State Sunday School Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—The Eleventh Annual Convention of the State Sunday School Association met last evening and elected the following officers: President, J. B. Roberts, city; Vice President, Rev. Dr. Briggs, Sacramento; Secy., S. G. Morse, Oakland; Robert Thompson and Chas. Geddes; Secretary, Rev. Jno. Kimball; Assistant Secretary, Mr. Ingraham Sacramento. The Convention will be in session till Thursday evening.

San Francisco, May 15.—At the meeting of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F., last evening, a resolution was adopted requesting Grand Representatives to the G. L. U. S. to advocate the passage of a law securing to subordinate lodges the right to retain their members one year independently of their standing in subordinate lodges. Adjourned sine die.

The Kearneyites and Anti-Kearneyites.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15th.—In nearly all the wards last evening the Kearney Clubs were engaged in selecting delegates to the State Convention to assemble Thursday. The attendance in most cases was reported small. Proceedings were harmonious, all being of one mind in the nomination of Ward anti-Kearney Club held a meeting, which was attacked by the Kearneyites, who commenced a disturbance by blocking up the entrance, and after the meeting was called to order, they constantly crowded into the hall, hooting and jeering. Police assistance was called to preserve order, but the demonstrations continued, and finally the mob began to break the windows, pulling in volleys of stones and other missiles. The meeting was finally compelled to adjourn without accomplishing its main object—that of nominating delegates to the Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Dr. W. G. Wayman, of the Board of Health, died this morning. The State Sunday School Convention now in session here is discussing the project of holding its session in Yosemite Valley during the coming summer.

The Pacific Mail Company have commenced suit against Collector Shannon in the United States Circuit Court, to test the law imposing an extra tonnage tax of fifty per cent. on American vessels carrying officers of other nationalities.

Crushed Under a Train.

OAKLAND, May 15.—While attempting to board a moving train last evening at 9 o'clock at Broadway Station, an unknown man lost his life. His entire body from his chin to his ankles was torn and crushed into an unrecognizable mass.

Dutch Flat Riot.

DUTCH FLAT, May 15.—The first public action of the citizens of Dutch Flat, looking to the election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention, was taken by a meeting last evening of citizens opposed to the election of delegates to the Convention. After discussion, the preamble and resolutions in sympathy with the principles of the Workingmen's party were adopted, and a temporary Executive Committee of five was appointed, with kindred organizations in this county, and to advance the objects of the meeting.

Congressional Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The Senate yesterday concurred in the House amendments which make the provisions of Sargent's timber land bill applicable to Nevada as well as California, Oregon and Washington Territory; and also acquiesced in the House amendment to the Senate bill, which provides that timber may be taken from mineral lands in Nevada, Colorado, and all Territories for mining, agricultural, building or other domestic purposes. The Senate Committee on military affairs heard further argument on the bills granting right of way through Fort Yuma reservation for the Southern Pacific Railroad of California. Vice-President Brown, of the Texas-Pacific Railroad Company, concluded his endeavor to convince the Committee that the matter went over. Indications are that similar action will be taken by the Committee on commerce concerning the bill that proposes a formal grant of authority for the
