

"After all, there is nothing like
DR. PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER
I have used it with satisfaction
for nearly forty years."

TERSE TOWN TALES.

Monday

Mrs. W. B. DeNault is on the sick list.

Mrs. Chas. Whiting is reported on the sick list.

Mrs. R. G. Vallancey leaves tonight for a visit in St. Paul.

Ove Johnson and wife were down from Buchanan today.

Beautiful weather today, and the forecast for tomorrow is fair also.

Geo. Remington has taken a position as tinsmith with R. L. Scott & Co.

Sheriff Eddy and family have moved into their new residence on Sixth avenue south.

Judge Bigelow issued a marriage license today to Joseph Hamium and Miss Eva May Stark, both of Pingree.

Judge Glaspell completed the Eddy county term of court last week. One criminal case and two civil actions were disposed of.

Engineer Myron Sine has returned from the Brainerd hospital, where he has been under treatment for several weeks for typhoid fever.

Lieut. Thompson surprised his parents yesterday by dropping in upon them for a short visit. He is enroute to Angel Island, Cal., to join his regiment.

Alex Clemens returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Minnesota, where several land deals were closed. He reports a fine trip and that a lot of new settlers will come to this section next spring.

F. M. Lamberton has purchased the interest of Geo. Brown in the Jamestown Creamery company. Mr. Brown will continue on the road as a promoter of creamery enterprises, in which he has been very successful.

Mrs. Mary Strong arrived Saturday evening from Randolph, Vt., and

THE STRENGTH AND STABILITY of a bank is a very important question to every depositor. Before entrusting his money to its care he wants to know the character of the institution.

THE JAMES RIVER NATIONAL BANK is one of the strongest and soundest in this community. Its officers are men of tried ability and judgment. Its methods are based on the soundest business principles. It invites accounts with those who appreciate such qualities.

James River National Bank
Jamestown, North Dakota.

Tuesday

Rev. Jevne, of Pingree, spent yesterday in the city.

Harry Briggs and wife were in from Prairie today.

J. B. Smith has gone to St. Paul to spend the winter.

The delinquent tax sale occurred at the court house today.

Rev. C. D. Lewis of Casselton was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mrs. H. J. Mastin is convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. A. F. Hunter left last night for a visit with her daughter at Duluth.

T. L. Negosok of Kensal was transacting business in town last evening.

Rev. G. J. Powell, of Fargo, returned home last night after a business visit to the city.

Mrs. William McCleary of Pingree was an arrival last night for a short shopping trip to the city.

Mrs. W. B. DeNault was moved today to the residence of Mrs. C. E. DeNault, and is reported getting along nicely.

J. E. Bierwalter, who has been in charge of the recent special sales at Strong's dry goods house, left last night for the east.

W. A. Gray, who has been visiting his brother, James Gray for a couple of weeks, left last night for Leadville, Colorado.

State Deputy Poague of the F. O. Eagles was a west-bound passenger this morning, enroute to attend a meeting at Dickinson.

W. H. Yates, division superintendent of the Wrought Iron Range Co., is at the Gladstone and expects to remain in the county several months.

The Eagles initiated eleven new members last night, and enjoyed a social session after the meeting. They have leased the old Masonic hall and are fitting up club rooms.

Chas. Oakes of Faulkton, S. D., is making his brother-in-law, Ira Gilmer of Eldridge, a visit and will extend his trip to Everett, Wash., before returning home. He is also visiting J. J. Eddy and family, old friends.

The weather report for November, showing the daily record of temperature at the state hospital, gives a total of 19 clear days and only 11 cloudy days last month. The maximum temperature was highest (77 degrees above zero) on the 3rd, and the minimum was zero on the 30th.

An old familiar figure in Jamestown has disappeared—Patrick Burke having left for the Soldier's Home at Lisbon. "Comrade" Burke was popular among the G. A. R. veterans of the city, and also a loyal adherent of the Salvation Army—because of the splendid work it has performed in our city.

A 17-year old boy who has been living with Rev. Spicer of Edmunds was brought to the city last evening for examination by the board of insanity, with a view to his commitment to the feeble-minded institute at Grafton. Pending the necessary arrangements the unfortunate lad has been remanded to the custody of Sheriff Eddy.

The Wrought Iron Range Co. is again making Jamestown their headquarters, selling their improved "Home Comfort" range No. 1903 and it will be a pleasure to them to show any and all the superiority of this range over all other ranges. The Home Comfort Steel Range is sold only from traveling salesmen at a uniform price throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Wednesday

Baled hay at Kelley's.

Don Colby is on the sick list.

Christmas goods at Miss Harnden's.

Alf. Ellsworth is on the sick list today.

House for sale. Apply to Kurtz company.

Before you buy a house or lot see Alex Clemens.

When you need a hack call up the Capital barn, phone 32K.

It Aids Digestion—Washington Irving Cigar—between meals.

Telephone 24L for ice or leave orders at Rathman Bros. & Hall.

