PHYSICAL TRAINING IS COMPULSORY

Kansas University Adopts Stringent Rules to Keep Students Fit.

Lawrence, Kansas, Nov. 3.—Every man and woman student of the University of Kansas now takes regular physical training five times a week and men students, fit for military service take military training. The university senate recently adopted the foregoing ruling and the university schedule has been set a half hour earlier to clear away all class and laboratory work by 4 p. m., when drill and exercise work for the whole university begins each day. The university whistle blows a rising alarm an hour earlier than at present and every student boarding house in Lawrence has been directed to have breakfast an hour earlier than has been customary for years.

The ruling to compel every student to take definite, supervised exercise an hour a day, five days a week, or regulation army work is the most sweeping order made at the University of Kansas in many years. It probably will change the whole trend of student life and of intercollegiate athletics. All students are undergoing examination by competent physicians and must take the exercise, prescribed, be that exercise military drill, football, handball, medicine ball, basketball, swimming, hockey, track, cross-country walks or hikes, light calisthenics, or any combination of the physical development specialists deem best for each individual case.

Until now only freshmen and sophomore students have been compelled to take physical development work. That is a usual custom among colleges. W. O. Hamilton, director of athletics at the university, pointed out that junior and senior students not infrequently break down from overwork, but that such breakdowns among freshmen and sophomores who are hard students rarely occur, because they are compelled to take exercise.

The compulsory physical training plan of the university calls for a regiment of three battalions, each battalion having three companies of eighty men each. Each battalion is commanded by a professor of German, will be colonel of the regiment and in command of the military work. So far as possible the majors, captains and adjutants will be taken from the faculty. No army rifles are available and the university school of engineering probably will manufacture dummy rifles, just as it did last spring when voluntary military training was put in force in the university. Mr. Briggs expects to be able to get olive drab uniforms of regulation pattern, but with cadet insignia on the colors.

Mr. Briggs was a major in the Harvard regiment last summer and was training under American army officers and French staff officers in the front. He also was a lieutenant in Company M, First Kansas Infantry, when that regiment was on the border in 1916.

HIGH SCHOOL FRESHMEN TEAM WILL PLAY THE SENIORS TODAY

Local football enthusiasts today will be given an opportunity to see a game of interschool football played between the freshmen and the seniors of the local high school. The game will be played at DuSable park, and will be called at 2:30 o'clock. What the freshmen lack in football experience will be made up by the preponderance of weight in the team. No army rifles are available and the university school of engineering probably will manufacture dummy rifles, just as it did last spring when voluntary military training was put in force in the university. Mr. Briggs expects to be able to get olive drab uniforms of regulation pattern, but with cadet insignia on the colors.

GREEN CHICAGO TEAM FACING ILLINOIS VETS

Defeat Means Elimination of One or the Other From Conference Race.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—When the University of Chicago and the University of Illinois football teams met on Stagg field today defeat by either contestant meant elimination from Big Ten title consideration.

Wide differing attacks were expected to be used by the two coaches. Snag and Zupke. Every game won by Chicago's green team this year has been a driving affair. Coach Zupke, with eight veteran Illinois players, has developed a dazzling aerial attack. The probable lineup: Illinois: Brels (Capt.), L. E.; Klein, Jackson, L. T.; Rundquist, Johnson, L. G.; Schuler (Capt.), Bondzinski, L. G.; Schuler (Capt.), Gorgas, C. C.; Ingwerson, Moulton, R. G.; Goeltz, Cochran, R. T.; Ems, Black, R. B.; Nichols, Rouse, L. H. B.; Sternaman, Elton, L. H. B.; McGregor, Higgins, P. B.; Larimer, Charrier.

OHIO THE FAVORITE BUT INDIANA EXPECTS TO SHOW UP WELL

Indianapolis, Nov. 3.—Betting on today's football game favors the Ohio state university team, but Indiana university men, recalling how a physically inferior eleven came over from Bloomington and gave the powerful Tufts team a mighty battle, believe the Hoosiers' aggressive line can repeat the performance. The line-up: Ohio: Rusley, L. E.; Boleen, Hathaway, R. T. H. J.; Courtney, Capt., Julius, L. G.; Karch, Pierce, C. C.; Seddon, Ingles, R. G.; Meyers, Gwert, R. E. G.; Courtney, Minton, R. E. G.; Peobold, Cravens, Q. B.; Yerges, Bowser, L. H. B.; Stinecomb, Howard, F. B.; Boesel.

