

SOCIETY NEWS

The Dream Ship. Sleep is the gangplank for me, it seems. From the everyday world to my ship of dreams.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the Zion Lutheran church will be held at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the church parlors.

The Monday Afternoon Bridge club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. E. M. Espersen, 222 Chestnut street, Monday afternoon.

The wedding of Miss Bernice Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynch, 208 South Fourth street, and Charles Harold Munsey will take place at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Miss Grace and Paul Loughlin, 177 Seventh street, who have spent several weeks at the home of their uncle and aunt at Barnesville, Minn., returned home yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams, 730 North Seventh street, have had as their guest for a few days, Mr. Adams' brother, George Adams of St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Alma Dragland of Pleasant View, Alta., who has been visiting relatives here for the past several weeks, left yesterday for her home.

Mrs. L. C. Harrington and Mrs. H. A. Enyart will be hostesses on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Sanford, 217 North Seventh street.

Miss Gertrude Doolley, North Sixth street, will go to the city on Monday for a longer visit before returning to St. Paul.

Miss Helen Sanford of Langdon, who has spent the past week in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sanford, 217 North Seventh street, will return to Langdon tomorrow to resume her duties in the state's attorney's office.

Miss Lillian Highland, 220 North Fifth street, has returned from Hatton, N. D., where she has spent the past several weeks visiting with relatives.

Miss Lida Abrahamson, 111 Reeves avenue, has issued invitations for Tuesday afternoon when she will entertain the members of the Alpha Xi society.

Miss Lida, 221 Walnut street, went to Reynolds last evening where she will spend the week-end as the guest of Miss Alice Schultze.

her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Elchoff. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will soon leave for Minneapolis, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sorlie and children, 611 Sixth avenue, have returned from an auto trip to Albert Lea, Minn., where they have spent the past month with relatives.

Miss Dahl and Miss Dagny Berg have gone to Detroit, Minn., where they will spend a week's outing. From Detroit they will go to Minneapolis to spend the remainder of their vacation.

Miss Florence Jensen and Olen Thomas entered a picnic party in Isacs, Okla., who have been guests at the Isacs home for several weeks, left today for Moorhead, where they will spend a week as guests of Mrs. Isacs.

The wedding of Miss Bernice Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynch, 208 South Fourth street, and Charles Harold Munsey will take place at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Miss Medora Knox of the Odell cottage is expected to return to the city this evening. She will be accompanied by an eastern trip. While away Miss Knox visited the shops in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago and Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams, 730 North Seventh street, have had as their guest for a few days, Mr. Adams' brother, George Adams of St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Helen Sanford of Langdon, who has spent the past week in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sanford, 217 North Seventh street, will return to Langdon tomorrow to resume her duties in the state's attorney's office.

Miss Gertrude Doolley, North Sixth street, will go to the city on Monday for a longer visit before returning to St. Paul.

Miss Lillian Highland, 220 North Fifth street, has returned from Hatton, N. D., where she has spent the past several weeks visiting with relatives.

Miss Lida Abrahamson, 111 Reeves avenue, has issued invitations for Tuesday afternoon when she will entertain the members of the Alpha Xi society.

Miss Lida, 221 Walnut street, went to Reynolds last evening where she will spend the week-end as the guest of Miss Alice Schultze.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jackson, 1201 University avenue, have as their guest for a time Mrs. J. E. Middleton and son, Arthur, and Miss Evelyn Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sorlie and children, 611 Sixth avenue, have returned from an auto trip to Albert Lea, Minn., where they have spent the past month with relatives.

Miss Dahl and Miss Dagny Berg have gone to Detroit, Minn., where they will spend a week's outing. From Detroit they will go to Minneapolis to spend the remainder of their vacation.

Miss Florence Jensen and Olen Thomas entered a picnic party in Isacs, Okla., who have been guests at the Isacs home for several weeks, left today for Moorhead, where they will spend a week as guests of Mrs. Isacs.

The wedding of Miss Bernice Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Lynch, 208 South Fourth street, and Charles Harold Munsey will take place at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

Miss Medora Knox of the Odell cottage is expected to return to the city this evening. She will be accompanied by an eastern trip. While away Miss Knox visited the shops in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago and Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams, 730 North Seventh street, have had as their guest for a few days, Mr. Adams' brother, George Adams of St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Helen Sanford of Langdon, who has spent the past week in the city visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Sanford, 217 North Seventh street, will return to Langdon tomorrow to resume her duties in the state's attorney's office.

Miss Gertrude Doolley, North Sixth street, will go to the city on Monday for a longer visit before returning to St. Paul.

