Morning Telegrams.

Passengers Passing South.

MOJAVE, July 1.—John C Rogers, Miss Rosa Reighn, W F Lewis, Mr H Stassford.

A Temporary Stock Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—In view of the adjournment of the stock boards for this week, to facilitate operations of those who desire to operate in stocks during the week, Maurice Dore & Co., will to-morrow organize a temporary Exchange, at which orders will be filled on a cash basis and may be forwarded direct or through city banks. Gen. H. A. Cobb will officiate as caller.

The Ventura Vendetta Arraigned.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, July 1.—In this District Court this morning the seven men indicted for the murder of T. W. Moore were arraigned and the indictment read to them. Jas. D. Fay, of San Francisco, who appears as additional counsel for the defense of all but Jones, asked until Friday to plead, intimating that there might be a doubt as to the plea. The Court granted until Wednesday morning. Jesse Jones, the State's evidence, being unrepresented by counsel, the Court appointed Henry Robinson to defend him. It is probable the impanelling of a jury will not commence before Monday next, as there is a heavy civil calendar.

The cap of Oleson, the man drowned on Thursday night last, has been found on the beach, but nothing has been seen of the body.

Indian Fights.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—A Baker City (Oregon) dispatch says: "A citizen courier arrived here today from Cañon City. He comes to ask Governor Chadwick for arms and men to protect citizens in John Day Valley. He states that five citizen scouts from Cañon City, under Colonel Burham, discovered Indians near the south fork of John Day river on the 29th. Contrary to Col. Burnham's orders one of the scouts fired upon the Indians. The fire was returned. Two of the scouts, who escaped shortly after the fight began and came into Cañon City for reinforcements, state that their companions were surrounded by at least one hundred Indians and it was believed they would be butchered by the savages before help could reach them. The courier also states that hostiles were pouring into John Day valley with military, supposed to be Gen. Howard's command, in pursuit.

School House Burned.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Yesterday morning, between two and three o'clock, the Ocean House school house was burned down. The building contained four class rooms. It is supposed that it was set on fire by some of the boys who escaped from the Industrial School recently, and who sleep and live among the sand hills in the vicinity.

Petterson Sentenced.

SAN BERNARDINO, July 1.—Petterson was brought up for sentence this morning. A large crowd was in attendance to hear the solemn judgment pronounced. The day of execution has been fixed for August 16th.

The electoral count won't be finished before 2 P. M.

Small-Pox at Portland.

PORTLAND, Ogn., July 1.—A Chinaman died here a few days ago with small-pox. Two more cases have since been discovered in the Celestial quarters. The patients were removed at once to the pest house.

Yesterday the body of Dennis Spellen was found a short distance from the city with a bullet hole through the body, also twenty-four buckshot wounds. From the circumstances there can be no doubt that Spellen was murdered, either from motives of revenge or of cupidity. Deceased was a native of Ireland, 37 years old, and had a wife and several children in the Atlantic States. He was steady, industrious and temperate.

Our Border Tactics Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The order recently issued to pursue cattle thieves into Mexico is hereafter to be rigidly enforced.

The large unforeseen expenditures of the Government have brought the deficiencies up to $3,000,000. All regiments in the field are immediately to be recruited to their maximum strength to enable as large a force as possible to be directed against the Indians.

[illegible]—She Confesses of her Story.

[illegible]ly 1.—A Herald correspondent interviewed Eliza Pinkston, who told such a terrible tale during the [illegible]it of the Louisiana Returning Board to New Orleans in 1876, and obtained the following affidavit:

State of Mississippi, county of Madison—Eliza [illegible], wife of [illegible], being duly sworn, deposes and says that her name was Eliza Pinkston; that she has since married a man named Pritchard and is now residing at Canton, Miss.; that, as Eliza Pinkston she did appear as a witness before the Louisiana Returning Board in New Orleans, La. in November, 1876, and as such gave testimony that her former husband, Henry Pinkston, had been killed and he herself seriously wounded by certain Democrats of the parish of Ouachita on account of her politics of her husband. Deponent further deposes that she was induced to give such testimony by certain Republicans, namely, O. H. Brewster and done Dinkgrave, by promises of reward and she was to be paid the sum of $500 which she received, and, after taking therefrom the sum of fifty dollars, she returned the remainder to Brewster on deposit, to obtain said money Brewster although demanded the same. Deponent alleges that, at the time of giving said testimony she was in a weak and prostrate condition, induced by suffering from wounds and by having her fears played upon by intimations that the Democrats were intent on murdering her; that she was readily induced by these persons of superior intelligence to give her testimony a coloring so as to show that her husband, Pinkston, was killed and herself wounded on account of their political opinions, when the facts were that her husband, Pinkston, never took any part in politics and had in no way given any offense to any person on account of politics; but deponent believes and did believe then that said murder was in no wise connected with politics; that she did not then nor does she now know who were the persons engaged in said murder and wounding, but there is every reason to think it was a colored man who had twice fought with her husband and had been by him worsted. Deponent further deposes that she was brought from her then home in Ouachita Parish to New Orleans, and was instructed to testify and lay all the blame of said killing and assault upon the Democrats, and that she was further instructed to pretend that her wounds were more serious than they were and that she could not walk, when in fact she had walked each day considerable distances and ascended long flights of stairs, such as the custom house stairs in New Orleans, without assistance, and on the day she was carried into the room of the Returning Board on a lounge or sofa after being conveyed to the place in a carriage she was able to walk and did walk part of the way up stairs to the room where the Returning Board was sitting but she was induced to let herself be carried into the room to make an impression that she was worn out and could not walk. Deponent further deposes that, previous to her giving her testimony before the said Returning Board, she was visited by John Sherman and others of the visiting statesmen and introduced to them as such, and that she walked before them and they had ample opportunity to see what her condition was and that she could walk about. That, during the time she was in New Orleans attending the said Returning Board, she was constantly given money by different Republicans and was promised a support for life, which last has not been given as promised. Deponent makes this affidavit without fear from any source, and without promise of reward or other compensation other than a desire to have the truth known. Her present husband also makes an affidavit confirming her statement as the one told him before her marriage.

A Glove Contest.

NEW YORK, July 1.—John Reilly and John King had a glove fight for $500 a side last night. Sixteen rounds were fought when Reilly broke his left wrist by a side blow and King was declared winner.

Oil Train Wrecked—Brakesman Burned.

ALBANY, July 1.—An oil train on the Hudson river road was wrecked and nineteen cars broken to pieces. One caught fire and a brakesman burned to death.

Thrown from the Track.

LINWOOD, July 1.—The Southern express from Philadelphia, this morning, was thrown from the track and four persons killed.

Tenbroeck and Mollie.

LOUISVILLE, July 1.—Tenbroeck and Mollie McCarthy are in the very best condition. They are guarded night and day by police.

A Conflict of Authority in East St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—At East St. Louis yesterday a difficulty between [illegible]ervisors will Police and the City [illegible] culminated in a fight [illegible] noon to[illegible]sion of the headquarters [illegible] former, in which two Deputy Marshals were killed outright and one wounded.
