JOHNSON'S NOT WORRIED OVER MONEY

Ex-champion is Enjoying Life to the Full in Barcelona, Spain.

New York, July 14.—Jack Johnson, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, is not broke. He is not even bent. Lil Artha has plenty of gill and is enjoying life to the fullest extent in sunny Spain.

This information, which has reached this country after running the gauntlet of censors and submarines, is said to be authentic. Fat, the bugaboo of all pugilists, holds no terrors for the bulky negro, and war is to him only a subject of conversation. Money, the source of his anxiety to most pugilists in their after years, is the least of Johnson's worries, as he has plenty and is daily adding to his pile. Johnson's interests in Barcelona, where he is making his home, are of several different kinds. In the first place, he is a torador, working steadily three times a week and on holidays, and rapidly earning a place of endearment in the hearts of the tender Spaniards, who delight in seeing worn-out horses disemboweled by maddened bulls.

Recently Johnson has added another string to his bow by becoming an editor. He has purchased an interest in a periodical, the "Luz," a Spanish and devoted to socialism and sports—strange bed fellows, but forced into contiguity by the merging of two publications. Long articles in Spanish are printed in every issue over Johnson's flourishing signature; but he displays intense modesty in discussing these articles, due, according to some doubters, to the fact that he does not know what they contain.

Johnson says he is through with the prize ring; but in spite of this statement he trains daily, giving exhibitions twice a week, which are largely attended by wide-eyed, credulous Spaniards who believe that John Artha will soon go forth and wipe all of the heaviest of the pugilistic map. Johnson and his white wife live in a handsome house in the best and most exclusive part of Barcelona, and recently, when he was having his home redecorated, they lived for a month at the best hotel in Barcelona.

They are often there for dinner and Johnson is a familiar figure in the upper room, where tango is the sport until daybreak. He never attempts to dance and he limits his liquid refreshments to a few glasses of champagne.

"Back to America?" echoed Johnson, in answer to an inquiry. "Never for mine! I've done all the fighting I want to do, and I don't think I've done't appeal to me at all. Barcelona is good enough for me."

KARLSON PLANS TO RUN TO TOLEDO, O.

Minneapolis, Minn., July 14.—John K. Karlson of Minneapolis, ice speed skater, bicycle rider and marathon runner, may soon attempt to run from Minneapolis to Toledo, Ohio, a distance of over 700 miles. Karlson is an automobile salesman and is now leading the Minneapolis branch in a sales contest. He has set out by his firm. If he is successful, Karlson will run all the way from Minneapolis to Toledo to be present for the opening of the congress and he will make about 80 miles each day, or the whole distance of 700 miles in a little over a week.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Sat on Runner.

Chicago, July 14.—An unusual play in the seventh inning gave New York a victory over Chicago yesterday. After one out, Peckinpaugh singled and took second on a sacrifice. Pipp then singled to center and Peckinpaugh started home to Toledo. The throw to the plate was perfect and as Peckinpaugh slid, Schalk dropped upon him and also dropped the ball.

Schalk, while coming on the New Yorker, recovered the ball and touched Peckinpaugh out. Peckinpaugh was trapped a foot from the base but umpire Evans ruled him safe, claiming that Schalk held him while he was recovering the ball.

Caldwell was called out of the box in the first inning and Chicago scored four runs. Feltch's home run in the sixth inning was the only hit made off A. Russell. Score: R. H. E. New York . . . 010 001 300 01—5 14 3 Chicago . . . 400 001 000 00—5 8 3 Caldwell, Love, Cullop, A. Russell and Nunamaker; Williams, Faber and Schalk.

Cobb's Triple Wins.

Detroit, July 14.—James held Boston 1 hit yesterday and Detroit won the only hit made by the visitors was a single by Lewis in the seventh. Leonard also pitched fine baseball, but in the ninth Cobb hit the first ball pitched for three bases and scored on Hooper's wild throw. Score: R. H. E. Boston . . . 000 000 000—0 1 1 Detroit . . . 000 000 001—1 1 2 Leonard and Agnew; James and Stange.

Slater Bats Victory.

St. Louis, July 14.—Slater's hitting enabled St. Louis to win from Philadelphia yesterday. In the fourth Slater drove in Austin with a double and scored Sloan in the sixth with another two bagger. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . 000 000 010—1 6 4 St. Louis . . . 000 101 00x—2 7 1 Bush and Meyer, Schanz; Davenport and Severeid.

THREE MANAGERS IN FOUR DAYS

BY PAUL PURMAN.

Three managers in four days, that's an all-time baseball record. Presidents of baseball clubs are seldom credited with records in the dope books, but this record must be credited to Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In four days Dreyfuss had three managers in turn piloting his ball club. The first was Jim Callahan, who began the season with the Pirates, the second Honus Wagner, who threw up the job in two days and the third Hugo Bezdek, who deserves credit for his nerve if for nothing else.