A. C. Walsh.

The farmer loves the rolling plain.

The sailor loves the sea.

The girls they love their lovers.

And their Rocky Mountain Tea.

Wonenberg & Ayis.

There will be another state irrigation meeting at Bismarck during the coming legislative session. Prominent speakers will be in attendance.

A regular meeting of the asylum board occurred yesterday. Routine business for the month was transacted, and a large number of bills allowed.

The dog poisoner is again getting in his work, and four owners of canines, find their dogs among the missing. Those who have recently lost their dogs are E. E. Rice, Chas. Petty, Wm. Thom and Chief Dispatcher Berner.

Will Gleason: Am back again and ready to receive all my friends and customers in the tailoring business, at the shop over White & Henderson's. Give me a call.

Notice—Life insurance companies will reduce the rate 33 per cent. to all who agree to use Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Wonenberg & Ayis.

D. D. Sullivan, optical specialist of Fargo, will be in Jamestown Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 19 and 20, examining eyes and fitting glasses. Office at the Gladstone. Consultation free.

Comforts the heart, strengthens the mind. It's good, ill or well. Makes one's face bright as a summer morning. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents, Tea or Tablet, Wonenberg & Ayis.

Miss Louise Chapman entertained her Sunday School class of the Congregational church last evening. New members were taken into the class, and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all who attended. Light refreshments were served.

On Tuesday evening next, Dec. 13th, Rev. Willard Fuller will give his popular lecture "Anchors and Wings" at the church at Buchanan and the same lecture the next evening the 14th, at the Pingree church. Both lectures will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid societies.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Taber spent ten days at the world's fair and a week at New Orleans, where the temperature was "65 degrees and muggy". They left on the steamer, Louisiana, for Havana, Dec. 3rd and expect to return after some weeks and spend a few weeks in Florida at the Royal Palm Hotel at Miami. Afterwards they will spend the remainder of the winter at Orient, L. I.

Geo. Tucker drove in from Courtenay yesterday and transacted business in the city today. The deed for his Spiritwood Lake property has

For health and pure food
Hunt's Perfect
BAKING POWDER
Ask your grocer for it
25¢ Per Full Pound

AIM FOR THE BEST

When you try our "Maple Leaf" Maple Syrup you can be sure you can not get anything better. Apples while they last at $1.00 per Box—nice sound Apples. Let us give you prices on your next bill of Groceries.

C. E. LYMAN. We Want the Farmer's Butter and Eggs....

been received. Mr. Tucker is contemplating a number of changes and improvements for the lake season of 1905. He has sold several lots on the south side of the lake, and the Altringer Bros. of Wimbledon are among the recent purchasers. Mr. Tucker is interested in the preservation of the fish in the lake, and with other will endeavor to have a better enforcement of the fish law hereafter. Parties who catch fish and allow them to spoil, and who catch fish far in excess of the legal limit, will be the objects of official attention, if it is possible to enforce this law hereafter.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.
The Jamestown Creamery Co., consisting of F. W. Lamberton and Geo. W. Brown, has been dissolved by mutual consent, F. W. Lamberton to collect all bills and assume all obligations.

F. W. Lamberton,
Geo. W. Brown.
Jamestown, N. D., Dec. 6th, 1904.

$40 TO ONTARIO AND QUEBEC AND RETURN.

Via Soo Line November 28th to December 31st. Tickets will also be sold to points in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia at slight additional cost. Return limit three months from date of sale. Stop-overs allowed in Canada. Apply to nearest Soo Line agent for further particulars or write W. R. Callaway, G. P. A., Minneapolis.

CHRISTMAS SELLING BEGINS NOW

McCall's
Bazaar
Patterns
10 and 15c
None
Higher

—The New Dry Goods Store—
H. N. MIDDLETON COMPANY

A Cordial Invitation to Examine
Our Stock of Holiday Goods is Extended to All

McCall's
Bazaar
Patterns
10 and 15c
None
Higher

Sensational Selling of Winter coats

Latest Styles in Women's and Misses' Coats and Furs at Extraordinary Prices.
See Circulars for Bargains Offered.

Week Beginning MONDAY, DEC. 12; Ending SATURDAY, DEC. 17

BECK CLOTHING CO.

FASHIONABLE OUTFITTERS

Good Clothing

Is a subject uppermost in many men's minds. We have made it a lifetime study, and will be glad to give you pointers on this season's styles. If you will come in, we can show you the new models designed by the most famous manufacturers in the country, but it is optional with you whether you buy or not. If your pocketbook is limited you cannot afford to experiment with your clothes. You must buy where you are sure of your money's worth.

Every Suit, Overcoat, or any other article of wearing apparel, that we sell, is accompanied by our iron-clad guarantee, which always protects you.

A New Hat of Correct Shape

Is a fitting climax for a well dressed man's wardrobe. We have the correct shapes, and at prices which mean a comfortable saving of money for many of you.

• • The Above Cuts are taken from life, showing two styles of Overcoats, as shown by us. Come in and try one of them on.