GOOD PURSE UP FOR GAME HERE ON NEXT SUNDAY

All-Nations and Warren will Play for $200 a Side at Dacotah.

No Arrangements Made for Sunday Contest for the Local Team.

Warren and the All-Nations baseball team will play here Sunday afternoon for a $200 purse. Both teams have put up their checks for that amount and a contest that will be played in earnest will be the food for the fans who saw the All-Nations run away with Grand Forks.

The final arrangements for staging the game here were made last night by Manager Gaul of the All-Nations with Walter Quigley of the local team and what was undoubtedly the best exhibition of the season will take place. Warren has been playing an excellent brand of baseball this season and the people there are confident that the invaders from the south can be beaten.

The Minneapolis city will move over to Grand Forks in a body for Sunday, and it is expected that most of the fans in the neighboring territory will accompany them.

No announcement of a game for the local team Sunday has been made. It is probable that an outside date will be played, but whether it will be Bemidji, as was talked of at first, is not known.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York, July 12.—New York and Cleveland broke even on a double header here yesterday, the home team winning the first game 8 to 2, while Cleveland won the second, 4 to 2. Pitches Cullip, who started the first contest, won his ninth straight game of the season. He was ahead when taken out in the fourth inning for a pinch hitter, Fred Beebe, the veteran Cleveland pitcher, was hit hard, Baker making a home run with two on bases in the last inning and he was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning when New York scored five runs.

The pitching of two minor league recruits, who finished, featured Russell, who relieved Cullip, did not permit a hit in five innings, while Gould, a youngster just obtained by Cleveland from Davenport, allowed only one Yankee hit in four innings and struck out six men.

In the second game Cleveland knocked Keating out of the box in the third inning, and Russell, who relieved him, again pitched shut-out ball, permitting only three hits in 5 1-3 innings. Lowdermilk was very wild but the Yankees could do nothing in the pinches. Scores: First Game—R. H. E. New York 8 2 0 Cleveland 2 4 2 Cullip, Russell and Walters; Beebe, Coumbe, Gould and Billings.

Second Game—R. H. E. New York 2 7 2 Cleveland 4 2 2 Keating, Russell, Shawkey and Walters; Lowdermilk and Daley.

Philadelphia, July 12.—After losing the first game to St. Louis yesterday, 8 to 3, Philadelphia broke a long losing streak by defeating the visitors in the second contest 3 to 0. Wildness on the part of the home pitchers and costly errors gave St. Louis an easy victory in the first game. In the second game the visitors to five scattered hits and was well supported, while Philadelphia bunched five of their six hits with two errors. Scores: First Game—R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 10 5 St. Louis 8 10 2 Hasselbacher, Williams, Shehan and Murphy; Coomb and Severid.

Second Game—R. H. E. Philadelphia 3 2 1 St. Louis 0 5 2 Bush and Meyer; Hamilton, Groom, Wellman, Parks and Hartley.

Boston, July 12.—The Boston Americans defeated Chicago 5 to 3 and 3 to 1 in yesterday's double header, the victories moving the local team back into third place. Six pitchers were used by the visitors during the first game, but the locals clinched the victory during the third inning when they secured four runs, two of which were forced in by Cloutie. In the second contest the Boston team outbatted their opponents and the hitting was timely. Scores: First Game—R. H. E. Boston 5 11 0 Chicago 3 9 0 Ruth, Foster and Cady; Danforth, J. Scott, Sicotte, Russell, Walsh and Schalk, Lapp.

Second Game—R. H. E. Boston 3 12 2 Chicago 4 8 1 Ruth and Thomas; Wolfstang and Schalk.

Washington, July 12.—Detroit and Washington broke even in a double-header here yesterday, Detroit taking the first game 4 to 3 and Washington the second 3 to 1. The opener was a free hitting contest in which both Gallia and Daus were knocked out of the box. In the second game Johnson never was in trouble while the locals bunched hits on Boland in one inning for enough runs to win. Scores: First Game—R. H. E. Washington 4 3 2 Detroit 3 12 2 Gallia, Ayers, Dumont, Boehling and Henry; Daus, Cunningham and Stange, Baker.

Second Game—R. H. E. Washington 3 7 1 Detroit 1 3 2 Johnson and Ainsmith; Boland and Baker.

Philadelphia Has Cheapest Golf of the Largest Cities

Chicago, July 11.—Comparison of the cost of playing golf in the large cities, shows that Philadelphia club has the most reasonable.

charging $75; but the average is $65, and from this point they drop as low as $40 for the eighteen-hole course. The average price for a caddy ranges between 35 and 75 cents, with a medium of about 50 cents, in and around Philadelphia, while in New York and Chicago the average price is between 60 and 75 cents.

Another advantage that the Philadelphia devotees have, is the accessibility of their courses in comparison to the other districts mentioned. It is an actual fact that a New Yorker can reach Pine Valley in less time than he can reach the National Links of America from the center of New York. It is easier for Philadelphia to run down to Atlantic City or Seaworld than it is for New Yorkers and Chicagoans to reach some of their best courses.

Practice of Putting Will Not Better it Says old Golf Sage

Chicago, July 12.—"Practice every stroke possible in the game of golf but that used on the putting green. Such is my advice and I think I will be borne out by teachers of the game or those who have played for years."