Miss Lillian Highland, 220 North Fifth street, has returned from Hatton, N. D., where she has spent the past several weeks visiting with relatives.

Miss Lida Abrahamson, 111 Reeves avenue, has issued invitations for Tuesday afternoon when she will entertain the members of the Alpha Xi society.

Miss Lida, 221 Walnut street, went to Reynolds last evening where she will spend the week-end as the guest of Miss Alice Schultze.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Jackson, 1201 University avenue, have as their guest for a time Mrs. J. E. Middleton and son, Arthur, and Miss Evelyn Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Speland of Langdon will return to Grand Forks where they will make their home.

Church Services

Plymouth Congregational. Corner of Fifth street and University avenue, William H. Elfring, minister. Morning worship, 10:30.

St. Michael's Catholic. Ninth Sunday after Pentecost. Low mass at 8 a. m. "Low mass" for children at 9 a. m. in mass at 10:30 a. m.

First Baptist. Alpha avenue and Fifth street. R. G. Peterson, pastor. Resident, 730 South Fifth street. Study at the church. Telephones N. W. 1060-985.

First Methodist Episcopal. Fourth street and Alpha avenue. A. H. Thompson, pastor. 10:30. The Christian Inheritance, 12 Sunday school classes.

St. Paul's Episcopal. Rev. J. C. Burison, rector. Services for Sunday will be celebration of the holy communion at 8 a. m. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:30.

German Lutheran. German service will be conducted in the morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. F. Wohlfel of St. Thomas.

Trinity Lutheran. N. J. Lore, pastor. Services Sunday morning by the elders. Evening service at 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

St. Mary's (Catholic). Rev. David Grove, pastor. Special services Sunday morning; English services in evening. Osmond Steensland, a student at Haughe's school, will occupy the pulpit.

Belmont avenue. E. H. Gunhus the pastor will conduct services 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Singing and will sing at the evening service. Sunday school and bible class 11:50 a. m. Y. P. S. Tuesday 8 p. m. Vining street will serve refreshments. Prayer meeting Thursday 8 p. m. All are welcome.

First Church of Christ, Scientist. Regular services 10:45 a. m. The subject is "Soul." The Sunday school follows the morning service. The Wednesday evening testimonial meeting begins at 8 o'clock and the reading room is open weekdays from 2 to 5 p. m. The room is No. 3 in the Clifford annex on DeMers avenue.

Scandinavian Baptist. Corner Fourth avenue and Walnut St. Services will be held at 10:45 a. m. Sunday school with Bible class at 11:15 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening service at 8. Mid-week prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Oliver Bergstrom, pastor.

Swedish Lutheran. Corner of Alpha avenue and Sixth street. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Regular services at 10:30 a. m. in the evening. Services in the Bethesda church at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday August 20, there will be no services in the churches as the pastor will be on the morning train for Minneapolis where the Red river district will hold mission meetings at several places.

First Lutheran. Services in English at 10 a. m. No services in the evening. Pastor at 10:30 a. m. after noon. H. B. Thorgriensen.

St. Mark's American Lutheran. Corner Fifth street and International avenue, J. H. Richards, minister. Morning worship and sermon 10:30. Theme: "False Prophets and False Professors." Fourth avenue. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend all services and visit the reading room.

SCHOOLS AND HUSBANDRY BUSINESS MEN WHO HAVE MADE PEMBINA THE CITY OF THE NORTH

Pembina City Schools. The Pembina city schools are divided into five departments, or rooms. The total annual enrollment for the entire schools is about 220. Besides the large building a smaller building is used for the manual training and domestic science departments.

The Pembina Grain and Lumber Co. This firm has been in business in Pembina for nine years, succeeding the Ammie Elevator Co. They do a lumber, grain and fuel business and operate a feed mill. Complete lines of building material, coal and feed are carried and the business is enjoying a steady growth under the capable management of H. L. McDougall.

The Pembina Bakery. T. Desrosier is proprietor of the Pembina bakery and has been a resident of Pembina for three years. His products consist of bread, buns, cakes and pastry of all kinds. He runs a clean and neat shop and enjoys a large patronage from people of Pembina and vicinity. Out town orders are given prompt attention.

John Heneman. John Heneman has been located in Pembina since 1908. He has a large 40x20 two story store building located on Main street. A liberal advertising policy, together with the large and well selected stock of goods and good service have helped this firm to build up a large business. Mr. Heneman is president of the Pembina Commercial club and an active part in the growth and prosperity of the city.

