THE PLOW.
 An Egypt behind my oxen,
 With their stately step and slow,
 To the desert sand and the snow;
 I went thru the centuries, one by one, Turning the clod to the shower,
 All there's never a land beneath the sun But has blossomed behind the power.

slid thru the sodden rice-fields With my grunting, humpbacked steers;
 I turned the turf of the Tiber plain In Rome's imperial wars;
 I was left in the half-drawn furrow When Cincinnatus came, Giving his farm for the Forum's stir To save his nation's name.

Over the seas to the north I went—White cliffs and a seaboard blue;
 And by path was glad in the English grass,
 As my stout, red Devons drew;
 My path was glad in the English
 grass,
 For behind me rippled and curled The corn that was life to the sailor-men
 That sailed the ships of the world.

Then the new lands called me westward;
 I found on the prairies wide
 A toll to my stoutest daring,
 And a foe to test my pride;
 But I stooped my strength to the stiff, black loam,
 And I found my labor sweet As I loosened the soil that was trampled
 By a million buffaloes' feet.

From Egypt behind my oxen,
 With their stately step and slow,
 I have carried your weightiest burdens,
 Ye toilers that reap and sow, I am the ruler—the king—
 And I hold the world in fee; Sword upon sword may ring, But the triumph shall rest with me.
 —Will H. Ogilvie in Farm, Stock and Home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Panovitz and daughter, Jean, and Mr. and John Vold and children, Howard and Genevieve, who have spent the past two weeks touring Minnesota by auto, returned to the city last evening. Enroute to Minneapolis, the party was forced to spend a few days at Fergus Falls, Minn., on account of the bad weather and the rough roads, but on the homeward trip the roads were in good condition. Mr. and Mrs. Vold and children spent a week in Minnesota as guests of Mr. Vold's people, while Mr. and Mrs. Panovitz and daughter enjoyed a trip to Itasca park, where they spent a few days as guests at Douglas Lodge. They also visited at Parkville, Minn., as guests

WOMEN IN FIGHT TO DEFEAT WILSON; RAISING $1,000 A DAY FOR CAMPAIGN

Left to right, top: Miss Helen Todd and Miss Maud Younger. Bottom: Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Mrs. Inez Millholland Boesevian.

Washington, Sept. 4.—One thousand dollars a day from now until election day is all that Miss Alice Paul of the Congressional Union asks of suffragists. A few days ago Mrs. O.
 H. P. Belmont of New York sent a check for that amount to Miss Paul to help out the campaign to raise $500,000 for the purpose of defeating the Democratic party. The day following a second $1,000 check reached Miss Paul, this time from Mrs. H. O.
 Havemeyer.

"I have come to the belief, from my campaigning in New York and in Connecticut, that the only way we can help out the campaign is by a federal amendment," said Mrs. Havemeyer.
 "I am going to Illinois the latter part of this month and devote all my time in talking to the 2,000,000 women voters there and urging them to use this, their first presidential vote, to put the Democrats out of office." The $500,000 which the Union is trying to collect will be used in sending organizers and speakers to a dozen suffrage states. Twelve speakers will begin their tours about the first of October and continue for a month. A spectacular wind-up is being planned by the women.

The speakers are Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Miss Rose Winslow, Mrs. Havemeyer, Mrs. Belmont, Mrs.
 William Kent, Miss Gail Laughlin, Mrs. Ida Pinney Mackrille, Mrs. Sara Bard Field, Mrs. Inez Millholland Boesevian, Miss Anne Martin, Miss Helen Todd and Miss Maud Younger.
 The billboards which will be used in the campaign to beat Mr. Wilson will have bright yellow backgrounds with snappy suffrage sentiments printed in white. They will measure twenty-four by ten feet.

Miss Laura Fosmark, Cheyenne avenue, returned Sunday evening from Devils Lake, where she has been the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Thomas.

The first of a series of social evenings to be given by the different sections of the St. Paul Guild, will be a silver tea, at the home of Mrs. C. M.
 Burgess, 1115 Belmont avenue, at 5 o'clock, tomorrow afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. C. M. Burgess, Mrs.
 Charles Bell, Mrs. Theodore K. Ahlroth and Mrs. W. H. Alexander. The proceeds will go into the society treasury.

Fur-Trimmed Wraps.
 For midsummer evenings are wraps of lace trimmed with fur. They trifles these, of a surety, but things of fascination for all that. They do not give a great deal of warmth, to be sure, but who desires warmth on an August evening? What they do add to a thin summer frock is a matchless suggestion of elegance and formality — the frock showing through at every point so that none of its prettiness is lost.
 One of these wraps is of black imitation chantilly in loose coat effect with bell sleeves edged like the foot of the wrap with a tiny band of skunk fur.
 A featherbone hoop runs under the fur all around the foot of the wrap so that its fur and lace edge swings out gracefully at every step. The collar is of fur and may be worn open or closed. A similar model in white lace has beaver fur trimming.
