CONTENDERS FOR WORLD'S BASEBALL HONORS MEETING TODAY IN SECOND CLASH OF SERIES; WITH GAME TO GOOD RED SOX ARE CONFIDENT

Dodgers Not at all Dismayed With Losing Opening Contest.

Boston, Oct. 9.—With a day of rest at their backs, Boston Americans and the Brooklyn Nationals renewed their battle for the world's championship honors here today meeting in the second game of the series. Every player was reported on edge by their respective managers and eager to renew the conflict which means so much to them in the way of baseball fame and financial reward.

The local American league champions, winners of the initial contest by a score of 5 to 5 are naturally convinced that the advantage of a one-game victory in such a short series really simplifies the capturing of the title. Brooklyn, not daunted by the defeat of Saturday is preparing to reverse the decision in today's game and thus return to their home park on even terms with the Boston club.

The chief topic of conversation and argument was based upon the choice of pitchers for today's game. It was the consensus of opinion that Carrigan would send either Ruth or Leonard to the mound for Boston while Robinson would counter with either Coombs or Pfeffer. In either case Boston will have a left hander in the box against the Brooklyn right hander. Since Brooklyn played its best left handed twirler when Marquard was worked Saturday.

Crowd Smaller.
The gathering of spectators for today's game will be watched with more than ordinary interest since there is a wide difference of opinion among baseball magnates as to the reason for the falling off in attendance at Saturday's contest as compared with the games played here a year ago, there being six thousand less than the opening game here last fall and five thousand less than the second contest.

Two explanations are offered to cover this situation. One is that many fans made no attempt to attend, upon the supposition that there would be no chance of getting inside the park owing to the huge crowds the game would attract.

Another puzzling feature was the rather apathetic bearing of the thousands who were present, considered in the light of the importance of the game. One manager advanced the opinion that this was not due to any lack of interest in the game but came about as the result of the composition of the crowd. He said: "It was a five dollar crowd" and by that I mean it was composed of a great extent of persons who are accustomed to attending the theater, opera and like amusements and who express their approval or interest in a rather mild manner from the baseball standpoint. Many, too, were not the close followers of the game and the play in its intricate places went over their heads. If the highest priced seats sold for fifty or seventy-five cents you would have seen the real baseball fan in all his enthusiasm. Saturday he was so much in the minority that his rooting was lost."

The Brooklyn team not a whit depressed by its defeat believes to a man that once the "breaks" favor them they will be victorious. The Brooklyn players agree with their manager that it was Harry Hooper, Boston right fielder, who broke the budding offensive of the Brooklyn in the fourth inning when he made a marvelous catch of Custer's soaring safe hit and then, after half falling to the ground, recovered himself and by a fast line throw got Wheat at the plate.

Are Undaunted.
The Brooklyn players do not think the Boston system of a run at a time will prevail against their heavy attack and what has imbued them with confidence of victory is the pitching of Ernest Shore. Manager Robinson says that all his players remarked that Shore did not have much on the ball except a bit of a fade-away, which seemed to puzzle "Jake" Daubert more than any one else.

The Boston players, of course, were elated over their victory. They expected to win the first game and also the series, they said, but looked for a hard battle. It was reported in fandom that Pitcher Shore, having what appeared to be a safe lead, let down in the ninth inning yesterday confident that his teammates would hold the Brooklyn in check. An analysis of the game, however, does not bear this out. Shore pitched his hardest in the ninth inning, Boston players said, but the breaks went against him.

North Dakota Goes Through the St. Thomas Game Without Injury--High School to Meet Fargo Next

Captain Fingarson Plays Great Defensive Game Against Cadets—Line Will Have to be Given a Brace Before Minnesota Game Next Saturday.

The victorious North Dakota football team returned from Minneapolis Sunday afternoon after defeating St. Thomas Saturday afternoon 16 to 7 in the second game of the season. The Flickertails went through the contest without a single injury and every man will be on the field this afternoon to take part in the first practice in preparation for the Minnesota game next Saturday afternoon at Minneapolis.

As had been anticipated, it was the line that gave trouble in the St. Thomas contest. The guards and right side on the defense bothered badly and there will have to be a brace taken before the Gopher game or the big Minnesota team will not have much trouble in scoring. It was through the line and off tackle that St. Thomas rushed for the first touchdown before they could be stopped Saturday.

Fingarson Plays Well.
Captain Fingarson, backing up the line on defense, played a great contest, getting by far the larger part of the tackles as the cadets came tearing through. Johnson and Boyce stopped up the left side pretty tightly, the former playing magnificent football.

The back field worked well. McCarthy, who scored both touchdowns in his first big game used good judgment in selecting his plays and also did his share in advancing the ball. Douglas McKay who is playing his first season at fullback, is going to play his greatest football in that position, while his brother, Cameron, who was put into the back field, shows more promise than ever.

Gill was forced to make many changes in the line during the contest. He took Hilmanson and Koucky out early and put Porter and Eillingson in at guards, tried Hanson out at tackle in the place of Mann on the defense and then put Mann back and Hanson at guard. Campbell Berlin were also tried at different times.

