

SOCIETY NEWS

The Pioneer. The suns of summer seared his skin: The cold his blood congealed; The forest giants blocked his way.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Collins, Riverside Park, have announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Frances Collins, and James Elwood Budge, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Budge, 401 South Fifth street.

Wednesday, August 23, is the date chosen for the wedding and the ceremony will be performed by Monsignor J. A. Lemieux, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at the parochial residence, 220 North Sixth street.

Miss Collins is a graduate of the local high school, the University of North Dakota and of Stout's Domestic Science school at Menominee, Wis.

Mr. Budge has grown to manhood in this city, and was a student of the local high school.

bride of James Budge on Wednesday, August 23. The guests will include the members of the Alpha Phi sorority, of which Miss Collins is a member, and the hours from 3 until 6 o'clock will be passed in an informal manner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Beatty and daughters, Lois and Helen, of Woodstock, Ill., who have been guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Sherman, of the Dinette block, for the past two weeks, left yesterday morning for their home, making the trip in their touring car.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. McIntosh and son, Allen, 512 Fourth avenue, have gone to Lake Julia, Minn., where they have leased the Boyle cottage, "The Outlook," for the remainder of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. John W. Cox of the university have also gone to Lake Julia, where they will remain until the opening of the university the middle of next month.

Miss Mabel Brenden of The Times-Herald company's business offices has gone to Benson, Minn., where she will spend a part of her vacation visiting her uncles.

The Ladies Aid society of the First Lutheran church will have the regular meeting of the society at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the church basement.

Miss Stella Imeson and her brother, Howard Free, of North Fourth street, have gone to Perth, Ont., where they will spend a few weeks visiting with their parents.

Miss Jessie Walker of Spokane, Wash., who is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. M. A. Hawkins and Mrs. M. A. Blair, for a few weeks, was the honor guest at a social session on the Rebekah lodge in the Odd Fellows' hall last evening.

Miss Ada, 401 South Sixth street, has issued invitations for tomorrow afternoon complimentary to Miss Frances Collins, who will become the and enjoyed the pleasure.

Mrs. W. P. McDonald and Mrs. John McDonald will entertain a large company of young people at the home of Mrs. W. P. McDonald this evening, complimentary to Miss Bernice Lynch, who is to wed Charles Munsey of this city on Monday, August 14.

Japanese lanterns will be used to decorate the lawn and the small tables, where luncheon will be served will be arranged among the trees. The early part of the evening will be spent in showering the bride-elect with parcels, which will contain articles which she will use in her new home.

The Twentieth Century club of Devils Lake held the first meeting for several weeks this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Dixon at her summer home at the Chautauqua. Plans were made for the course of study to be taken up this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hanson, 603 North Fourth street, will leave on Saturday evening for Minneapolis, where they will make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson have made their home here for the past six years.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Conlan and baby daughter, Ruth, left last evening for their home at Minot, after spending several days visiting with friends in this city. Mrs. Conlan will be remembered as Miss Bessie DeVoy.

Dr. and Mrs. John Winter and son of University Place will leave in a few days for Fairfield, Iowa, where Dr. Winter has accepted a professorship in Parson college for the coming year.

Miss Margaret Cable, head of the ceramics department of the university, will leave in a few days for her home in Minneapolis, where she will spend the remainder of her vacation with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Halland of Fargo have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Agnes Halland, and Dr. Sivert Otedahl, which will take place in Fargo on September 6.

Dr. Otedahl is a graduate of the medical department of the university and finished his medical studies at the Rush Medical school in Chicago. He practiced for a time at Thief River Falls, Minn., but is now located in Fargo. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Zeta fraternity of the university.

The visiting golf and tennis players at Bismarck were entertained at an informal dancing party at the club house at the Town and Country club last evening. This afternoon an informal tea will be given from 3 until 6 o'clock in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Norton of Breckenridge, Minn., are spending a few days in the city as the guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Runyan, 630 North Fifth street.

Miss Ada Earl and Miss Charlotte Sutherland of this city and Miss Grace Payne of Grafton returned from Bemidji, Minn., where they have spent the past week at Birchmont hotel. Mrs. Thomas Earl, 1805 University avenue, who has also been at Bemidji, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White, also returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Perry Johnson, 158 1-2 Reeves avenue, returned last evening from her outing at Lake Metigoshe.

Misses Mildred and Edith Veitch, 314 Cottonwood street, are expected to return home in a few days from Willow City, where they have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkins (Clara Hyslop) for the past week.

Mr. Fred Vrchota has returned to her home at Arvilla after spending a few days here as a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McLoughlin, 1012 University avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dryburg of Emerald motored to the city yesterday to meet Miss A. Norton of Cleveland, O., an old school mate of Mrs. Dryburg, who is to be a guest at the Dryburg home for several weeks.

Miss Norton has been an instructor in the Cleveland schools for the past 19 years and this is the first time that she has ever visited the west. The trip here was made on the Great Lakes as far as Duluth.

Mrs. George Buckingham, Jr., 420 North Fifth street, will return this evening from Langdon, where she has spent the past several days with her husband, who is spending the summer there looking after business matters.

