

THIEVES ROB FIFTY MEN ON G. N. FREIGHT

Take Money and Valuables From Laborers and Give I. W. W. Receipt.

Victims Arrive in City This Morning Demanding Cards—Men Held.

Terrorizing over 50 laborers riding on a north bound freight train, late last night and early this morning, several hold-up men, claiming to be I. W. W. organizers, forced several to leap from the swiftly moving cars between Fargo and Grand Forks, after they had been relieved of their money and valuables. Officers Bliven and Wyman of the night force of the Grand Forks police department, were informed of the robbery, but the train bearing the thugs arrived in the city one hour earlier than it was expected.

The officials commenced a search of the city, and arrested four men, who gave their names as Harry Howard of Chicago, Courtney Dickerson of Omaha, Earl Younkin of Enderlin, N. D., and L. P. Dumford of New Orleans, La., who are believed to be the men implicated in the hold-up. The men were found in front of the Ontario store on Third street about 3 o'clock this morning and were taken to the city hall. When searched, a large sum of money, several watches, masks, searchlights, revolvers, cartridges, bandana handkerchiefs and other incriminators were found among their belongings.

Refuse to Talk.

The men refuse to make any statement, but it is believed that they are members of a larger gang who have been operating throughout the state. Younkin, who claims to be a North Dakota resident, is the youngest of the quartette, and carried no gun. Two rings, a watch and considerable I. W. W. literature were found on his person.

Chief Troyer of Fargo has been notified of the arrests and it is expected that he will arrive in the city today, together with a number of other officers from the villages along the Great Northern line, who are searching for the men who committed the robberies.

Forward to Leap.

All along the line men were forced to leap from moving box cars, and it is reported that many of them were painfully injured. Frank Read, a one armed man, who claims to be from southern Iowa, arrived in the city this morning and told the following story concerning the affair.

Read's Story.

"I boarded the train at Fargo and crawled on top of one of the first cars. There were about fifty men on the train, as close as I could judge. We had barely left Fargo, and the train had just begun to speed up, when two men with guns, began taking us back to the next car, one man at a time. A large number were accompanied back before I was called. Some of them returned with slips of paper while others did not again appear. I heard several shots fired and one bullet whizzed past within a few feet of where I was sitting. They took me back two box car lengths and went through my pockets. They asked me if I was an I. W. W., and I told them that I wasn't. I had no money or jewelry and they forced me to jump from the car. I walked into the next town, Argusville, and made my way to this city this morning."

All Have "Receipts."

A large number of other men arrived in Grand Forks this morning, some of them with slips of paper, torn from a tablet, on which a receipt for various amounts of money was written with two illegible signatures.

Several of these men appeared at the Herald shop this morning and demanded union cards from S. S. McDonald, president of the North Dakota Federation of Labor, claiming that the receipts were given to them with instructions to appear at any union shop and obtain their cards.

The men victimized by the holdups are very indignant over the manner in which they were treated. Several were Austrians and could not understand English.

According to local officials, the men are not believed to be I. W. W. organizers, although they have literature indicating that they are connected with that order. It is the belief of the authorities that the membership campaign, conducted at the point of revolvers, was a clever ruse to pacify the men who were robbed. It also is claimed that there are several other members of the gang, and efforts now are being made to locate them.

Among the articles found in the possession of the men now held by the local officials, are cards and incriminators which are believed to have been stolen at Fargo. The Fargo officials are expected to identify many of the articles, and it is probable that evidence will be unearthed which will bring about charges against the men for several other crimes that have been committed.

No charge has been lodged here against the four men, but warrants are held by Chief Troyer of Fargo and the Hillsboro sheriff who will be in the city today.

JEWELRY THIEF IS ARRESTED

Warner Lee Apprehended in Twin Cities—Confessed to Crime is Report.

As the result of systematic search to apprehend a jewelry thief, who broke into the apartments of Bud Abrahamson, Edward Johnson and Ray Dryden on July 3, efforts of Sheriff Art Turner are believed to have been rewarded by the arrest of Warner A. Lee in Minneapolis.

According to word received in this city yesterday, Lee was apprehended by the Minneapolis officials as the man who had pawned jewelry that tallied exactly with the description of the stolen property. Sheriff Art Turner left last evening for the Mill city and it is expected that he will bring the prisoner back to this city tonight or tomorrow.

Since the robbery was committed on July 3, the officials have been making a search for the thief over a territory that embraced several states. The property taken was valued at several hundred dollars, and as a good description had been obtained of the articles, it proved difficult for the thief to dispose of the jewelry without detection.

200 TO ATTEND SUNDAY OUTING

Scandinavian Organizations Will Travel in 50 Cars to the Lake.

