SAN FRANCISCO, April 19th.—
It will be remembered that some days ago the overland dispatches stated that a telegram had been received by the wife of Congressman Vance, of Ohio, to the effect that he was at the Lick House, in this city. The Lick House managers then stated that he was not there and the matter was dropped as a baseless rumor. It is now, however, certain that Vance is either in this city or suburbs. A prominent merchant of this city has received a letter from Vance's home, Gallipolis, Ohio, enclosing the following telegram, dated San Francisco 8th inst., and addressed to Mrs. Vance:

"Your husband is here, insane, but harmless. Have you instructions?" (Signed) W. H. LAMB. The letter requested the merchant to inquire into the matter. A reporter of the Bulletin today learned at the Lick House that Vanco was not stopping there, but that letters and telegrams were addressed to him at the house, care of W. H. Lamb, who cealled man Vance.
