

SOCIETY NEWS

GOLDEN TIME.

By Blanche Trenner Heath.
Oh, long, sweet days of the summer-
side,
Far from the rush of the hurrying town!
Pain in your peace would our hearts
abide,
And lay for awhile their burden
down.
Pain would we wander in leafy ways,
By hill and valley and blossoming
lea,
Where the sunlight smiles through a
golden haze,
And the winds of heaven blow
fresh and free.
The brooklet laughs in its onward
leap;
"Be merry! be merry!" the robin
sings;
While over the clover's crimson sweep
Blithe and busy the wild bee swings.
Hopefully, patiently, day by day,
Joyfully, steadily, hour by hour,
The leaf expands on the greenwood
spray,
The meadow blossom unfolds its flower.
Oh, long, sweet days of the summer-
side,
Untouched by trouble, unmarred by
fear,
Still in your faith let your hearts
abide,
Teach us your lesson of Work and Cheer!

NO CAUSE FOR ADARM.
"If this country were to call for volunteers, do you think many men would respond?"

"Oh, yes," answered the optimistic citizen. "I feel sure so many would respond that those who pretended to be hard of hearing would not be missed."

YEA, VERILY!
The pessimist is apt to find His groans he cannot give away; But the grins of the jolly optimist Pass current round the world to-day.

CULBERTSON

Culbertson, N. D., July 17.—The farmers are planning to hold a big picnic here July 21, at the baseball park. The speakers are Charles E. Eckerle of Chicago, Dr. C. A. Hatterscheid, deputy state veterinarian, Ernest W. Anderson, and several students from the agricultural college at Rosemount.

There will be a ball game between the farmer boys north of the river, and those south of the river, the Missouri river forming a dividing line between the two farming communities.

Music will be furnished by the New York Ladies' Minstrel show who will be giving a tent performance here the same evening.

E. C. Best and son, Donald of Minneapolis, spent Sunday and Monday here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tanner. Mr. Best is a member of the firm of Tanner and Best.

Continued warm weather is causing the crops to show up in fine shape. The farmers are having no trouble in getting their hay up, as there have been no rains since having began.

There is a great abundance of small fruits, both wild and cultivated. Chas. Hawkins, east of town, has been supplying the town with a fine lot of strawberries for the past week.

BEMIDJI NOTES

Bemidji, Minn., July 15.—Mrs. O. B. Sonstrud, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. P. Sathre, of Audubon, for the past two weeks, returned to Bemidji yesterday.

Miss Lauric Hammond entertained at a marshmallow toast Tuesday evening at her home on Dewey avenue.

Mrs. David Gill entertained eleven little girls in honor of her daughter, Miss Noreen Gill, at her home on Belmont avenue, Wednesday afternoon. Games were played and lunch was served.

Mrs. Sarah Bogart, 90 years old, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. J. Lewis, on Irvine avenue, Sunday night. She had been ill for some time. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon, Rev. B. D. Hanscom officiating. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Lewis, and a son, J. E. Eubaner.

Mrs. A. A. Carter returned to Bemidji Wednesday from Detroit, Mich., where she has passed several weeks as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Lenz, and her son, Laurence Carter. She returned to Duluth on the steamer Eastland and came from Duluth to Bemidji by train. Her son, Laurence Carter, who was employed as a jitney bus between Bemidji and Nymros, left Detroit last week for Texas, where he will drive an automobile great for the United States government in their work of protecting the border. He will be located at El Paso.

Mrs. Cass Plyntock of Remer, was a business visitor in the city Wednesday.

Einer Linden of the circulation department of the Minneapolis Journal, was in the city Wednesday as a guest at the Martin Nelson home.

Mrs. E. W. Johnson, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, at Minneapolis for some time, returned home Tuesday.

William Dandlicker, who has operated a farm eight miles north of the city for several years, has sold his place to Mr. Krause of Ada, Minn., who will move here some time this summer and who will operate a modern dairy farm. Mr. Krause is a man of money and it is said that he intends to make improvements on the place. Mr. Dandlicker has purchased a farm north of Devils Lake, in North Dakota, and will move there this fall.

Miss Josephine Ostrem, of Fosston, who was instructor of the sixth grade at the Central school last year, arrived in the city Sunday and was the guest of Miss Thelma Johnson until Tuesday, when she left for Atkin, where she will visit for some time.

time you proceed to set a hen in your own clumsy, human fashion. Orin Crooker has the right idea, and explains it as follows in Farm and Home:

The keynote of the stolen nest is its flattened, shallow design. This is the way nature has demanded it should be constructed to give the best result. How different from the deep, hollow-edged contraption into which so many people pile the eggs they expect should to transform into downy chicks.

A nest to prove satisfactory should be shallow enough to permit a hen to turn her eggs properly. It should be flat enough to permit the newly hatched chicks to lie where they are when released from the shell instead of sliding down into the bottom and having the eggs roll on top of them.

Rich yellow yolks of eggs can be secured in winter by allowing the fowls free range when possible and making yellow corn, clover and alfalfa meal a large part of the ration. Pale yolks come from the lack of these foods.

As to Coupons.

Myrtle—Father seems impressed with your talk about coupons. Have you really any, George?

George—Sure. Got 700 saved up toward the furniture for our little flat.

BEYOND HIS POWERS.

"How'd you like to be president?"

"In normal times I wouldn't mind it," answered the prominent citizen.

"Yes?"

"I flatter myself that I could assist at the laying of a corner stone or the dedication of a monument about as well as the next man, but I'd hate to tackle this submarine question."
