MAY MINORS.

Boiled Newslets to be Digested at the Supper Table.

Beneath the trees was swinging low A hammock in the shade, And seated there a college youth, Near by his side a maid.

The tree swung down protecting limbs, "Twas surely not mist, Since no one was in sight, he thought,
To try and steal a kiss.

The maiden blushing, murmured "Don't,"
And watched the gay leaves drop, Mischievously he asked, "Don't what?"
"Why, don't," she said, "don't stop!"

April showers in May.

The funeral of F. W. L. Skibbe's little boy took place today.

A knockdown took place on the streets about noon. No arrests.

The river has risen a foot and a half in the last twenty-four hours.

The wool arrival today is in excess of any day of the season.

Messrs. Saltmarsh & Co. will ship a car of fat cattle this evening for the Sound market.

The Wasco warehouse is very full of freight for the interior merchants. The Baldwin Sheep and Land Co. have over 600,000 lbs. of wool this season, and is storing it at that warehouse.

The executive officers of the U. P., passed through the city en route to Portland this morning. They made a short halt and visited the old shop plant and other holdings of the railway company.

Mrs. Power, wife of the station agent at Mosier, is a good marksman, and has shot with a small rifle all of the numerous squirrels that have been around the station.

E. C. Draws took a number of excellent photographs of the Gesang Verein plenic Sunday, which are all well done.
The exposures were of various lengths, two to five seconds, and some were instantaneous.

It is reported on good authority that the D. S. Baker has had a permit granted by custom authorities to go over Cascades on the 4th prox., at which time she is said to undertake the perilous voyage over the Cascade rapids.

Mr. James Elkins, son of Albany Elkins, arrived on last night's boat with some fine stock. He goes to Crook county to look over his stock interests, and will in the meantime gather a portion of his best bloods and take them to the Eastern states this summer. Mr. Elkins is one of Oregon's early pioneers, and one of Linn county's leading men.

The express office, next door to THE CHRONICLE, is not by any means doing a small business. Mr. Hill, the enterprising and affable agent, though small in stature, is a Goshen for business.

He informs us that the receipts for money orders have nearly doubled in the last year. The office is being repapered and the interior will soon present a very attractive appearance.

As a result of Mr. Reynold's purchases of cattle in this section, all the steers will soon go out of the country. He has bought all the twos and threes from the stockmen here, except from Sam Todd.
The steers, about 300 head or over, will be received at W. S. Thompson's ranch here about May 25th and delivered at Condon the following day. The boys will commence rounding up the steers about the beginning of next week.—

In Justice Court.

In Justice Davis' court yesterday, in the case of the State vs. John Prall, it appearing his bondsman was not sufficient surety for his appearance, and that the defendant was about to leave the state, he was rearrested and brought into court, where he entered a plea of "not guilty" to the charge of unlawfully taking and attempting to take fish. His bond was raised to $100, which he was unable to furnish, and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff. He afterward withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered a plea of guilty, and was fined $10 and costs, amounting to a total of $27.30 which he paid and was discharged.

In the case of Owen Williams vs.
Clint Thomas, Mr. Thomas settled everything promptly and the case was dismissed.

Forcing From the Sewer.

A Chinese garden at the foot of Federal street has been one of the features of First street for many years. Its proprietor has been uniformly successful in raising for the markets the first vegetables and garden truck. A weed is never permitted to attain a growth of more than two or three inches and unusual care is given the garden. But his success is due chiefly to a cause which an American would disdain to employ, for at the upper end of the garden is the outlet of one of our principal sewers, and the filth and pollution that daily flows from it is used to enrich and force the growth of the seeds he plants. An atmosphere hangs over this patch of ground that would sicken a white man and he would soon die if he breathed it as continuously as does John Chinaman. But the aforesaid John seems to thrive upon it, and he goes on enjoying life and adding daily receipts to his unquestioned hoard of wealth.

Sailed the Seas Thirty-Eight Years.

Capt. A. P. Loud is a prominent resident of Hampden, Me. For 38 years he sailed the seas, and upon retiring from that calling was appointed by the U. S. government to superintend its interests in the Alaska seal fisheries, a position he held five years.
In speaking of his experience he says: "For several years I was greatly troubled with nervousness and pain in the region of the heart. It was almost impossible for me to get rest and sleep. Physicians from New York to San Francisco did me no good, but Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve and New Heart Cure speedily and completely cured me. I owe my present excellent health to them."

Work of Cattle Thieves.