Hotel Pembina. Hotel Pembina is under new management and is now in the forefront among the hotels of the northern part of the state. A. H. Sluman is the new proprietor. He has had years of experience in conducting hotels and has the happy faculty of knowing how to entertain the traveling public in the most approved fashion.

Chas. Lafond. Chas. Lafond is the proprietor of a first class barber shop, a confectionery store and soft drink emporium in Pembina. He is also engaged in the moving picture business and has taken an active part in establishing show houses in different parts of the county. He puts on a show each week in Pembina and is well patronized.

E. R. Langton & Co. E. R. Langton & Co. do a general business in sheet goods, paints, oils, harness, all kinds of farm machinery and Ford automobiles. Mr. Langton has been established in Pembina for many years and his business is steadily growing. He is one of the pioneer settlers of the county.

Chas. Lafond. Chas. Lafond is the proprietor of a first class barber shop, a confectionery store and soft drink emporium in Pembina. He is also engaged in the moving picture business and has taken an active part in establishing show houses in different parts of the county. He puts on a show each week in Pembina and is well patronized.

H. R. Shannon. H. R. Shannon settled in Pembina county thirty-five years ago and engaged in the farming business in the Tolete district from 1872 when he became buyer for the Victoria Elevator Co., at Pembina. The concern represented by Mr. Shannon buys grain of all kinds and sells seed grain to the farmers.

H. G. Lowe is proprietor of the Hamilton News and mail line and conducts an up to date auto and team livery. He has equipment to take care of travelers in all kinds of weather and employs careful drivers. Mr. Lowe has been in Pembina for twelve years, during the last three of which he has been in the livery business. He is enjoying a steady and profitable trade.

Frank C. Morris. Frank C. Morris is one of the pioneer settlers of the Pembina district, having been here since 1878. He homesteaded on the Pembina river and still owns the land upon which he obtained his start in 1878. He homesteaded in the state and has a large tract of land in the most extensive farmers of the district, owning 2,800 acres of land and raising from 40,000 to 50,000 bushels of wheat annually. He also raises a goodly number of horses and cattle each year and has fine buildings on his farm. Mr. Morris has a few good farms for sale and a part-time livery business. He is a member of the Red River Valley and will do well to communicate with him.

J. K. Switzer. J. K. Switzer has been a resident of Pembina for twenty years and has conducted a meat market in the city for the past nine years. His shop is well equipped with modern cooking apparatus and a good stock of meats.

E. D. Booker. E. D. Booker is proprietor of the hardware, farm machinery, harness and furniture business formerly conducted by King & Booker, who were proprietors of the business for eighteen years. Mr. Booker took over the business in January, 1915, and does a large business in the different lines carried. Implements, gas engines, farm tractors, etc., in the J. H. C. and Alpha avenues, and a staff of three men give good service to customers of this firm. Mr. Booker has been a resident of Pembina county for twenty-three years.

Geo. Morris. Geo. Morris has been engaged in the farming business for seven years and has a fine half section of land two miles east of Pembina. There are splendid buildings on the farm and is one of the most successful farmers of the Pembina district. Mr. Morris raises well bred Percheron horses and also raises pure bred and single comb White Leghorns, and is a firm believer in crop rotation and mixed farming. There are fine crops of alfalfa, clover, timothy and corn. There is a rural telephone service and Mr. Morris has electric lights and motors installed in his buildings in the near future to furnish power for operating different machines.

J. O. Williamson. J. O. Williamson has been engaged in the farming business in the Pembina district for three years. He operates 680 acres of land. He has good equipment for farming, including a threshing outfit. At present Mr. Williamson is engaged in extensive grain farming, but in future intends to raise more stock.

J. LaMoure, Jr. J. LaMoure, Jr., is engaged in the farming business and has a fine half section of land located five miles east of Pembina, not far from the Tongue river. There are good buildings on the farm and a pretty grove of trees near the buildings. Mr. LaMoure is engaged in extensive crop raising on an excellent soil. He has a large number of pure bred Yorkshire hogs which he sells throughout the northwest, shipping some of the animals to the state of Washington. Mr. LaMoure was in the customs service in Pembina for eighteen years and was collector for the district of North and South Dakota and Kittson county, Minnesota, for eight years. He is a member of the Pembina school board and is president of the Commercial club and vice president of the city and takes an active part in public movements for the upbuilding of Pembina.

Ray C. Stinson. Ray C. Stinson has been in the drug business in Pembina for two years. His store is located in the Harris-Wilkins block, the building being of concrete construction and fire proof. One of the largest and most up to date stocks of drugs, chemicals, sundries and toilet articles is carried in a fine grove of land. Mr. Stinson gives personal attention to the prescription department and customers have been pleased with the service to the local trade. This store does an extensive mail order business.

