GRAND FORKS NOT TO BE IN LEAGUE

Local Men Decide Not to Accept Fort William Franchise.

At a meeting of the Northern League magnates here last night, Grand Forks business men definitely decided not to accept the Fort William franchise.

As a result, the league undoubtedly will finish with four clubs. The magnates, headed by President John Burmeister, left last night for Duluth, where another meeting will be held today. At this session, the officials will make a decision as to the future course.

One other club will be dropped, but whether it will be Virginia or some other team Mr. Burmeister would not say last night.

The Grand Forks men maintained that if they remained out of the league for this season they would be in better position to assume the responsibilities of a club next year.

WINNIPEG MEN NOT TO COME

Will not be Able to Compete With Local Golfers This Month.

A short time ago it was announced that about fifteen Winnipeggers would stop off here enroute to the Trans-Mississippi tournament at Minneapolis, but according to word received today, they will be unable to do so.

Friday and Saturday of this week, Grand Forks golfers will compete in the annual president's prize tournament. This promises to be one of the most interesting of the season. What does a "Light Hearted Havana" stand for?

EXACTLY what Tom Moore stood for twenty years ago he stands for today—True Havana fragrance coupled with true mildness.

From the start this type of cigar has made a definite place for itself with smokers who "think before they smoke."

But Tom Moore must not be confused with other Havana filled cigars which lack Tom Moore's genial smoking qualities.

These qualities are the result of knowing just how to produce cigars a man may smoke quite freely without feeling over-smoked.

If you are still a stranger to Tom Moore, either as a dealer or a smoker, we believe it would pay you to find a place for this "light hearted Havana."

Russell, one to Tim McNamara, one to Joe Rasser and Mr. Wright keeps one for his own herd. They were raised by John Hope, one of the best livestock breeders in Cavalier county, and came from full blooded parents brought from Manitoba.