Bezdek's appointment is more or less of an experiment. Practically unknown to the baseball world, it is a question whether the former Chicago athlete will be able to accomplish what a smart ballplayer like Callahan failed to achieve and the wily and ancient Honus did not care to attempt.

Callahan has been with the Pirates for a month and a half. His earlier activities have been generally limited to college athletics, football mainly. In fact he never played professional baseball. The only other managers who come to mind who have not been players are Bill Armour and Branch Rickey.

Football fans will remember Bezdek as the dazzling gridiron star of the Maroons in the early years of this century. His last game was the memorable 2 to 0 defeat of Michigan by Chicago in 1903.

He has since coached college teams, having been with the Oregon university coast champions last year.

Jim Callahan is a smart manager. His failure at Pittsburgh cannot be any more ascribed to his deficiencies than to the failure of Dreyfuss to spend money for good ballplayers instead of the bush leaguers he has been trying to keep in the race with.

Callahan has one great fault. He is inclined to be upstage and in this way falls to gain the confidence of his ballplayers.

This probably was the cause of his failure to win at Pittsburgh.

failure with the Chicago White Sox when he had unlimited money to spend and built up the wonderful pitching staff which included Eddie Cicotte, Mel Wolfgang, Red Faber, Red Russell and Jim Scott and which added Ray Schalk and Happy Felsch to the club.

Callahan tried hard at Pittsburgh. He had every possible expedient to get a winning club but he couldn't win with the misfits Dreyfuss wished on him.

Wagner's case is different. In the first place he didn't want to play ball this year. He has plenty of money and didn't care to take the trouble to get in shape. His decision to play was merely a concession to his friendship for Dreyfuss.

Wagner is popular in Pittsburgh. By becoming manager of a talent club he realized that he might forfeit his popularity, a sacrifice that even his friendship for Dreyfuss would not counterbalance.

Right now it looks as though Bezdek has a thankless job before him.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Dodgers Take Two.

Brooklyn, July 14.—Brooklyn beat Pittsburgh twice yesterday. The second game went 11 innings. Cheney's pitching, backed by fanless support, featured the opener. Steele pitched shutout ball until the ninth inning of the second game, when three visitors tied the score.

First Game—R. H. E. Pittsburgh . . . 000 000 000—0 5 1 Brooklyn . . . 008 000 10x—4 9 0 Jacobs and Fischer; Cheney and Miller.

Second Game—R. H. E. Pittsburgh . . . 000 010 000—1 7 2 Brooklyn . . . 000 000 001—2 6 1 Steele, Grimes and Fischer; Wagner; Smith and J. Meyers.

Reds Wallow Giants.

New York, July 14.—Zimmerman started the Giants off to a commanding lead when he hit a home run in the first inning, with two men on bases. Cincinnati rallied and drove Benton out of the box with three hits in the seventh. Holke made a double and three singles in four times at bat. Score: Cincinnati . . . 300 001 00x—4 11 0 New York . . . 000 010 101—2 6 2 Mitchell, Ring and Clarke; Benton, Tesreau and Rariden.

Cardinals Grab Game.

Boston, July 14.—St. Louis came from behind yesterday with 4 runs in the seventh, tied Boston in the eighth and won in the ninth. Each club used four pitchers. Reulbach had the victory and pitched until the seventh, when St. Louis made four runs. Baird's fielding and the batting of Paulette and Gonzales were features. Score: St. Louis . . . 000 100 411—7 11 2 Boston . . . 002 040 000—6 10 1 Horstman, May, Watson, Packard and Gonzales; Allen, Barnes, Ragan and Traggesser.

Split the Card.

Philadelphia, July 14.—Philadelphia and Chicago split even in two shutouts yesterday with 4 runs in the second game which went ten innings. Alexander and Douglas had a battle in the first event until the latter weakened in the eighth inning and was hit safely seven times for six runs, an effort was put out of the game for disputing a decision.

The second game neither Demaree nor Rixey showed any scoring until the tenth inning. First Game—R. H. E. Chicago . . . 000 000 000—0 7 3 Philadelphia . . . 000 001 00x—7 11 0 Douglas and Wilson; Alexander and Killifer.

Second Game—R. H. E. Chicago . . . 000 000 000—1 7 0 Philadelphia . . . 000 000 000—4 2 Demaree and Dilhoefer; Rixey and Killifer.

A RINGER FOR HUBBY

Bluemont, Utah.—Jake Dickson has had his wife arrested for disturbing the peace. When he came home drunk she padlocked a cowbell around his neck so that thereafter his perigrinations might be chronicled as he perigrinated. She threw the key in the well. He caught it, got the bell off and claims he's compelled to keep people awake nights by the bell, for the presence of which she is to blame, he says.

GOLFER SETS WORLD'S RECORD

Ned Sawyer Defeats Markwell of Yale in Brilliant Game.

