"ABSURD TO THINK IT'S POLITICS ONLY" Administration Hastens to Say They Have No Clue Leading to Americans.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The war and state departments officials today to disclose the source or specific nature of the information on which Secretary Baker last night issued a statement charging that a bandit attack on American border towns had been planned to discredit President Wilson's Mexican policy.

Both Baker and Lansing laid stress today upon the statement that no consideration of domestic politics led to the issuance of the announcement that such a plot had been discovered.

"The obviously appropriate comment of the secretary of state," said Secretary Baker, "referring to the explanation of Lansing last night that no American was implicated and that the desire to prevent the carrying out of the plan from the border."

It is without political purpose and ought to be without political effect. It will have served its purpose if it serves a notice upon the lawless people in Mexico that we have been warned and are prepared.

Both Baker and Lansing laid stress today upon the statement that no consideration of domestic politics led to the issuance of the announcement that such a plot had been discovered.
