FOOTBALL AT MINNESOTA IS LOOKING GOOD

Gophers Have Many Veterans Back For the Coming Season.

Several Members of Team in Guard But New Men are Promising.

St. Paul, Sept. 4.—University of Minnesota prospects, as they are wont to be at this time of the year, indicate a successful season. There is a wealth of excellent material from which Dr. Williams can mold his machine and, as he will have a number of veterans back, the Maroon and Gold can be expected to uphold its position in Western Conference football.

Among the "M" men who will be back are: Captain Bert Baston, All-American end; Hauser and Hartwig, tackles; Gerou, Tenhoff, Gray and Wilson, guards; Hanson, center; Clark, quarterback; Fudge, Wyman, fullback; James, Ballentyne, Joe Sprafka and Ed Kieffman, halfbacks. Others who were first string substitutes are: Aldenderfer, Bros, Cymanick, Hanson, McGilvra, Platon, Stryker and Johnson.

Good Freshmen. From the freshmen ranks Dr. Williams is expected to pick several regulars. Carlson and Lee, halfbacks, who learned the rudiments of the game at Carleton; Ecklund, tackle, formerly of South high and Macalester; Sandy Hamilton, a lineman, formerly of East high; Walter Haertel, halfback, of North; Anderson, an end of Macalester; Van Nest, quarterback, of Shattuck, and Holmgren, fullback, are all varsity caliber.

Several of these players are members of the militia and may be lost to the squad. Lee and Carlson are at present at Camp Roberts; Gerou is on the border, and Hamilton is or was in the guard. It is reported that Hamilton will be ineligible. He had intended to make up some of his work at summer school, but was prevented from attending through the calling out of the guard.

Needs an End. The positions Dr. Williams must fill are right end, the outpost patrolled by Al Quist, a tackle position and two guard berths. The loss of Captain Bernie Rehrman from the back field also leaves a big gap. Ecklund is expected to make one of the tackle positions, for the former Macalester athlete was one of the most powerful players on last year's roster. Hamilton, if eligible, can be used either on the line or in back field. He was the best punter in school last year, and is adept at hurling the pass.

To Big Linemen. Then, too, Mayor and Townley, veteran guards of 1914, who were ineligible last season, are practically certain of getting out for the team, which will give Dr. Williams a pair of linemen who ranked among the West's stars two seasons ago.

Certain Bert Baston, of course, is in a class by himself. Hauser developed wonderfully last fall at tackle, and he is unusually fast for a big man, may be shifted to an end.

Dunnigan and Sinclair are through, and a pair of guards must be developed. However, both were out at the same time last season, and Turnquist, Gray and Tenhoff all acquitted themselves nicely at the positions. Hanson proved a reliable center rush and should have no trouble winning back his berth.

Long Looks Good. Shorty Long's quarterback play was the best since the days of Johnny McGee, and with the added year's experience is picked by many experts to be the best general in the West this season.

Wayne Ballentyne, Perry Johnson and George Joe Sprafka are veteran linemen. Harold Johnson, if he is eligible, should be a star of the first magnitude, while Carlson, Lee and Haertel are sure to be heard from. Dr. Williams again will be assisted by Signmund Harris, for ten years first assistant, and Fiezerfeld. Two coaches for the freshmen squad will be named when school opens. Boles Rosenthal is likely to be named for one of the positions. He coached last fall.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Chicago won both games of a double-header from St. Louis yesterday, 4 to 2 and 4 to 1, respectively. Larry Doyle, who made his local debut as a Cub, doubled in the third inning of the first game after Wortman and Flack had singled, and Chicago scored two runs. Ames' wildness, Beck's error, and a timely single by Wortman netted two more in the fourth. In the second game Doyle again gave the locals the lead, as a result of his timely hitting and daring base running. Steele pitched in fine form in the second game, striking out ten men, but the locals hit opportunely and took advantage of the loose fielding behind Steele.

