When Joy Changed the Tune. Had so much of trouble that when Joy's a-comin' long He starts right in to greet him with a tribulation-song!

For there's such a thing as gettin' used to trouble, till you seem to be always looking for him—like a wanderer in a dream!

Oh, you think he's still a-waitin' with the wolves that bay the moon, But joy takes down his banjo, and he changes, Trouble's tune!

So, we know that Joy's a-comin'—that he's only "off somewhere," And we'll hope for halleluia in the valleys of despair;

Life's shadowy December's still dream of joy and June, For joy takes down his banjo, and he changes, Trouble's tune.

Every kind of music for everybody

Your kind of music for you! The kind of music you like best! Do you prefer to hear magnificent operatic arias, portrayed by Caruso or Farrar or Melba? Or are your favorites the charming old songs of yesteryear—the ballads so sweetly sung by Gluck and McCormack?

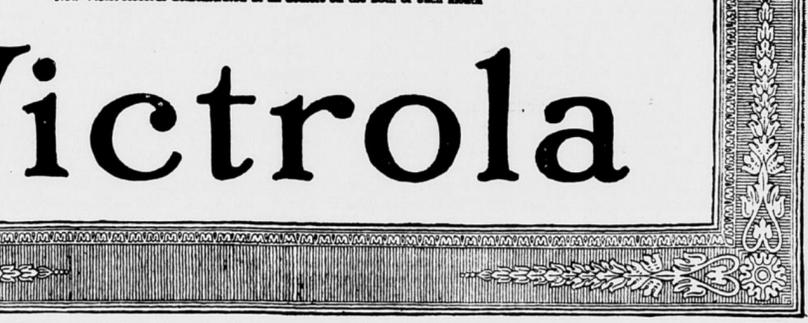

Or it may be that your tastes run to instrumental solos—the exquisite renditions of Elman or Kreisler or Paderewski. Then again, perhaps, you would rather hear Sousa's Band play some of his own stirring marches, or enjoy Harry Lauder's inimitable witticisms.

No matter—you can hear them all on the Victrola. It is the instrument for all kinds of music. It has not only gathered to itself the greatest artists in the world of song, but the most celebrated bands and orchestras, the famous instrumentalists, the leading comedians.

The Victrola is supreme in all fields of musical endeavor. It is the instrument for every home.

Hear your favorite music today at any Victor dealer's. He will gladly play any music you wish to hear, and demonstrate the various styles of the Victor and Victrola—$10 to $400.

SEATS COSTS TOO MUCH. At one of the Boston theaters recently there was shown on a screen a picture of a stock exchange. The brokers were hurrying about, pushing, waving their arms, gesticulating and, to the uninitiated, acting like a lot of insane men. Two young ladies in the balcony watched them with breathless interest for some time, then one asked:

"Why in the world don't they sit down and rest once in a while?" "My dear," was the enlightening answer, "don't you know that a seat in the stock exchange costs thousands of dollars?"—Harper's Magazine.
