PARADES, MUSIC AND NOISE PRECEDE GAME WITH COYOTES TODAY

IDEAL WEATHER AND BIG CROWD FOR THE BATTLE

South Dakota Team Arrived Last Night in Special Car on G. N.

Neither Coach Able to Give Out a Lineup Before the Game.

The supporters of the North Dakota football team will have shown more than the usual amount of enthusiasm whether or not their team wins this afternoon in the annual game with South Dakota.

The weather promised to be ideal. There was just enough chill in the air to keep things lively and the sun shone for the first time in several days.

The South Dakota team arrived last night on No. 1 in a special car. Twenty men were in the squad and they spent the night in their berths.

Six Games in the South Will Have a Bearing on the Title

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 28.—Southern football teams today will play six games which will have direct bearing on the championship of the south and of the southern intercollegiate athletic association.

GOOD BILL IN VALLEY LEAGUE

Missouri Conference Teams All Have Hard Games on Hand.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 28.—Football games scheduled for the foot-ball of the Missouri valley conference today present what might be termed a well balanced bill.

Nebraska, Ames and Washington have games that should prove to be only of practice caliber.

Missouri, although its rather weak backfield has been further weakened by the recent injury to Collins, has a greater spirit instilled in the student body as well as the team.

Chicago May Lose Headquarters of The Association

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 28.—The report persists here that Chicago will lose the headquarters of the American association this winter and that Louisville, winner of the 1916 pennant race, will become the home of the executive offices.

Badger Captain is Playing Fast Game

Paul Meyer.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 28.—In spite of a tendency to injure Paul Meyer, the Wisconsin university end, is one of the most valuable and speedy players in the conference.

The Harvard tactics Coach Paul Withington has brought to Wisconsin this season seem to have had their success as the team shows considerable improvement in each new appearance.

Students and alumni are shouting for more aggression on the offense and for better defensive playing. It is complained on several sides that the team shows a lack of fighting spirit.

St. John's lost the title to the Minnesota school last year by a 15 to 7 score. The date for the game will be made a homecoming for graduates and all former students of St. John's.
