The Lieutenant-General Court-martialed.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The Workmen's club of the Third Precinct, Tuesday, a week ago, passed a resolution supporting the County Committee's contest with Kearney. Last night the club reconsidered the vote by which that resolution was adopted, whereupon the officers met and left, taking with them their adherents. They were followed shortly by most of the club, who began to regret their action. An attempt was made by the remainder to elect new officers, but the time ran out before they could do so.

Charges Against Kearney.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—During the meeting of the Workmen's Executive Committee last evening, W. A. Helm stated that he had proofs that Kearney, who took the stand at the trial, took a ticket on which Senator Bones was elected; also that Kearney had received or to receive $10,000 from Flood & O'Brien, and further that Kearney had offered a man a salary to solicit subscriptions for the Workmen's Temple Fund as it was absolutely necessary that he should obtain funds. He wanted the statement made public so that Kearney might bring suit against him if he liked.

Friends and Fellow-Citizens.

At last, under imperative necessity, his committee has appointed Dennis Kearney from the position of President of this party and chairman of this committee. Henceforth he is no more than a member of this committee, and neither honored nor treated as its chief.

Attempted Outrage and Murder

UKIAH, Cal., May 7.—Mrs. Reynolds, a married lady and esteemed resident of this county, while riding through Walker Valley, fifteen miles above Ukiah, on Sunday, May 5, was seized by an Indian, dragged from her horse to the bushes beside the road. The scoundrel attempted to outrage her person, but fearing that he would be discovered tried to conceal his crime by murder. He was taken to the room where his victim lay and recovered after an operation.
