japanese Rode on Same Train But Did Not Recognize Each Other in Any Way—Father Seeks to Have Given In.

SEATTLE, March 26.—Driven by adverse public sentiment from California and Oregon to this city, Archdeacon Emery, wife and daughter, who is betrothed to Gunjiro Aoki, a Japanese, arrived here this afternoon and registered under assumed names, while Aoki sought the shelter at the home of his fellow countrymen. Without making any public announcement it is plain that the archdeacon has consented to the marriage he personally attended to the affairs of the party since their arrival. The arrival of the party in Seattle occasioned no unusual demonstration nor caused any undue excitement. There was little or no curiosity concerning them. Tonight the archdeacon sought the advice of the Canadian immigration officials regarding the entry of Japanese into British Columbia and it may be that the marriage will take place on one of the steamers leaving here this afternoon when they get outside the three-mile limit. Aoki arrived at Tacoma Wednesday and joined the party in that city. Today on the train the Japanese and his bride-to-be sat several seats apart and did, seemingly, not recognize each other. A dozen newspapermen were in the car and to all intents the Japanese and white girl were strangers. Tonight the archdeacon said he did not know whether he would be here a few hours or a day and that no definite arrangements have been made for the marriage. He seemed surprised that so much interest attached to their affairs.

MORE HAIR-SPLITTING.

Tweedle-dee and Tweedle-dum School Matters at Windy City.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Just what a liberal education consists of is at present interesting the American Academy of Medicine. The tendencies of the times to shave the classics and laud the natural sciences has led Dr. Charles F. Thwing, president of the Western Reserve University, to communicate the following views to the members:

"Mere knowledge in certain limited spheres assuredly does not make the liberally educated man or woman. I have known a man of high scientific attainments in certain fields who spent a large amount of his time in watching earthworms which he had made intoxicated. I have known a woman of equal attainment in the world of science who devoted much time to the observation of the breeding of mice in order to see what colors would result from various inter-breeds.

"But I should hardly call this man or woman scientist liberally educated. The person who is liberally educated has knowledge, learning and mental attainments as well as a wide outlook and generous sympathies."

rapidly better with a consequent decrease of the army of the unemployed and a betterment of the condition of the poor. According to the association for improvement of the condition of the poor, proposals for work or other aid have fallen off 50 per cent during the last month. But a single applicant presented himself yesterday afternoon while six months ago the officers of the bureau were literally jammed with unfortunates.

KETCHEL KNOCKS OUT JACK O'BRIEN

Hot Fight From Start to Finish and Best Bout Seen in New York for Years

NEW YORK, March 26.—Not since the repeal of the Horton law which stopped big fisty bouts in this city has such a fast and furious contest been seen in the squared circle as that which took place tonight in which Stanley Ketchel, the middle-weight champion, defeated Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia. Many thought O'Brien would do some stalling in this fight, but it was a hot bout from start to finish. In the final round O'Brien was knocked down three times and the last time it was a clean knockout, for the timely gong found the Philadelphian in a helpless state. It was Ketchel's fight in the greater part of the contest and O'Brien had no excuse to make over the outcome.

Cleveland Kidnapper Was Educated in A Convent.

CLEVELAND, O., March 26.—The Cleveland Leader this morning says: The woman known to the police as Mrs. James Boyle, and believed to be the brains behind the kidnapping of "Billy" Whittle, was identified yesterday by a Cleveland vessel owner as Anna McDermott. She was born in Chicago. Her father is a well known business man there, and she has a brother. She was educated in a convent.

Three years ago she disappeared from home. Since then her family have been in ignorance of her whereabouts. She is 22 years old. The vessel owner's half sister is the girl's mother. A sister of the woman visited her a short time ago.

ONE OF THE JURORS ACCEPTED YESTERDAY, CHALLENGED AND IS DISMISSED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A backward step was taken today in impaneling a jury to try Patrick Calhoun when one of the three men temporarily accepted yesterday was excused for cause on the challenge of the defense. As the jury now stands there are six men sworn to try the case and five passed subject to peremptory challenge. The prosecution has but two peremptories remaining and the defense seven.

His wife, it is said, will be brought from Pittsburg tomorrow and the couple be formally arraigned on the charge of kidnapping. An armed guard has been placed in front of his cell and the jail will be guarded until the trial is ended.

CHARLATANRY COSTS MONEY

CHICAGO, March 26.—In a case now on hearing before Municipal Judge Uhlir, Mary Slimak tells the story of the loss of $117 through belief in the power of incantations. These included a "Black mass" supposed to have been held in a graveyard at midnight where dirt was dug, candles burned and charms chanted. This one seance, she says, cost her $25, which is part of the amount she is trying to recover from Mrs. Sigmond Wysocki a card reader, who denies the charges. The "black mass" it is alleged, was to drive away evil spirits and allow the girl's lover to return to her.

CLEAR CASE OF SUICIDE

Deliberately Inhaled Gas and Calmly Layed Down to Sleep to Death

BODY TAKEN TO NEW YORK

Most Dramatic Event at the Funeral Was When the Two Notes Found on Her Body Were Put in the Folds of Shroud, Within Being Opened.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—Through a misunderstanding, Representative Byrd, of Mississippi, and Representative Fordney, of Michigan, almost came to blows on the floor of the House today, while the latter was making a speech on the tariff.

Mr. Byrd asked Mr. Fordney if it were not true that a combination existed among the retail dealers of Mississippi, to which Mr. Fordney's firm, which is operating in that state, was a party. Mr. Byrd added that he knew whereof he spoke when he charged the existence of such a combination.