Fargo Plays High School.
Fargo will be the next opponent of the Grand Forks high school and the contest will be played here at Dakota park. This is always the big game of the season and it looks as though the contest would be more of a battle this year than it has been for a good many seasons.

Fargo has played two games and won one of them. The southerners were defeated by Wahpeton 2 to 0 and won from Casselton last Saturday 7 to 0.

Look Pretty Even.
Besides losing to its alumni 13 to 0 Grand Forks high has defeated Crookston twice, Saturday 48 to 0. The teams look to be pretty well matched from this distance and it would appear that Fargo has a chance to get away with its first game in a gridiron contest with Grand Forks in several years.

O'Keefe is not a bit enthusiastic over the way his team played in the return game against Crookston. Although the Minnesotans had bolstered up the line some, the back field was far weaker than it was when it played here. Denham was put out of play with an injury after but a few minutes and Marchand did not play at all, having broken an ankle in the Red Lake Falls game the week before.

The largest tabernacle ever built for Billy Sunday revival meetings is now in progress of construction in Boston. It is 305 feet long and 215 feet wide, and will seat 18,000 people. It is considerably larger than the large one that was built in Philadelphia.

It takes at least two years for any unprepared nation to prepare for war, and naval preparation requires a much longer period of time. A sea-time prepared foe might stop the preparation.

ONE UPSET OF THE DOPE IN MIDDLE WEST

Gloom Thick at Chicago over Defeat by Carleton College.

Minnesota and Illinois Victories Make Them Look Dangerous.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Carleton's defeat of Chicago, practically the only upset in middle western football Saturday, was a feature that not only surprised Maroon rooters but discouraged many of the fans who expected to see Coach Stagg deliver a championship.

Of course it is still possible for Chicago to take the conference title, but it is recalled that few teams have beaten the Maroons in early season games.

The Chicago game was a grievous disappointment to the Midwesterns because it seemed to belie predictions that the Maroon line would be much stronger than last year's and because the fast backfield, of which much was expected, failed to live up to advance notices.

Critics here charge the Carleton score directly to a poor kick by Frank Pershing, who was to fill Pete Russell's shoes, but do not attempt to detract from the credit due the Minnesota players for their game battle.

Gloom Thickens.
In the face of the Maroon defeat, the one sided victory scored by the Gophers over South Dakota State and Illinois' unexpectedly easy win over Kansas tend to make the gloom here thicker. Reports from Minneapolis are that while Coach Williams' team showed a lack of co-ordination, the individual play bordered on the brilliant and that his stars, "Shorty" Long and "Pudge" Wyman especially, upheld the reputation of the Gophers. Minnesota's line did all that was expected of it.

For Illinois, MacComber tried out successfully his forward pass and it was a leading factor in the Illinois scoring. Kansas made a hard fight, but reports from Urbana are that the Jayhawkers were hopelessly outclassed.

No False Hopes.
Wisconsin's failure to pile up a big score against Lawrence will not raise false hopes among the Badger rivals, since it is realized a week or two of training will conquer faults in the team and that the Appleton eleven was a strong aggregation. Iowa has an easy time with Cornell college as expected, developing a new star in Mendenhall, Northwestern, mainly through the work of Kohler and Davis, triumphed over Lake Forest despite the gallant efforts of Quarterback Markley.

Purdue won from DePauw by a slender margin, tumbling being the cause of the bollermakers failure to count oftener, according to critics. Ohio State was given a stiff battle by Wesleyan, but managed to win.

Case a Tattler.
Case proved a tatter for Michigan but the assurance that Johnny Maulbetich is to be a factor as a field goal kicker offset somewhat Wolverine disappointment because the score was a large Notre Dame again came into prominence as a scoring machine, running up 48 points against Reserve. The Michigan Aggies found Carroll a harder opponent than expected.

The class of far western football was again shown in Montana's 11-0 defeat of South Dakota, long recognized as a dangerous team.

Yonkers, N. Y., Oct. 9.—John Reid, said to have been the father of golf in America, died at his home here at the age of 74 years. He was a native of Dunfermline, Scotland, the birthplace of Andrew Carnegie, who was his close friend.

Mr. Reid came to America in 1865. He was founder and past president of St. Andrew's Golf society at Mount Hope, of which Mr. Carnegie is a member. He also was past president of the United States Golf association.

GREAT RACING AT LEXINGTON

Many Records Broken During First Week—More Expected This Week.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—Many world's records and also several track records were broken during the first week of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association meeting here.

Lee Axworthy driven by Dan White lowered his own world record for stallions to 1:58 1-4 here October 7, coming within one-quarter second of the world record for geldings made here in 1912 by Ulian. Lee Axworthy on October 4, in attempting to break the track record for trotting stallions of 2:02 made by Peter Vale last year, lowered his own record then to 1:59 1-2.

