RUST STRAW IS GOOD FOR FEED

No Direct Information Received that Straw is Injurious to Stock.

Rusted wheat straw has been used every year that there has been a bad rust epidemic. There has not been any direct information that it is injurious to cattle. There has been information available to indicate that such rusted straw is of more than ordinary forage value.

The extra forage value of the rusted straw rests in the fact that the nourishment which in an ordinary year passes from the straw to the grain now remains largely in the straw and blighted leaves. There is also the shriveled grain. You are, therefore, perfectly safe in recommending to the farmers that straw which has been injured by rust and root blight is not to be discarded.

As to the method of feeding and handling, each farmer will need to use his own judgment. Many suggestions come in from different sources. One farmer expects to buy a number of sheep and feed it to them, but most of them expect to feed it direct to cattle with a varied ration of other sorts of hay.

"Yes!" or "No!" Mr. Hughes?

Thirty-Seven of the Foremost Publicists and Literary Men of the United States, on August First last, addressed You in the Following Open Letter.

To the Honorable Charles E. Hughes:

"The professional writers who sign this letter have small interest in parties but a very deep interest in democracy. It is our hope, through this voluntary association, to assist in the promotion of honest, educational discussion in order that fundamental issues may not be decided in prejudice and ignorance.

Mr. Wilson's beliefs have been expressed in law and in declared policies. He has made an open record by which he may be judged. Wise choice is not possible unless you yourself make equally specific statement of purposes and convictions.

Without intent to offend, we feel justified in charging that in no single public utterance have you filed a bona fide bill of particulars, nor have you offered a single constructive suggestion.

Generalities are without value. Blanket criticism is worthless. What we desire to know, what it is fair that the electorate should know, are the exact details of your disagreement with President Wilson. What has he done that you would not have done, and what has he failed to do that you would have done or propose to do? Honesty and patriotism demand that you put yourself upon record in such a manner as to permit people to judge you as they are now able to judge President Wilson. For example:—

- (1) Would you have filed instant protest against the invasion of Belgium and backed up that protest with the United States navy?
- (2) It is arrant nonsense to talk about action that would have prevented the Lusitania tragedy. The vague advertisement did not appear until shortly before the hour of sailing. The occurrence was one of those things that civilization has made the world regard as incredible. The only honest question is this: Would you have made the disaster the subject of diplomatic negotiations or would you have broken relations with Germany at once?
- (3) Would you have urged upon congress an embargo upon the shipment of munitions to the allies?
- (4) Would you urge universal compulsory military service?
- (5) You are frank in stating that Huerta's morals were of no concern to America. Does this mean that you would have recognized Huerta?
- (6) As matters stand today, would you be in favor of intervening in Mexico?
- (7) Does your attack upon the Wilson shipping bill mean that you are in favor of ship subsidies?
- (8) You speak enthusiastically of the rights of the worker. Does this imply that you endorse the Clayton Anti-Trust Law and the Seaman's Bill? Or will you urge their repeal?
- (9) What are your specific complaints against the Federal Reserve Law?
- (10) As Governor of New York, you opposed the Income Tax Amendment. Does this antagonism persist? Do you or do you not believe in paying for preparedness out of a tax on incomes, inheritances and munitions?

We agree with you that it is a "Critical Period," by far too critical indeed for candidates to talk in terms of office seeking rather than in the simple, earnest language of definite Americanism.

Respectfully,

(Signed)

Deeds versus Talk

In the Fall of 1915 proposed women's suffrage amendments to the constitution of New York and New Jersey were submitted to the voters of those states.

President Wilson made a special trip from Washington to Princeton to register and another special trip to vote for VOTES FOR WOMEN.

The records of the Board of Elections of New York County fail to disclose that you, Mr. Hughes, either registered or voted on this occasion.

Furthermore, the records show that since 1910 you have neglected to exercise at all the right of suffrage—The highest duty of a citizen.