On Sunday morning, August 13th, about 50 automobiles will leave Grand Forks with picnickers bound for Maple Lake, 55 miles away, providing that the weather permits. This outing is under the auspices of the Sons of Norway lodge of Grand Forks and those planning to attend belong either to this organization or to the Daughters of Norway lodge or the Bjarne chorus.

A day's outing, whose experiences shall be memorable, is being planned by the committees in charge and the arrangements are now all made. The delegations from this city will leave at 6 o'clock from the Knights of Pythias hall at 103 South Third street. They will pass through Crookston, where several other automobiles will be picked up. A delegation of six cars from Eldred, Minn., also is expected to join the party enroute.

The day's program will include songs by the Bjarne chorus, speeches by Sveinbjorn Johnson and Peter Myrvold, and many games and sports. Boating on the lake is also being planned by many of those who will attend. During the stay at the lake, headquarters for the party will be maintained at Bunn's hotel. The return trip will be made at an early hour Monday morning in order to permit the members to report on hand for their usual duties at the opening of business hours.

This is the first time that such an extended trip has been attempted by the local organizations. Hitherto the annual outing has been in the nature of picnics in the neighborhood of Grand Forks. The committee having in charge the arrangements for this more ambitious venture, consists of the following members: Gunnar Running, A. G. Sorlie, Ole Hoff, O. G. Gleserud, I. Johnson and H. Krogerud.

GYPSIES VISIT CITY THURSDAY

Touring Dakota in Aristocratic Style—Four Automobile Schooners Here.

Grand Forks has had the distinction of entertaining about 20 "millionaire" gypsies during the past few days, who appreciated the hospitality of the citizens so much that they insisted upon taking souvenirs away with them.

The dusky tribe arrived at Grand Forks in four automobiles, drove through the main streets and headed for the north end of the city where they established a camp near the fair grounds.

Since the arrival of the visitors, souvenirs, such as chickens from neighboring farms and other food products, together with many other articles, which they had acquired, have been missed. In order to become better acquainted with the distinguished guests, Deputy Sheriff Stewart and Sorlie visited the camp yesterday and made a formal call, during which they described the wonderful possibilities for travelers, and the good roads, to be found in the west. So enthusiastic did the officials become over their own descriptions of the prairies, that they urged the gypsies to make their departure at daylight, this morning, in order that a more distant point could be reached before tonight.

A second call was made this morning in order to ascertain as to whether or not the visitors had accepted the invitation to depart. As was expected, they had not, and immediately the officials ordered a general cleanup. All belongings were hurriedly packed into the vans, machines were started and the parade towards the west began.

Since the gypsies arrived in the city, many reports have been received of petty thefts. One story is told by a north end resident, who claims he was shaving when one of the female members of the tribe, with several children. One side of his face had been relieved of the troublesome bristles while the other side was well shaved. While the man was endeavoring to interest his unwelcome visitor in the charms of the exterior of his home, one of the children succeeded in making away with a razor. Before he missed the instrument, his guests had departed.

RAILROADS ANTICIPATE NO TRAFFIC CONGESTION

Local railroad officials anticipate less difficulty than usual in caring for fall business. The usual preparations for handling the crops are being made and, in view of the light yield of wheat, they should be disposed of without much difficulty.

FLOUR PRICES SOAR; BAKERS FORESAW RISE

Many Local Concerns and Households Were Prepared for the Rise in Flour Prices.

The price of flour is now at a point to which it seldom before has attained. Local grocery stores this commodity at $4.55 per 100 pounds. This is 85 cents over quotations a month ago, and from present indications, the price today will see a still further increase.

When the advance commenced about a month ago, a large number of the local bakeries laid in a supply of flour, in anticipation of the rise. The order of flour at that time. Many housewives also have prepared for the increase in the price of flour by purchasing the necessary commodity. As long as the flour thus bought at the old prices holds out, local bakeries undoubtedly will be able to maintain the present price of bread.

THE FLYING TYPE.

The army aviator of today is picked for his quickness of mind and body, and the first thing that strikes you about him is a sort of feline, round up spring alertness. Then you note his reticence, the cool reserve of a man whose lot it is to express himself in deeds rather than words. And lastly, there is the quiet seriousness, verging almost on sadness, of the man who must hold himself ready to look death between the eyes at any moment, and yet keep his mind detached for other things.—Lewis R. Freeman in the Atlantic.

LOST LAD IS FOUND AMONG PAPER BOYS

William Jack Returned to His Home—Refused to Tell Where He Had Stayed.

William Jack, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jack, 1124 Cheyenne avenue, who disappeared from his home Wednesday afternoon, was discovered late Thursday by Miss Ruby Bailey of the circulation department of The Herald, as he was about to start out with an armful of papers to sell on the street.

The lad refused to tell where he had stayed the night previous, but appeared to be perfectly willing to go home.

Many things at present indicate an end of the war some time, but probably not soon.
