WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 13.

DEMOCRATS AND THE TARIFF BOARD.

It would be difficult to find a greater evidence of inconsistency than is given in the Democratic attitude, first, in declaring that the imposition of duties is permissible only for the purpose of raising revenue, and second, in its support of the movement for the creation of a tariff board.

TOO MANY ELECTIVE OFFICERS.

It requires no great political insight to discover that the affairs of both the major political parties in North Dakota are in a glorious middle.

Saving the Men.

Mr. Stebbins (reading)—Statistics go to show that the male population of the world is fast falling off.

Strangers All Round.

Edward had developed an interest in family trees.

Herald Want Ads Bring Results.

Mr. Stebbins—Good, gradual isn't there some way of trying them on?

SEPTEMBER 17 AND 18—WATCH FOR IT

BRITAIN NOW HAS HER OWN ZEPPELINS

To Be Used as Eyes of the Fleet and Not to Fight Her German Cousins. London, Sept. 13.—Recently a sufficiently guarded description revealed the fact that Britain possessed a new class of airship comparable to some extent with the German Zeppelin.

London Times Man Says People Are on Verge of Dangerous Passion.

London, Sept. 13.—Ireland is now peaceful and quiet under a firm but extraordinarily temperate system of martial law, though there is widespread and acute political unrest.

Market Ruled Within Narrow Limits Throughout the Session.

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 13.—Wheat market has ruled within comparatively narrow limits today.

Wheat Prices Close Higher.

South St. Paul, Sept. 13.—First two days this week have drawn out a run of cattle of more than 150,000 head or over three times as large.

Weakness Again Features Trade.

South St. Paul, Sept. 13.—Receipts in the sheep and lamb division here yesterday looked good to dealers when they scanned the report board in the exchange but the outlook appeared different when they learned that seven double decks of Montana stuff were billed through to an eastern market.

Sheep and Lamb Prices Steady.

South St. Paul, Sept. 13.—Receipts in the sheep and lamb division here yesterday looked good to dealers when they scanned the report board in the exchange but the outlook appeared different when they learned that seven double decks of Montana stuff were billed through to an eastern market.

Firm Release for Most Hogs.

South St. Paul, Sept. 13.—Trading in the hog division was carried on with alacrity yesterday, buyers and sellers alike trotting the transactions along at a lively rate to clean up.