Hotel Pembina. Hotel Pembina is under new management and is now in the forefront among the hotels of the northern part of the state. A. H. Sluman is the new proprietor. He has had years of experience in conducting hotels and has the happy faculty of knowing how to entertain the traveling public in the most approved fashion. The culinary department is in the charge of C. L. White, an excellent chef, and as a result the cuisine of the Pembina is the best. Special effort is made to please the guests in every particular. The building is under new management and is steam heated.

M. H. Miller. M. H. Miller has been a resident of Pembina since 1882 and in the jewelry business for the past twenty-six years. He carries a large stock of jewelry, cut glass watches, clocks and diamonds. There is a repair department in connection with Harry Miller, who is a graduate optometrist and repairs all kinds of eyeglasses. Mr. Miller has been mayor of Pembina for the past twelve years and always carries an active part in things which tend to develop the city.

Judge E. W. Conroy. Judge E. W. Conroy located in Pembina in 1878. He has been a resident in the practice of law in the city since that time. Mr. Conroy was county judge for a number of years and served as a member of the board of regents of the University of North Dakota for two years, and he has been United States commissioner for the past twenty-five years. He has a large real estate business in Pembina and devotes much of his time to matters in connection therewith. He has a number of fine farms for sale and is prepared to secure a good farm in the famous Red river valley.

C. W. Shumaker. C. W. Shumaker has been connected with the Northern Pacific railway at Pembina for the past nineteen years and has been agent during the last eight years of that time. He is also U. S. customs broker. Mr. Shumaker is one of the aldermen of Pembina and a booster for the town and district.

John McCaffery. John McCaffery has been a resident of the Pembina district since 1873 when he homesteaded on land seven miles south of Pembina. He has 920 acres of land close to the Tongue river and a fine farm home peaking in a pretty natural grove of large trees. Mr. McCaffery has been successful in the farming business and in addition to raising large crops of corn, clover, timothy and alfalfa. He also raises stock, having forty-five head at the present time, and receives a very satisfactory return from the raising of milk cows. He is a member of the school board for district number nine.

Methodist Episcopal Church. The Pembina Methodist Episcopal church has been established for nearly forty years. It is one of the old historic churches of the North Dakota conference. Some of the strongest men in northern Minnesota have served this congregation including Rev. Dr. J. G. Moore, at present superintendent of the Bismarck district and whose name is prominent in the annals of the denomination.

Methodist Episcopal Church. The Pembina Methodist Episcopal church has been established for nearly forty years. It is one of the old historic churches of the North Dakota conference. Some of the strongest men in northern Minnesota have served this congregation including Rev. Dr. J. G. Moore, at present superintendent of the Bismarck district and whose name is prominent in the annals of the denomination.

near fields. The activities of the church are in a very healthful condition. The Sunday school has made notable progress under the able and faithful superintendency of E. D. Booker. The Epworth League and the M. S. rejoices in being able to report progress. Mrs. F. A. Wardwell is president of the Ladies' Aid society, Mrs. S. W. Johnson, and Mrs. Quackenbush treasurer. The pastor of the congregation at the present time is Rev. A. O. Birchough. Mr. Birchough is one of the prominent clergymen of North Dakota and in addition to doing excellent work in the church districts that he serves takes a prominent part in the work of upbuilding the social and moral life of the northern part of the state.

Geo. Morris has been engaged in the farming business for seven years and has a fine half section of land two miles east of Pembina. There are splendid buildings on the farm and is one of the most successful farmers of the Pembina district. Mr. Morris raises well bred Percheron horses and also raises pure bred and single comb White Leghorns, and is a firm believer in crop rotation and mixed farming. There are fine crops of alfalfa, clover, timothy and corn. There is a rural telephone service and Mr. Morris has electric lights and motors installed in his buildings in the near future to furnish power for operating different machines.

J. O. Williamson has been engaged in the farming business in the Pembina district for three years. He operates 680 acres of land. He has good equipment for farming, including a threshing outfit. At present Mr. Williamson is engaged in extensive grain farming, but in future intends to raise more stock.

J. LaMoure, Jr. J. LaMoure, Jr., is engaged in the farming business and has a fine half section of land located five miles east of Pembina, not far from the Tongue river. There are good buildings on the farm and a pretty grove of trees near the buildings. Mr. LaMoure is engaged in extensive crop raising on an excellent soil. He has a large number of pure bred Yorkshire hogs which he sells throughout the northwest, shipping some of the animals to the state of Washington. Mr. LaMoure was in the customs service in Pembina for eighteen years and was collector for the district of North and South Dakota and Kittson county, Minnesota, for eight years. He is a member of the Pembina school board and is president of the Commercial club and vice president of the city and takes an active part in public movements for the upbuilding of Pembina.