Betzl turned his ankle during the first game and had to retire. Score: First game— R. H. E. St. Louis..... 2 9 2 Chicago..... 4 8 2 Ames, Currie and Gonzales; Lavender, Packard and Archer.

Second game— R. H. E. St. Louis..... 1 5 2 Chicago..... 4 8 2 Steele and Gonzales; Vaughn and Wilson.

Cincinnati, Sept. 4.—In a ragged game, where errors counted for many runs, Cincinnati defeated Pittsburgh here yesterday, 7 to 4. Of the thirteen runs made only four were earned. Mammaux and Mitchell were both hit hard and each gave several bases on balls. Score: R. H. E. Pittsburgh..... 6 9 4 Cincinnati..... 7 11 2 Mammaux and Schmidt; Mitchell and Wingo.

LEAGUE RACES JUST AS HOT AS END NEARS

Both Major Leaders Had Lead Reduced During the Past Week.

Margin in American Between First Six Also Cut Down Again.

New York, Sept. 4.—The beginning of the last full month of the 1916 baseball season has drawn to a close in the intensity of the races in the National and American leagues. In fact, last week brought the leading teams in the two major organizations closer together.

Boston leads the American and Brooklyn the National, but both of their leads were reduced during the week. Returning from a rather poor trip through the west, Brooklyn met Philadelphia in two games in Philadelphia Friday and was shut out in both, and lost again on Saturday. Philadelphia won five and lost one for the week. Two of the victories were credited to Alexander, who on Friday established a new major league record of fourteen shut-outs for one season. After losing to Chicago on Sunday Boston won four out of seven games in four days from Pittsburgh, but lost one and tied one on Saturday.

The closing inter-sectional games of the National in the west had these results: West 7, East 11. Lead is Reduced. Boston, which had doubled its lead in the previous week, had its lead over Detroit reduced by half during the week. Including Saturday, the Red Sox had lost six of their last eight games. Facing St. Louis at the beginning of the week, the Red Sox lost three of the series of four games, and St. Louis moved from sixth to fourth place. Detroit, playing New York, took three out of four from the Yankees during the week, but Chicago took the week at the Polo grounds, and lost the first game. The Red Sox on Saturday, however, defeated the Yankees.

The margin between the first six teams in the American was reduced from 55 to 48 points. Boston and Detroit did not change their relative positions during the week, but Chicago, St. Louis and Cleveland moved ahead at the expense of New York. Boston led the services of Captain Jack Barry during the week as the result of injuries. Inter-sectional results in the American were: West 7, East 10.

AMERICAN ASS'N.

Louisville, Sept. 4.—Errors were responsible for two Toledo victories over Louisville yesterday, 9 to 7 and 2 to 1. After Hillings' home run into the left field bleachers in the sporting world, the remaining hours at his favorite game of pinocchio. Both are supremely confident. Each declares his condition is impossible of betterment. Two preliminary hits and the taking of moving pictures of the crowd, the officials and the fighters, together with the usual introduction of prominent persons in the sporting world, are to fill in the time from 10 o'clock until the gong sounds, sometime after 3 o'clock.

Paul Attorney M. M. Purcell has announced that if any signs of operating were brought to his attention he would take steps to stop the contest. Thousands of dollars, however, are being placed privately on the chances of the two boxers. Even money is the rule.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Dutch Leonard, Boston American, leads the pitchers for the week with a no-hit, no-run game over St. Louis on Wednesday. Myers, Philadelphia American, pitched a two-hit game against Washington; Benz, Chicago American, and Lavender, Chicago National, turned in three-hit games.

For the moment the National league race has superseded the American in interest. Brooklyn, the league leader since early in May, is threatened more than at any time since it was bid the lead by Chicago, and appears to have lost the ability to win steadily which characterized their earlier play and as a result Boston and Philadelphia have crept so close they are in a position to go ahead of Brooklyn at the least turn in the leader's fortunes. Philadelphia played the better ball than Brooklyn, but during the week and cut down the advantage held by the Braves and Superbas. Boston played slightly better ball than Brooklyn, but the Brooklyn lead of nine points on Sunday had been reduced to seven points at the end of the week.

