

In Society

A Wayfaring Song.
 O who will walk a mile with me
 Along life's merry way?
 A comrade like the full of glee,
 Who dares to laugh out loud and free
 And let his frolic fancy play
 Like a happy child, through flowers gay.
 That fill the field and fringe the way
 Where he walks a mile with me.
 And who will walk a mile with me
 Along life's weary way?
 A friend whose heart has eyes to see
 The stars shine out o'er the darkening sea,
 And the quiet rest as the end of the day—
 A friend who knows and dares to
 The brave, sweet words that cheer the way
 Where he walks a mile with me.
 With such a comrade, such a friend,
 I fain would walk till journeys end,
 Through summer sunshine, winter
 rain,
 And then?—farewell, we shall meet again.
 —Henry Van Dyke.

 Decayed teeth cause indigestion, mental backwardness and acute infectious diseases. If the teeth affect the heart, the eyes and the ears. To neglect your teeth is stupidity. If you had a collection of rotten teeth in your mouth, you would doubtless take care of them. Why neglect your teeth, every one of which is worth more to you, your comfort, your health and success than a dozen diamonds?—Ad.
