They Also Serve.
We were watching the young rookies drilling. When I heard someone close to me say, "Yes, I know that I ought to be willing. But they're taking my Sonny away!"

And I knew that her tears must be flowing. Though I turned, that my eyes might not see. For I knew that her Sonny was going. "And what must be," I muttered, "must be."

But somehow the drum's martial beating, and the tramping of feet all that day. Kept forever and ever repeating: "But they're taking my Sonny away!"

That night, whether waking or sleeping, In a vision my sad fancy spun, An old mother her vigil was keeping, And she prayed for her brave soldier son:

"Jehovah, Almighty in Battle, Stretching forth thine omnipotent arm, 'Mid the chaos of mistle-ketony from harm!"

Then it seemed that she paused in her praying, And as grief over reason held sway, She kept weeping, and sobbing, and saying, "But they're taking my Sonny away!"

That is the attitude of many good people, even after they have reason to suspect that coffee hurts them.

True, some persons seem able for a time to use coffee without apparent harm, but sooner or later it does interfere with the health and comfort of many users.

POSTUM

This famous food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses. It has a flavor much like that of the higher grades of mild Java coffee, but is absolutely free from the drug, caffeine, in coffee, or any other harmful substance—free from all coffee troubles.

Postum is delicious and comes in two forms. The original Postum Cereal must be boiled. Instant Postum is a soluble powder—made in the cup by adding hot water. The flavor is the same and the cost about equal. Both kinds are good for young and old, and satisfy the craving for a hot, aromatic, meal-time beverage.