Miss Katie Haugland, Miss Joie Larson and Miss Jennie Buckingham, will leave over the Great Northern for their vacation at Lake Geneva, Wis., where they will represent Grand Forks Y. W. C. A. at the annual conference which will be in session there from August 11 to 21. The young ladies will spend tomorrow in Minneapolis and will go on to Lake Geneva, tomorrow evening.

Miss Mary Ball of Fargo, left yesterday for a several weeks' trip through the Dominion of Canada. Miss Ball will be away until the latter part of September when she will come to Grand Forks to enter the university.

Mrs. R. M. Pollock and Mrs. Elizabeth O'Neil of Fargo, have been appointed by Mrs. Grace Glendenning, president of the North Dakota Votes for Women League to confer with Senator P. J. McCumber regarding women suffrage, while he is in Fargo tomorrow as a member of the party of Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president.

Miss Louise Fitzgerald of Fargo is visiting for a few days in Northwood as the guest of Miss Della Linwell. Miss Fitzgerald and Miss Linwell are leading parts in the home talent production of "Green Stockings" given by the young people of Northwood on Monday evening.

Miss Anna Haga of Northwood, who has often visited here as the guest of Miss Anna Babovich, is spending the summer in traveling through Yellowstone National park.

Cut Flowers FOR ANY OCCASION Funeral Designs Made on Short Notice.

We are alive day and night. Both phones 388. Night call 1854-J. N. W.

Grand Forks Floral Co. R. G. LEMKE 287 DeWitt Ave., Grand Forks

Victrola advertisement featuring a woman singing and the text 'Farrar sings "The Star Spangled Banner" with thrilling effect'. Includes a Victor record image and 'His Master's Voice' logo.

The Odell Co. Children's Dresses Priced Low. A splendid assortment of Percale and Gingham Dresses. The quality of materials are very good; well made and pretty styles; $1.25 and $1.50 values on sale at 75c. Ladies' Wash Dresses Priced At 1-4 Less Than Usual.

AWNING Time is upon us. Our assortment of materials is unsurpassed anywhere. Work the best. Prices lowest. See our new model window awning. Complete list of window shades. WRITE OR PHONE US. Grand Forks Tent and Awning Co. 125 DeWitt Ave., Grand Forks, N. D. Either Phone 1804-2

What Do You Want Of a Hotel? A place to sleep, bathe and shave in comfort and luxury— A place where you can rest, read or loaf with contentment— A place where food, service and surroundings lend an appetizing zest to your reading of the menu— and that place in Grand Forks is THE HOTEL DACOTAH Rates from $1.00 Per Day and the principal cities along the Pacific coast. Mrs. M. A. Hanson, who has made her home here for the past few years and who will leave on Saturday for her home in Minneapolis, was honored at this afternoon when the Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the First Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. George Sturtevant, 120 Boulevard avenue, in joint session. The business meetings of the societies were held first and a program was given. The Deaconess and Her Work were discussed in papers read by Mrs. L. Anna Bullis and Mrs. A. H. Thompson. Miss Ruth Quigley gave a violin solo and Mrs. R. J. Purcell gave a vocal selection. Mrs. D. A. McLeod had charge of the devotionals. Vases and sweetpeas and other garden flowers were used in the rooms and there was a service of refreshments after the program. Mrs. Hanson was presented with a gift by the ladies as a remembrance of the occasion. Mrs. Katherine Betts of the art department of Benner & Begg's department store will leave tomorrow evening for Calgary, Alta., where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Tate, until September 1. Mrs. Betts will then return to this city and resume her duties at Benner & Begg's. Miss Anna Heller, 325 First avenue, will leave over the Northern Pacific Thursday noon for several weeks' visit with relatives in the twin cities, St. Cloud and other points in Minnesota. Miss Heller will attend the wedding of a friend at St. Paul on Sunday. Last evening a company of Miss Heller's friends gathered at her home and spent the evening with her. Vases and baskets of garden flowers were used in the decorations of the rooms, and games, music and visiting were the diversions. Miss Heller was presented with a Parisian Ivory manicure set as a remembrance of the evening. Misses Lizzie Heller, Leah Papermaster and Toby Klatsky assisted Mrs. Heller in serving luncheon. Mrs. George A. Benson and daughter, Natalie, of the Bacon flats, who have spent the past two months at Mrs. Benson's summer home at Lake Minnetonka, returned to the city this morning. The social event of this evening will be the wedding of Miss Laura Daubenberg and William Mason Stone of Crookston. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride at 4 o'clock and it will be witnessed

BOY'S NEW FALL SUITS. Our big line of Fall Suits for Boys has arrived and we are now in a better position than ever to supply your wants. They come in Blue Serges and Fancy Mixtures, all made in the latest Norfolk styles. Our prices are truly in keeping with The Golden Rule principle. $1.98, $2.25, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98. NEW TAFFETA SKIRTS. Today's express brought us another shipment of Black Taffeta Skirts; made up in the very latest styles. To sell at $4.98. 125 BUSH STORES The Golden Rule 125 BUSH STORES