

THE HERALD STEAM PRINTING HOUSE makes a specialty of Legal Printing. Briefs, Transcripts, etc., printed at low rates.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15, 1878. Herald Steam Printing House. The facilities of the HERALD Steam Printing House for doing job work are not surpassed in California outside of San Francisco and Sacramento.

With the view of supplying funds for the Free Dispensary, the gentlemen having that institution in charge propose to give a course of lectures.

Council met in regular session yesterday afternoon, with Mayor MacDougal in the Chair.

The Charter Committee held another meeting last night. Dr. Bush in the chair. During the evening the discussion ranged as far as the spirit of little debate sprang up upon the expediency of granting to the city the power to sell all kinds of property and as to the expediency of establishing a limitation as to the time when a deed should pass to the purchaser.

County Court. THURSDAY, Feb. 14. Miguel Leonis vs. Edwin Laundry. On Trial.

The Los Angeles Business College is now under the direction of Mrs. F. E. Arnold, assisted by a competent and experienced teacher of penmanship and book keeping.

Hereafter notices of companies, societies, churches, etc., will only be inserted in the HERALD as paid advertisements. We reserve, for Places of Worship, a gratis directory, which will appear every Sunday morning.

Mr. Harris replied feelingly. The report of the City Judge, showing fines collected $26.50. Referred.

The Committee on Finance reported as follows: Treasurer's report correct; find $24.50 licenses which should be collected; recommend rejection of the fruit dealers petition; recommend that the city join with the county in advertising bids for boarding city prisoners.

The sense of the meeting was that the city should be allowed to sell property without a special act of the Legislature and an approving vote of the people.

THE STEPPING STONE TO HEALTH. The acquisition of vital energy is the stepping stone to health. When the system lacks vitality, the various organs flag in their duty, become chronically irregular, and disease is eventually instituted.