MORE AND BETTER DAIRY HERDS

Feeding the Dairy Cow a Proper Ration

(By J. G. Haney, Agri. Exten. Dept., International Harvester Co.)

As stated in a previous article, the dairy cow should be considered as a high class machine, used for the purpose of turning feeds into milk products. In order to do this economically and profitably, it has been learned that the cow must be fed feeds containing definite amounts of certain food elements. The feeds containing these must also be appetizing, and be combined, so as to have the proper effect upon the cow's digestive system. Not All Feeds Have the Same Effect. It has been learned by careful observation that it would be possible to combine feeds so as to have a ration containing the proper amounts of food nutrients, and still this ration would not produce the desired results. Certain feeds are constipating in their effect, while others are loosening, and also, certain feeds are more appetizing than others. Hence, in order to properly combine a ration it is necessary to have all these facts in mind.

Loosening Feeds.

Alfalfa.
Ensilage.
Rye.
Bran.
Linnseed Meal.
Gluten Feed.

Constipating Feeds.

Corn Fodder.
Corn Stalks.
Prairie Hay.
Timothy Hay.
Corn (in light feeds).
Cottonseed Meal.

The above list of feeds does not contain all that are available, but those not mentioned may be considered as being rather neutral in their effect.

In combining the ration for the dairy cow, selections should be made from each of these classes of feeds, so as to secure the best results. Those who have had the experience of trying to milk cows with no other feed than corn fodder and prairie hay will remember that the butter is usually white, and very hard, and the cows

BADGERS FACE GOPHERS WITH STRONG TEAM

Minnesotans Have Slight Advantage in Weight for Annual Clash.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 3.—The University of Wisconsin football team went into its annual contest with the University of Minnesota today without a cripple on the squad and with the strongest possible combination available at the start of the game. The Gophers have a slight advantage in weight. Many alumni have made this the occasion for their annual homecoming and Madison is thronged with a holiday crowd. Military camps from within several hundred miles of this city have sent quotas of khaki-clad spectators. The probable lineup: Minnesota: Schroeder, L. H.; Weston, Eklund, L. T.; Scott, W. Williams, L. G.; Kralovac, H. Williams, C. C.; Kieckhefer, Johnson, R. E.; Hancock, Flynn, R. E.; Kelly, Armstrong, Q. B.; Simpson, Kingsley, L. H. B.; Bondi, Carroll, R. H. B.; Davay, Aldenderfer, F. B.; Jacobl.

RAINS HAMPER U. S. TROOPERS IN THE TRENCHES

Pershing Returns From the British Front—Billets Are Inspected.

With the American Army in France, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—Heavy rain, beginning at noon Friday, hindered the activity of the artillery in the portion of the French front where the American battalions are on duty, and covered the back areas into seas of mud.

No official communication was issued on Friday, but there has been nothing in the reports to headquarters to suggest any change in the normal situation along the American sector.

General Pershing returned yesterday from a visit to the British front. A party of American major-generals has inspected the billets of the first contingent.

FARGO COLLEGE SHUT OUT BY WAHPETON MEN

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 3.—Fargo college lost to the Wahpeton college school yesterday afternoon by a score of 14 to 0. But, went over the line first period for the first touchdown and Nickelson successfully booted a ball between the poles. J. Scofield scored in the second quarter, and Nickelson again kicked goal. Neither side scored in the last half. The game was the first to be played in the college stadium this season. The Wahpeton team seemed to be a high school team compared with the opposing men.

MICHIGAN MAN IS FEATHER COATED

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—After being given a mock trial at which he was accused of pro-Germanism Wm. Sailer, 55 years old, was taken tonight by a group of more than 25 men clad in white robes. The police have no clue to the identity of the band. Sailer himself, refused to make any statement.