AMERICAN ASS'N.

The loss of six straight games by Kansas City as a feature of the American association race last week while Louisville, taking a brief series from Indianapolis, gained first place. The first game of the series was a defeat for Kalkenberg who previously had pitched the Hoosiers to victory in seven straight contests. Indianapolis regained the lead on Wednesday, Dawson outpitching Middleton in a close contest, but lost it again as a result of Northrop's good pitching. Five straight wins over Kansas City and another over St. Paul resulted in Minneapolis entrenching itself in fourth place.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Detroit, Sept. 4.—Batting savagely and taking advantage of Cleveland's misplays, Detroit defeated the Indians 5 to 3 yesterday. Prospects for a batting duel between Cobb and Speaker attracted a capacity crowd. Speaker drove out two doubles but Cobb, who was at bat four times, got three clean singles and a whistling two-bagger. With the score tied 2 out in the sixth inning, O'Neil dropped Young's third strike and Young reached first. Stanage followed with a double which

Final Round for Lovejoy Cup to be Played this Afternoon.

Vice President's Cup Play Wednesday and End of the Week.

The tournament play of the Grand Forks Golf club will come to a close this week with three days of activities. Today will see the final round for the Lovejoy cup played. This is a handicap event contested three times during the year. On Decoration day it was won by G. B. Gunlogson and by E. Lovejoy on the Fourth of July. The cup becomes the property of the player who wins it three times and as Jay Stevens has two on it he will make a big effort to capture it today.

On Wednesday the last round in the ladies' handicap event for the vice president's prize will be staged and Saturday the play in the men's handicap for the vice president's prize ends. Both of these winners are chosen by no aggregate for the year. Eddie McElligott, club professional, will spend two more weeks with the local players before he leaves to finish the season in Fargo. He will return to Thomasville, Georgia, to spend the winter on the links there, where he came to this place from.

CHAMPION AND WHITE READY

Two Lightweights Clash for Title at Colorado Springs Today.

Colorado Springs, Col., Sept. 4.—The sole topic of conversation here today is the big fight. The city is in a fever of excitement and the chances of Charlie White wrestling the lightweight title from Champion Freddie Welsh in the twenty-round bout is uppermost in nearly every mind. Hundreds of maids and matrons from Denver's select Capitol Hill district, Chicago's fashionable section and the social centers of other cities are expected to be at the ringside when the gong sends the men on their way.

It is only in the camps of the two rival gladiators that the night subject is taboo. The champion spends his time reading or playing with his baby daughter, while White writes away the remaining hours at his favorite game of pinocchio. Both are supremely confident. Each declares his condition is impossible of betterment. Two preliminary hits and the taking of moving pictures of the crowd, the officials and the fighters, together with the usual introduction of prominent persons in the sporting world, are to fill in the time from 10 o'clock until the gong sounds, sometime after 3 o'clock.

CANDY KID IS CHAMPION CHICKEN DOG OF ALL THE AMERICAN FIELD TRIALS

(Herald Special Service.) Denbigh, N. D., Sept. 4.—Candy Kid, a setter, owned by A. C. Durfield of Tulsa, Okla., and handled by Harris, won the All-American chicken dog championship run off this morning. The Muncy was runner up. The dogs were so evenly matched that the judges were almost helpless in deciding the winner. They were run for two hours and forty minutes and both were so tired when taken up that their handlers had difficulty in keeping them out. Neither would give up, however, and the judges in making their decision explained that they gave the race to Candy Kid on superior bird work and that there was absolutely no choice in the dogs as to speed and endurance. On range, however, Joe had a slight advantage.

This closed the All-American trials and on Tuesday next week the Continental Field Trials club will hold their trials out of Towson, N. D. Most of the dogs and handlers will attend these trials.