Chicago, July 14.—A world's record extra-hole match was staged in the second match round of the Western amateur golf championship at Midlothian, Ned Sawyer of Bobolink club, Chicago, defeating Robert Markwell, Yale university star, on the forty-second hole after having been five down at the twenty-seventh hole. It took par golf for the veteran Sawyer to overtake his younger opponent, who was down three after thirty-three holes of splendid golf, but the strain finally told on the young collegian.

The other seven matches were not close and three were one-sided. Francis Quimet of Boston defeated J. T. Henry of Chicago, 4 and 2, in a rainy finish. The former national champion barley kept square on the first nine with a 37, one over par, but gained three holes on the second nine. Henry, a public links golfer, again held his own on the third nine, but slipped a hole on the lap, losing 4 down and 2 to go.

Kenneth Edwards eliminated Reuben Bush, the last Southern contender, 3 and 2, the latter never gaining a lead over the Midlothian player.

Jack May, Argentina champion, had no trouble in ousting E. Hoover Bankard of Chicago, 6 and 5, and Peter Burnett, his fellow Chicagoan, K. J. Pederson, 3 and 2.

In a runaway affair, Jesse P. Guilford, Massachusetts champion, defeated G. Decker French of Rock Island Arsenal, who said his heavy artillery was working poorly, 13 and 12, being 10 up at the end of the first round.

In another lopsided contest, Donald Edwards of Midlothian, medalist in the qualifying rounds, defeated, 10 and 8, the only British contestant, J. S. Worthington.

John G. Anderson of New York, hitting par golf on the second round, defeated Robert Bowker of Chicago, 3 and 7, after the public links expert had held the Eastern player even on the first eighteen holes.

VILLAGE WRECKED. Pittsburgh, Kan., July 13.—A tornado early tonight struck the village of Kirkwood, five miles southwest of here, wrecking several houses and injuring several of the inhabitants, according to first reports.

DRAYTON TEAM HAS VICTORY

Fast Cavalier Aggregation Defeated at Pembina Co. Fair in Hamilton.

Drayton, N. D., July 14.—Cavalier was defeated 5 to 1, by the Drayton aggregation at the Pembina County Fair, held in Hamilton, Thursday afternoon, for a good sized purse.

Norton and Kibler worked for Cavalier and Farnsworth and Crawford for Drayton. Farnsworth struck out 17 men and allowed 4 hits, while Norton struck out 5 men and allowed 7 hits. Drayton made 2 errors and Cavalier 4 errors. Tim McIlraith of Grand Forks umpired.

JURY WILL VISIT SCENE OF TRAGEDY

San Francisco, Cal., July 13.—The jury trying Mrs. Rena Mooney for murder, resulting from explosion of a bomb here last July, which claimed ten lives, will visit the scene of the tragedy tomorrow morning. Opposing counsel and Superior Judge Warren K. Billings, now under sentence of life imprisonment for one of the bomb murders, a short time before the explosion occurred.

Other important locations which have figured in the trial will be visited by the jury. Among these are Mrs. Mooney's apartment, the roof of the building in which she resided, and the roof of another building where witnesses said they saw Warren K. Billings, now under sentence of life imprisonment for one of the bomb murders, a short time before the explosion occurred.

RAILROADS TAKE NOTICE Chicago.—Police report a young woman who goes bathing early each morning at Wilson beach, garbed in nature's raiment. No policeman can be found who will arrest the young woman, so it is feared something will have to be done soon, however, or all the cops in town will be required to keep back the crowds.

OMTVEDT OUGHT TO BE USED TO FLYING AFTER SKI-JUMPING, BUT HOW ABOUT THE OTHERS?

Tennis players, football players, athletes of every description are enlisting in the aviation branch of the U. S. service, which experts declare will be the big factor in winning the war.

Ragnar Omtvedt, world champion ski jumper, should not feel so out of place in the air, as he frequently jumps from 150 to 175 feet on his Norwegian snowshoes, which must seem a whole lot like flying.

George Church, Princeton tennis star and Seth Low, captain of last year's Yale crew are among those who are learning how to fly at the Mineola aviation field.

Among other athletes at Mineola are Lieut. C. Meyer, captain of the 1917 Yale crew; Carroll Wetherby of the Lehigh football team two years ago; Reynolds Benson, baseball and basketball star at Columbia; George Dodge, Cornell athlete; E. W. Killfore, captain of the U. of P. football team; Bud Jacobs, Yale athlete and Dudley Norton, Yale hockey player.

Dodge is the youngest man in the flying corps. He is 18.

POOR WHEAT CROP IN SASKATCHEWAN

Winnipeg, July 13.—The grain trade received the shock of the season today when official report from the Saskatchewan department of agriculture declared that the wheat crop in the southwest portion of the province, along the United States border is almost a total failure and that in other parts a light crop is all that can be expected unless the most favorable weather is experienced from this time until harvest.

This news was the first intimation that Saskatchewan outlook was generally anything but very favorable.