Ray C. Stinson has been in the drug business in Pembina for two years. His store is located in the Harris-Wilkins block, the building being of concrete construction and fire proof. One of the largest and most up to date stocks of drugs, chemicals, sundries and toilet articles is carried in a fine grove of land. Mr. Stinson gives personal attention to the prescription department and customers have been pleased with the service to the local trade. This store does an extensive mail order business.

Hotel Pembina. Hotel Pembina is under new management and is now in the forefront among the hotels of the northern part of the state. A. H. Sluman is the new proprietor. He has had years of experience in conducting hotels and has the happy faculty of knowing how to entertain the traveling public in the most approved fashion. The culinary department is in the charge of C. L. White, an excellent chef, and as a result the cuisine of the Pembina is the best. Special effort is made to please the guests in every particular. The building is under new management and is steam heated.

M. H. Miller has been a resident of Pembina since 1882 and in the jewelry business for the past twenty-six years. He carries a large stock of jewelry, cut glass watches, clocks and diamonds. There is a repair department in connection with Harry Miller, who is a graduate optometrist and repairs all kinds of eyeglasses. Mr. Miller has been mayor of Pembina for the past twelve years and always carries an active part in things which tend to develop the city.

Judge E. W. Conroy located in Pembina in 1878. He has been a resident in the practice of law in the city since that time. Mr. Conroy was county judge for a number of years and served as a member of the board of regents of the University of North Dakota for two years, and he has been United States commissioner for the past twenty-five years. He has a large real estate business in Pembina and devotes much of his time to matters in connection therewith. He has a number of fine farms for sale and is prepared to secure a good farm in the famous Red river valley.

C. W. Shumaker has been connected with the Northern Pacific railway at Pembina for the past nineteen years and has been agent during the last eight years of that time. He is also U. S. customs broker. Mr. Shumaker is one of the aldermen of Pembina and a booster for the town and district.

John McCaffery has been a resident of the Pembina district since 1873 when he homesteaded on land seven miles south of Pembina. He has 920 acres of land close to the Tongue river and a fine farm home peaking in a pretty natural grove of large trees. Mr. McCaffery has been successful in the farming business and in addition to raising large crops of corn, clover, timothy and alfalfa. He also raises stock, having forty-five head at the present time, and receives a very satisfactory return from the raising of milk cows. He is a member of the school board for district number nine.

Methodist Episcopal Church. The Pembina Methodist Episcopal church has been established for nearly forty years. It is one of the old historic churches of the North Dakota conference. Some of the strongest men in northern Minnesota have served this congregation including Rev. Dr. J. G. Moore, at present superintendent of the Bismarck district and whose name is prominent in the annals of the denomination.

Methodist Episcopal Church. The Pembina Methodist Episcopal church has been established for nearly forty years. It is one of the old historic churches of the North Dakota conference. Some of the strongest men in northern Minnesota have served this congregation including Rev. Dr. J. G. Moore, at present superintendent of the Bismarck district and whose name is prominent in the annals of the denomination.

Methodist Episcopal Church. The Pembina Methodist Episcopal church has been established for nearly forty years. It is one of the old historic churches of the North Dakota conference. Some of the strongest men in northern Minnesota have served this congregation including Rev. Dr. J. G. Moore, at present superintendent of the Bismarck district and whose name is prominent in the annals of the denomination.

Come Out of the Kitchen—it's the closed season for the bake-oven. Banish kitchen worry and work. Forget about cooks and servants and gas bills. Solve your Summer problem by serving Shredded Wheat Biscuit, the ready-cooked whole wheat food. A food that restores the digestive organs to their natural vigor, supplies all the nutriment needed for a half-day's work and keeps the bowels healthy and active. We have done the baking for you in our own oven. Eat it for breakfast with milk or cream; serve it for luncheon with berries or other fresh fruits. Made at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

TOILET & BATH SOAP. JAPANESE SOAP. LATHERS INSTANTLY.

Cut Flowers. Roses and Carnations. Floral Designs. LOVELL. 12 N. 4th St. Phone 286.

BEL-ANS. Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

Cut Flowers. FOR ANY OCCASION. Funeral Designs. Made on Short Notice. We are alive day and night. Both phones 528. Night call 1254-J. N. W. Grand Forks Floral Co. 1254 J. N. W.