The Real Lady, driven by Tommy Murphy established a new world's record of 2:04 1-4 for two-year-old trotters regardless of sex when she won the $5,000 Breeders Sweepstakes last Saturday. The filly had on October 3 won the two-year-old division of the Kentucky futurity, trotting the first heat in 2:07 1-2, lowering the former mark of 2:07 3-4 for two-year-old fillies and then lowered that mark in the second heat by trotting it in 2:07.

Vero, the daughter of Peter the Great, and Vervolo Belle lowered the three-year-old filly record here on October 3, when she trotted the third heat of the Kentucky futurity for three-year-olds in 2:04 1-2.

She trotted the heats in 2:06 1-2, 2:07 and 2:04 1-2, also establishing a new record for three heats for three-year-old fillies.

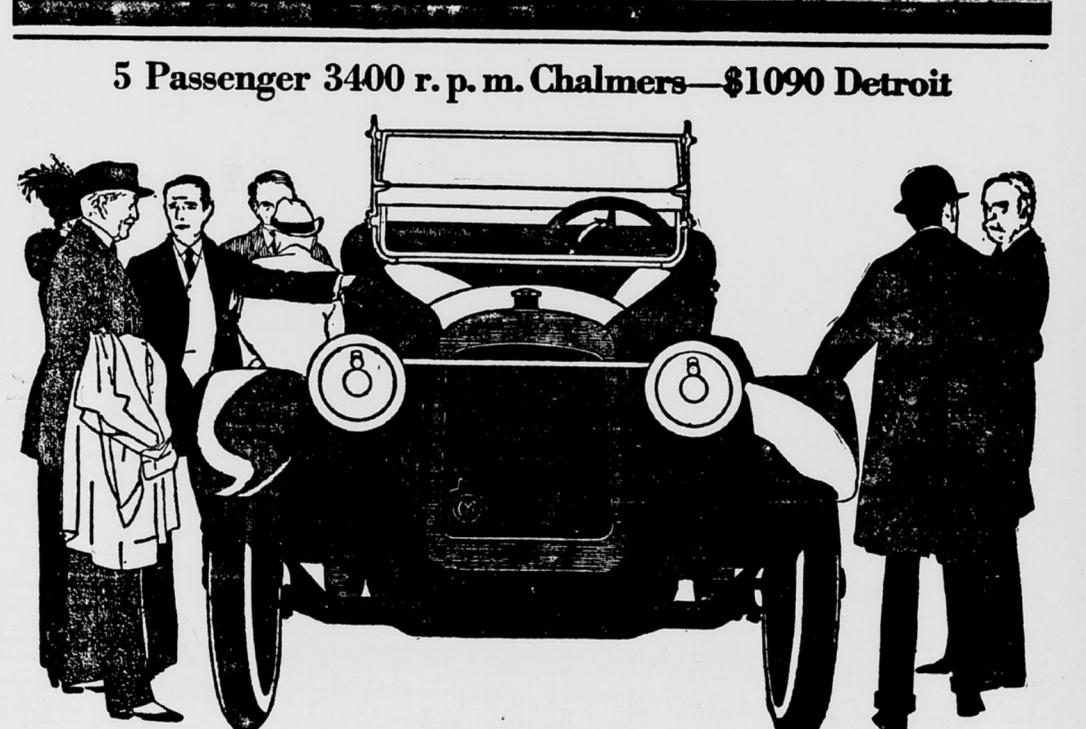

Still more sensational marks are expected during the coming week as there are going to be races on the card which should bring some of the best horses at the track together.

CITIZENSHIP IS CHEAPENED.

(From Leslie's.)
Cheap! Complaint is heard about the apathy of the people regarding the outcome of the presidential contest. We have cheapened citizenship in this country until many voters have been led to neglect the greatest duty that devolves upon them and the greatest right they enjoy, namely the duty to vote and the right of citizenship. We have cheapened the suffrage until the ignorant regard it as a matter of merchandise. The party leaders have an obvious duty to perform. There is plenty of work for them to do and they are not doing it.

QUALITY That is the Real Secret of the 3400 r.p.m. Chalmers Popularity

Whenever you see the Chalmers trade mark you always see the phrase "Quality First." Whenever you think Chalmers you think "Quality." And if you have been reading my ads or have been in my salesroom, you are impressed with the fact that the 3400 r. p. m. is a Chalmers car of unusual quality. I've often said that it is, in my opinion, the greatest car the Chalmers Company has built. And I have an excellent reason for saying this. It is a step ahead of any preceding Chalmers because it performs a shade better. The Quality in the new Chalmers is the kind of quality that tells on the road and tells wonderfully. Now it is just this exceptional quality, just this shade of improvement that has brought Chalmers sales and production ahead in leaps these 12 months past. I don't think the men in charge of affairs at the Chalmers factory realized what they had in the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers. At any rate they underestimated the demand. They built more than they had ever produced in any previous season, 'tis true, but still not enough.

The first making order was snapped up quickly. Then came a second lot. These went just as fast. Now the factory is building the third lot and I understand that Chalmers has no intention of stopping even there. Quality it was that caused this unprecedented demand. Chalmers certainly have the right idea in building cars. "Quality First."
