

JOS. DONOVAN PASSES AWAY

Chairman of County Board and Pioneer Resident Dies at Battle Creek.

Joseph Donovan, 47, chairman of the Grand Forks county board of commissioners and a resident of this section of the state for the past 29 years, succumbed to heart trouble at Battle Creek, Mich., early yesterday afternoon.

Coming to North Dakota in 1887, Mr. Donovan settled on a farm near Thompson and in 1901 moved to that city to enter the employ of the T. J. Smith Implement company. In 1903 he formed a partnership with H. P. Smith and purchased the concern, and since that time has been actively connected with the Donovan-Smith Implement company.

For the past eight years he has been a member of the county board of commissioners. His active interest in public affairs made him an invaluable man for public service and he was repeatedly returned to office.

For the past few months he has been ill from an abnormal pressure of blood on his heart, and the trip to Battle Creek, Mich., was made to obtain treatments. On Tuesday, Joseph Ingram, his nephew, visited with him in the Michigan city and at that time he appeared to be improving rapidly.

The report of his death came as a great surprise to his many friends and relatives.

Funeral Sunday.

The body will be brought to Thompson at once by his son, Phonsie, who is employed in a Detroit, Mich., automobile factory. The remains will be taken to Thompson where the service will be held from the Catholic church, at 2 o'clock Sunday. Interment will be made in the Thompson cemetery.

Deceased is survived by his wife, four daughters and two sons. He was a member of the Grand Forks Knights of Columbus and it is expected that a large number of members of that order will attend the funeral service.

Members of the G. A. R. will act as honorary pallbearers. Rev. W. H. Matthews of the First Presbyterian church will officiate. Mr. Matthews at present is in Chicago, but is expected to arrive tonight.

Of course it is true enough that the "war bride" industries may be seen in divorce proceedings after peace comes.

In addition to the above, the Santa Claus Girls beg to acknowledge the receipt of a contribution of $25 worth of clothing for girls from the Ontario store, through R. B. Griffith.

Twenty automobiles will be required to carry the Santa Claus Girls and their assistants with the loads of good cheer. The city is being distracted so that each auto will have but a small territory to travel over and the entire work of distribution will be taken care of within an hour after the cars leave The Herald office on Christmas eve. Each owner of an automobile limousine or enclosed car is urged to place his machine at the disposal of the Santa Claus Girls, each with a careful driver, from 4 to 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. This will be the most convenient hour and will permit of all the work being done without interfering with the Christmas eve plans of those participating in the pleasant task.

Meanwhile, although the contributions have been pouring in at a satisfactory rate, the total is still short of the amount required to cover all the expenditures. The Santa Claus Girls have implicit faith in the intentions of the lovers of childhood and are continuing their purchasing in a careful and painstaking manner, aiming to secure the articles that will be the most suitable for the individuals they are to go to.

PIPES FROZEN, STOVE EXPLODES

Stove Was Demolished and Kitchen Woodwork Burned.

The explosion of a kitchen range at the home of C. W. Provins, 512 Sixth avenue, created paroxysm in the family and resulted in a hurry-up run of the fire department when the hot coals set fire to the kitchen woodwork shortly after 8 o'clock this morning. Sudden heating of frozen waterpipes in the range is said to have been the cause. The fire was extinguished before the arrival of the department when neighbors seized coal pans and other utensils and filled them with water which was thrown over the kitchen floor.

Broken pieces of the stove were thrown with violence all about the room, damaging much of the kitchen equipment and forcing the plastering from the walls. No one was in the room at the time. Mrs. Provins, who was in another room, was just about to enter the room when the explosion occurred.

CANDLES IN WINDOWS

Knights Templar and Masons in Gen- eral to Observe Christmas Eve Custom.

Christmas observances are general among the Knights Templar and the Masonic fraternity in general. The six knights of St. Aldemar commandery are particularly anxious that every member of their craft in Grand Forks, and the entire state as well, take cognizance of the custom of placing a lighted candle in the front window of their homes on Christmas eve.

It was the knightly crusaders centuries ago who fought some of the greatest battles of the early Christian era to protect the birthplace of the Christ child and to today their strongest sentiments are toward the Christmas season which signifies the return of the anniversary of the coming of the home on Christmas eve above all else.

On Christmas eve, it is safe to say, the home of every knight in Grand Forks will radiate with the light from within and the burning candle in the window will symbolize the light that leads the world and shines forth for all men.

CUNNINGHAM HELD TO DISTRICT COURT

Unable to Furnish $1,000 Peace Bonds and Was Committed to the County Jail Till January.

A. D. Cunningham, the colored proprietor of a shoeing parlor at 309 Alpha avenue, was brought over to the district court by Police Magistrate Church yesterday afternoon on a charge of venue taken from Judge J. B. Purcell. Cunningham was arrested Tuesday evening on a warrant sworn out by Thomas Mason, colored, who charged that Cunningham threatened to kill Mason's wife when she rejected his advances.

Cunningham refused to take the stand in his own defense, Mr. and Mrs. Mason alone testifying. The prisoner was heavily fined by Judge Church, who directed that in default of bail he be committed to the county jail until district court sits in January, when his case will be tried.

Most of her spare time is spent in nursing the sick in the hospitals, directing relief work, and officiating at various charities for raising funds for the needy.

The dearest wish of the archduchess has been realized in her son's elevation to the Austrian throne. It has been reported that during the lifetime of the late Archduke Franz Ferdinand, who was assassinated at Sarajevo, she bitterly opposed his succession to the crown, as he was the only person standing between her son and the scepter.