Such is the counsel of J. A. Edwards, one of the veterans of the Midlothian Country Club. "Joe" has played the game almost since its introduction here. Mrs. Edwards is a good player. Their two sons, Donald and Kenneth, need no introduction to followers of the championship class men, while two daughters became expert and the ancient and honorable pastime.

"I have experimented with pretty nearly everything in my practice, and have come to the conclusion that it does not help your game one bit to practice rolling the little white ball up to the cup."

"Play a good golf result from learning how correctly—then practicing, working, drumming away at it day after day, year after year, until you can do it with your eyes closed, pick up any sort of club. But putting, the actual science of it can be learned in a short time. It is the simplest shot in the whole kit—and the hardest sometimes."

"Any shot in the game, of course, depends on an extent for its success upon a player's nerves but I believe putting is the most nervous of them."

"You will see players at any course go out with a box of balls, drop them on a practice green and studiously away for a half hour. Now I don't believe that does any good. The practice could be much better employing his time by sending a boy down the fair green away and working with the caddy. His practice in that department of the game will help him along in the long game. Practice there is never amiss, but he can practice there as long as he likes for a game and take three puts on every green."

AMERICAN ASS'N.

Indianapolis, July 12.—St. Paul won both games of the double-header here yesterday afternoon, taking the first in the tenth inning when Riggett hit the first ball pitched by Rex Dawson for a home run. In the locals' half of the ninth the bases were filled with one out, but Wichland, hitting for Rogge, forced a runner at the plate and Reiley fanned. The second game was never in doubt for St. Paul, knocking Willis off the slab in four innings. RUTH'S BAT IS AS STRONG AS HIS ARM

Babe Ruth.

Babe Ruth, the Red Sox pitcher, is just about as valuable for his hitting as for his pitching. Ruth has shown so much natural talent at bat that Bill Carrigan has seriously considered playing him in the outfield when in pinch hitting several times a week and swings on them with great success.

The first professional auto race in which George Clark of Dallas, Texas, drove was an obstacle event, though countless obstacles have been placed in his way since that time he has outmanned almost every one and today is looked upon as one of the most daring and savage type of speed demons in the sport.

Way back in 1906 obstacle races were the feature of almost every program. Clark took a stock car out of his garage in Dallas and entered one of these events and his ability and dexterous driving enabled him to win. Immediately the speed "bug" hit Clark a hard blow in the solar plexus and Dallas lost a good garage proprietor.

Gets a Mercedes. The Texan purchased for himself a giant Mercedes, which was one of the first speed-creations of this kind in America. He defeated such stars as Oldfield, Hineman, the late Burman, Cox, Nikrent, DePalma and others on the tracks of his native state, Texas, and then he entered the national races. Twice he has finished in the money division on the Indianapolis speedway, the fastest of all in the game that citizens of Texas purchased a machine for him from Europe, but immediately christened it the Texas.

Later the residents of Tulsa, Okla., made him a flatterer of the slab in four went to that city and built a car known as the Tulsa. In this he won much cash money for himself and secured plenty of advertising for the Oklahoma town.

Watch Him Pass. If Clark has a car that holds together then the other drivers watch him go thundering past them. He is exacting and several times when near the goal with a large purse offered to the winner he has seen his machine falter and stop running.

The giant Case which Clark will drive in the races at the Grand Forks fair, Saturday, July 29, is able to withstand the hardest kind of driving. For this reason Clark's entry is being given much consideration for the other stars entered.

Detroit, July 12.—Tyrus Cobb, of the Detroit Americans, has emphatically denied a rumor that he intends to quit baseball and become a motion picture actor. The rumor seemingly was based upon stories that Cobb was indignant because President Johnson recently suspended him for three days. The punishment was inflicted because Cobb, after being called out on strikes in a game at Chicago, threw his bat into the stand. Cobb claims the bat slipped from his hands when he was about to hurl it at the ground.

Detroit, July 12.—Edward Mahan, the famous Harvard football player, who recently accepted an offer to coach the University of California football squad, declined an opportunity to play major league baseball. Manager Jennings, of the Detroit Americans, unsuccessfully tried to sign Mahan to an effort to strengthen his pitching staff.

Chicago, July 12.—Despite official pronouncement that no open betting would be allowed at the meet, the sale of seats for the opening of racing at Hawthorne indicates, say promoters, that the proposed revival of the sport here is being taken seriously. The 12-day meet begins July 15 and already a great number of the boxes have been engaged. A renewal of the American Derby, once the feature event of Chicago racing, is on the program for that day, with some of the best horses in the country entered.

Detroit, July 12.—The Detroit Americans probably will recall Pitcher Jess Haines who has been throwing splendid ball for Springfield, Ohio, in the Central league.

Milwaukee, July 12.—Riechie Mitchell, lightweight boxer, announces his readiness to take on any of the crew of lightweights, including Freddie Welsh, Ever Hammer, Bennie Leonard and Charlie White, classed by some sporting writers as the big four in the lightweight division.

Mitchell proposes to be at the ring side when Welsh and White clash on July 21, and will challenge the winner of that bout.