Wm. Floyd of 5-Mile has lost a large part of his cattle in the last several months from thieves. He has lost so many, in fact, that it has grown to be a serious matter. No trace can be found of the thieves, but it has been found that his cattle have been driven somewhere across the Des Chutes to some secret rendezvous of the robbers, and there re-branded. Cattle have even been stolen from out of the corral. He discovered the work of the thieves by a cow which he had missed returning, when the marks where it had been freshly branded over could be seen. He now offers $250 for the arrest and conviction of any or all of the thieves.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. H. Mosier is in town.
Alex. McLeod went to Arlington today.

E. Jacobson took a short trip up the road today.

Miss Mary McDonald of Grant was in the city shopping last evening.

Mr. D. Fulton of Sherman county arrived in this city last evening.

Mr. Carl Pretz of Grass Valley, Sherman county, is in the city on business today.

Hayward Riddell is in Portland on legal business. He will return tomorrow night.

Mr. F. A. Cook, of Bates & Cook of Portland, gave the CHRONICLE office a pleasant call today.

J. C. Baldwin returned to Tekoa last Sunday night, having remained in this city several days with his family.

Mr. G. W. French of Hartland, Wash., came over yesterday to this city. He assures us the crop prospects are first class.

J. G. Hamilton, general freight agent for the Red Line, located at Minneapolis, was in town this afternoon on business, and leaves on the 4 o'clock train today.

Mr. Wm. H. Quinn of Grizley called on the CHRONICLE office today. Mr. Quinn is a large sheep owner, and says he has no serious cause for complaint as to the late spring, as his loss of lambs is nominal, and the very large and full fleeces from his bands is very gratifying.

HE DIDN'T "GIT"

Until He Got Ready and Then He Took a Freight.

The hero of this sketch is one of our best known citizens. On a recent trip he stopped off at Halsey, and proceeding to the hotel, gave his valise to a clerk, and asked the landlord when a certain freight would go out. The Boniface said he couldn't go out on it. The irrelevant answer led to a discussion, which in turn led to an ultimatum on the part of the hotel man to the effect that he could not eat supper there and ordered him to take his umbrella and grip and "git." But The Dalles man didn't "git" worth a cent. In fact he not only stayed, but got this supper and paid for it. The next experience concerned the train. As soon as the freight came in the following conversation took place:

Want to go to Albany.
No sir.
Got to go; important business.
Can't do it. Strict orders not to carry any passengers. (Train starts.) Here is the fare and one dollar more.
You'll have to get off, sir, at next station.
I'll do it.
And he did it, but he got on again when the train started, and got on and off at every station until Albany was reached.

The above actual events show the force of character of Dalles people and their singular faculty of pushing things in defiance of all opposition. Verily they are hard to curry.

Recent advices say that the hotel man is armed with a double-barreled shotgun, and the conductor has secured a China car for a tow, with a bit of barbed wire to connect with his caboose.

Sheep Notes.

Thos. A. Rhea, who has been around among Morrow county sheep men this year, gives the following information:
W. S. Small of Miles City, Mont., and J.
N. Wadson of Calif. have bought 12,000 head of sheep, the former 8,000 yearlings, which he will ship from Wallula, the latter 6,000 two-year-olds, to be shipped from Reno, Nevada. Jas. Wright of Tacoma bought 5,000 head from Blake & Clay of Gilliam county for the Sound market. Mr. Bedgar of Pennington has also purchased 5,000 head of sheep from parties in this section. Mr. Rawson of Red Bluff wants 3,000 to 3,500 ewes, to be driven overland to Montana. Frank Boyd of the same place has bought 200 ewes and lambs from Wasco parties. Sam Kinsman has bought 4,000 to 5,000 for the Sound market. Ed R. Bishop, cashier of the National bank of Heppner, has bought 10,000 head or more for an eastern driver. We are informed that buyers are looking this way, now that our prices are more reasonable, and it is likely that but few sheep offered for sale will remain at the end of the season.—

The Defaulting Postmaster.

In regard to Canyon City's postoffice defaultation the News will state for the benefit of all parties the inspector appeared unexpectedly Tuesday morning of last week, and began an investigation. A shortage of about $2,500 was found in the cash accounts. Deputy postmaster, J. L. Parrish, who was on a trip to Bear valley, was sent for. Upon his return he admitted having appropriated public money to his own use, but said he didn't think there was so much missing. The bondsmen are John Muldrick, D. G.
Overholt, F. C. Sels, B. C. Trowbridge, Peter Kuhl and Ed C. Allen. They have made good the shortage and have assumed control of the office until an appointment can be made. Much regret is expressed that a young man with such promises of the future should go astray. But such is life.—Grant Co. News.