FLACKERTAILS INVADE FARGO CAMP TODAY

Close Game is Expected as 'Varsity Has Improved.

Large Number of Students Will Accompany Players.

Coach Gill, Manager Thompson and Assistant Manager Weston accompanied by twenty-one football warriors left this morning at 8:15 for Fargo the scene of the annual football battle between the A. C. and the university. The game which is to be played this afternoon at 2:30, is the biggest game of the year for the two schools. The university team is in fine shape for the coming season and should give the A. C. a mighty battle. The fine weather of the past week has helped the 'varsity materially and they are in the best condition of the year for the game. This afternoon's battle will be one for blood and the winner will be represented by a fine team, as both institutions have good aggregations. In past years the game has been the hardest fought game played by either institution and today's contest will be no exception. The A. C. has been disappointed by the 'varsity for the past two successive years, and from all reports they are determined to avenge these defeats while the university crew is equally determined that victory shall be on their side this time.

The following men make up the squad: Franklin, Fischer, Helmke, De Lancy, Bruegger, Ellingsen, Hjal-Kingsley, L. H. B.; Bondi, Carroll, R. H. B.; Davay, Aldenderfer, F. B.; Jacobl.

No definite lineup was given, but the coach said he had several men equally good and he is as yet undecided whom he will use.

Students to Go Too.

It was announced last evening that a special train would not be a successful project, so it has been given up. Arrangements have been made, however, to have special cars sent out by the train and a large number of students have signified their intention of accompanying the team.

It was announced last evening that the university band will also accompany the team. The tag day held to send the band down, netted a neat sum, but not sufficient to defray the band's expenses, but at their regular rehearsal last evening they voted to make up the deficit and so they will be on the battle ground this afternoon.

GOOD WEATHER AGAIN LOWERS PRICE OF CORN

Oats Easy With Corn; Commission Houses Lean to Selling.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Decidedly favorable weather conditions counted today as a factor in lowering the corn market. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1-4 cents lower, with December 1.14 to 1.14 3-4 and May 1.16 to 1.16 1-2, were followed by a little reaction and then a moderate general setback.

Oats were easy with corn. Commission houses leaned to the selling side.

Lower quotations on hogs brought about liberal offerings of provisions. Support was lacking, and the market suffered a sharp break.

Week end covering by shorts led to something of an upturn in the last. The close was unsettled, December 1.15 1-2 and May 1.16 to 1.16 1-8, with the market as a whole ranging from 3-4 cent decline to 1-4 cent advance as compared with 4 hours before.

LIQUIDATION NEUTRALIZES FIRMNESS

St. Paul Common and Preferred Falls to New Low Records.

New York, Nov. 3.—The current liquidation of rails during today's brief session more than neutralized firmer tendencies elsewhere. St. Paul common and preferred fell to new low records at 4 1-2 and 80 respectively. Pacific reacted 1 to 2 points from their best and coals also lost ground. Motowood, 1 to 2 points and inactive specialties two to four. Coppers opened higher, but soon fell back.

Steels and other equipments soon surrendered moderate gains. Shipments alone held firm to strong. The closing was weak. Sales approximately $50,000 shares. Liberty bonds were unchanged at par. The 3-1-2's selling at 98.72 to 98.76.

GRAIN REVIEW FOR THE WEEK

Chicago, Nov. 3.—Enlarging receipts of new grain this week and uncertainty resulting from the German invasion of Italy have pulled down the corn market. Prices this morning showed a rise of 2 1/2 cents to $1.30. The enlarged movement of new corn came chiefly in the southwest and made a noticeable impression on values before any news of the Italian retreat was at hand. Rains that rendered much overcast weather acted temporarily as an offset, but as the magnitude of the Italian reverse counted with increasing bearishness on the security market the depression was reflected more and more in corn prices. Crop estimates indicating that the 1917 yield per acre was three-fourths of a bushel more than had been predicted on October 1 had considerable influence also as a handicap on the bulls.

Lightness of country offerings held the oats market relatively firm. Scarcity of hog arrivals did much to lift provisions. Federal assurances of "proper remuneration to the producers" added impetus to the upward movement.
