Results of the Cape Town Inspection. LONDON, July 13th.-The Cape Town Standard and Mail summing up the results of the inspection of the natives in South Africa, now ended, says that only a few small parties of the enemy remain and it will not be long before they will be disposed of. Congabale, Stock, Unfugate, and the Ango-Turkish taken prisoners, Sardilli, Duke, Manna and Syolo have been killed. Dima has surrendered and the only man of influence still at liberty is Krel. The loss on the side of the insurgents has been more severe than the natives experienced in any previous outbreak and it may be said that their power as a people has been utterly destroyed.
