MATCH PLAY IS UNDER WAY IN CHAMPIONSHIP

Eight Players Will be Eliminated in Contest for Golf Title.

Hard Time Against Wind Yesterday in Qualification Round.

Eight twosomes are playing the first round of match play in the contest for the championship of the Grand Forks Golf club.

Jay Stevens is playing Hagen; C. J. Murphy, runner up for the state championship, is playing Myron Bacon.

The high wind from the northwest that blew across the course most of yesterday afternoon, made playing difficult and the scores were not as low as they otherwise would have been.

Duluth Begins the Last Home Series of Season Today

Duluth Aug. 24.—Duluth fans will see the final Northern League game here of this season when the White Sox open a four-game series this afternoon with the Superior Badgers at Athletic park.

The series of four games with Winnipeg and Fargo-Moorhead will just about bring up the season with Duluth and Duluth will be away to the bad.

This has been a rough old year on baseball magnets in the Northern League, and Owner H. A. Blume of the Sox is, perhaps, the heaviest loser.

Ogilvie has won three games and cause they both want to play at the Fair and the loser will be eliminated from the championship series.

The matter finally was left to the State Fair Baseball association, which ruled that the teams would have to fight it out before the championship series opened or be dropped.

Mabel Trask Noses Out St. Frisco in 2:08 Pace Yesterday.

Cleveland, Aug. 24.—Mabel Trask and St. Frisco in the Western Reserve 2:08 trot furnished the thrills yesterday at the North Grand Circuit meeting.

With the wind blowing a gale along the mile ring the mare piloted by Cox and the stallion driven by the veteran Geers raced neck and neck through the entire course in all three heats, the Trask mare getting the first two heats and the pace and Geers horse nosing out the winner in the third heat.

Miss Perfection, the favorite in the 2:11 trot, after getting off to a hot start and finishing sixth in the first heat, stepped off in the next two and won handily in straight heats.

Coveleski and Gould were driven from the mound by an onslaught in the seventh, when four singles, a sacrifice, and two passes netted Boston four more runs.

Pepper retired for a pinch hitter in the seventh. Ruth led Cleveland to one hit in his two innings in the box.

R. H. E. Boston.....7 11 1 Cleveland.....3 9 1 Leonard, Ruth and Carrigan, Cady; Boehling, Coveleski, Gould, Klepper and O'Neil.

New York, Aug. 24.—New York made an out of four from Chicago, winning a game marred by errors, 5 to 4, yesterday. Morgridge pitched grand ball but Chicago scored three runs on him in the fifth inning on four errors and a scratch single. The Yankees won in the eighth, getting four runs after two out. With two out Peckinpaugh singled, Mammel was hit and Olding walked for bases.

Faber then replaced Russell in the box for Chicago, and Mullen hit to Weaver. Fournier let Weaver's throw go through him, and the three runners scored. Mullen, the third, after Baumann walked, Pipp, who had a lame foot, batted for Walters and drove Mullen in with the winning run. The Yankees won through the greater part of the game.

R. H. E. New York.....5 10 4 Chicago.....4 12 5 Morgridge, Plunk and Traggner; Alexander, Russell, Faber and Lapp, Schaak.

Philadelphia, Aug. 24.—Detroit had an easy time winning yesterday's game from Philadelphia, 10 to 3. Washington, Aug. 24.—St. Louis and Washington split a doubleheader yesterday, the visitors winning the first game, 5 to 4 in ten innings and losing, 4 to 2, in the second, called after the seventh inning on account of darkness. Second game—R. H. E. Washington.....4 8 1 St. Louis.....2 9 1 Johnson and Henry; Plick and Severid. (Called on account of darkness in 7th.)

R. H. E. Chicago.....7 10 1 Brooklyn.....4 8 1 Cheney, Appleton and Meyers; Lavender, Packard and Elliott.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 24.—Pittsburgh took four out of the series of five games from Philadelphia by winning a sixteen-inning contest here yesterday by a score of 2 to 1. The visitors made their run in the fifth inning on hits by Killifer and Dugue and Rixey's sacrifice. Atlanta.—In Frank Thrasher, Connie Mack of the Athletics has purchased an outfielder destined like his fellow southern, Cobb, Speaker and Jackson, to be one of the stars of the southern league, according to critics here. Thrasher is a wonderful fielder and is among the leaders of the southern association in batting with an average of .355.

Mark Arle of Thomastown, Ill., took second with 19. W. S. Hoon of Jewell, Iowa, and R. A. King of Delta, Col., tied for third, with 18. In the shoot-off King won, breaking 20 straight while Hoon made 16.

There were 615 entries in the preliminary handicap of the Interstate association, but no shooter had tried for more than 75 targets when darkness made postponement necessary.

There were 65 shooters who forfeited their entrances in the Grand American handicap, which opened today, but additional entries brought the total of starters to 615.

In a professional event Homer Clark of Alton, Ill., and H. D. Gibbs of St. Louis each broke 99.

TRAPSHOOTING. (By George Peck.) One of the many delightful phases of trapphooting affiliation and one by the way which is comparatively new, is The Farmers' Community Gun club. For many years, with the exception of a few individuals in farm sections who would attend an occasional trapphooting tournament, the young men were content to do a little hunting in the fall and winter, feeling that time and distance precluded the possibility of their indulgence in this fascinating sport.

Today, however, we see marked changes taking place in this respect. Regularly organized community trapphooting clubs are beginning to dot our farming sections and it is indeed a fine example of American independence; it was not convenient for the farmer to go to those distant traps, so he is bringing the traps to the farm. And what a get-together sport it is! Though they live miles apart they know one another intimately, the general store having been their meeting place for years and during those years each has studied the ability of the other as a rabbit, quail or duck shot, either through hearsay, observation or personal boasting.

The gun club, however, leaves no room for argument for the scores stand out in mute judgment and in place of the one-time boasting, arguments and doubt, a wholesome friendly rivalry holds sway.

Cincinnati—Two broad shouldered, tanned men stood talking for a brief time under the grandstand before the game last Monday at Redland Field, as the fans hurried past them to their seats. The years were rolled back and the two men were seen again on the pitching mound in many of the greatest games ever recorded in the history of the sport. The men were Christy Mathewson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds and Miner Brown, who after a lapse of a year, again is on the pitching staff of the Chicago Cubs. When these great exponents of the pitching end of the game were in full possession of their ability as slabmen the entire baseball world looked on, for their games were sure to be marked with skill, grace, strategy and all the kinks and workings of inside baseball. Matty, as a Giant and Brown, as one of the older breed of Cubs, rivals, pillars of the game for many years, stock talking. Subject! Baseball? No, golf!

Cleveland—A Cleveland baseball man has pointed out the disparity of ages in the squad which Fielder Jones is leading to fame in St. Louis. Jones himself is 42 years of age and like the other best known veterans of his team—Plank and Wallace, who are about the same age—is a native of Pennsylvania. Those three are the only players on the team born east of the Alleghenies. George Slier, perhaps Jones' greatest individual asset among the players, is the youngest, having been born in Nimigila, Ohio, Feb. 19, 1894. Slier and Lavan learned their baseball at the University of Michigan, while Ernest Koob gained his first notice by pitching a great game against Slier's Wolverines for Kalamazoo normal, a few years ago.

Chicago—Joe Rivers, the Mexican boxer, rated among the best lightweights a few years ago, is training here for his bout with Johnny Griffiths at Canton, Ohio, Labor day. He will wind up his work at Cleveland.

DISQUALIFYING. Judge: Miranda—"Don't you think every young girl should fit herself for marriage?" Minerva—"Why, if she did nobody would want to marry her."