"The gentleman does not know a d—d thing about it!" shouted Mr. Fordney.

Immediately Mr. Byrd made his way toward Mr. Fordney, but several Democratic members stopped him. Mr. Fordney apologized to the House. He added, however, that Mr. Byrd could not say that his firm was a member of the lumber trust.

Byrd then explained that it was not his intention to make such a charge and the incident was closed. Fordney, who is a member of the ways and means committee, and an avowed high protectionist, discussed at length the lumber schedule.

When the tariff bill was laid before the House today, Mr. Humphreys, of Washington, took issue with some statements made by Mr. Payne in his opening speech regarding the number of Orientals engaged in the lumber mills in British Columbia. Mr. Payne said that he thought there were fewer Orientals working in such mills there than in the State of Washington. The statement was erroneous, he said. He declared that over 50 per cent of the men engaged in the lumber and shingle mills of British Columbia were Orientals; were paid lower wages than American mill laborers, and that therefore the cost of production was less. Out of the 13,500 men employed in the shingle mills of Washington, Mr. Humphreys said there were but 41 Orientals.

COMMITTEE WILL ACT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—When the Senate finance committee which is considering the tariff bill meets tomorrow. It will take up the lumber schedules. It is admitted there has been urgent demand for free lumber. At the meeting tomorrow certain experts in values, freight rates and in operation of existing duties upon lumber trade will appear.

The rheumatism in his right arm which compelled him to discontinue his tour at Minneapolis has grown worse, and his physicians advise that he stop playing for a month or more.

"THE LINCOLN WAY"

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The bill providing for the survey of land between Washington and Gettysburg battlefield, for a boulevard 150 feet wide to be known as "The Lincoln Way" has been reintroduced by Representative Lefean of Pennsylvania. An unsuccessful attempt was made to get this measure through last session on a Senate bill, making February 19, 1909 a legal holiday.

BECKER AWAITS ORDERS.

Impression is That Indictment Will be Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—Tracy Becker, who left here Wednesday, is now in Detroit waiting orders from the Department of Justice as to his further movements. It is stated at the department that Becker is still in the service, but no further information could be elicited concerning his status.

It is known that before Becker reached here on his recent mission reports had preceded him from Government officials of Oregon informing the Attorney-General that he could not successfully perform some of the duties entrusted to him.

The impression prevails that the Attorney-General is acting on these reports, and will not permit Becker to continue his work in Oregon, but the Attorney-General is today in New York, and his subordinates would not deny or confirm the reported probable separation of Becker from the service.

PRISONERS MUST DIE

ST. PETERSBURG, March 26.—Twenty two death sentences passed upon political prisoners were confirmed yesterday by the supreme military court. Fifteen of these were convicted of attempt to escape from the Irkutsk prison when a prison guard was killed.

ALEXANDER WINS MAYOR'S RECALL ELECTION

CONTEST IS QUITE CLOSE BETWEEN HIM AND THE SOCIALIST CANDIDATE.

LOS ANGELES, March 26.—George Alexander, the candidate of the reform league, was victorious in today's recall election over Fred C. Wheeler, the socialist nominee, by a narrow plurality of 1650 votes out of 25,000 cast. Wheeler carried five out of nine city wards, but Alexander's lead in the fourth and fifth wards overcame Wheeler's slight pluralities.

TRICKS EXPOSED

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—A remarkable experience was given the spectators in Judge Rives' court today when several witnesses gave a student of such things, demonstrated what was called exposes of "tricks" practiced by Commercial spiritualists in the case growing out of the attack on the will of the late Robert Crawford Smith who left $17,000 to three spiritualist mediums, who were with him near the close of his life.

Bishop D. Garrison, for many years strated to the court just how slate writing is done, while Harrison D. Barrett, of Portland, Ore., demonstrated the trumpet trick. He also showed how notes are read by unseen sitters by means of a section of garden hose and a hole in the floor. The case was not concluded.

HEATED DEBATE IN CONGRESS

Congressmen Fordney and Byrd Almost Come to Blows Over Statement Made

MISUNDERSTOOD QUESTION

Michigan Member Resents Mention That His Firm Was in the Lumber Trust—Senate Committee Will Take up Lumber Schedule at Once.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—The body of Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Jr., was sent to New York for burial this afternoon. The interment will be at the old Lorillard home at Irvington on the Hudson. The husband, one of the famous Lorillards of the tobacco business and his son, Pierre, by their own preference, were the only mourners. Several intimate friends of the family were present at the funeral service. After the funeral the most dramatic event of the day occurred when Dr. J. Ramsey Nevill, the coroner, laid away in the folds of the shroud, the two notes and mysterious trinkets found on Mrs. Lorillard's body after her death, all of which were in envelopes marked: "Bury this with my body, unopened." One of the notes was addressed to Mrs. Lorillard by another person and the second was in Mrs. Lorillard's own handwriting, written evidently many days before her death. Examination of Mrs. Lorillard's apartments, indicates that she deliberately inhaled the poisonous fumes until a gentle stupor seized her and then calmly lay down upon the rug in the bathroom to sleep until death.

MANAGERS ARE LIABLE

NEW YORK, March 26.—John H. Springer, manager of the Grand Opera House, Brooklyn, must pay Mrs. Claire F. Thomas $7500 for injuries sustained in the theatre when she was struck on the head with a slide and frame from a calcium light in the gallery. The defense contended that the calcium was being operated by the company showing at the theater and that the manager was not responsible. The court held, however, that a theatrical manager is liable for the safety of his patrons.
