Our Relations With Mexico.

The New York Sun of October 20th contains a long San Francisco letter in which the visit of General Sherman to the Mexican frontier is dwelt upon as indicative of approaching war.

Why the General should thank the officers of the road "personally and officially" may perhaps be gathered from a closer scrutiny of the epistle.

A railroad east and west through Arizona is a "great civilization" and will enable the military authorities to install peace and order in the border.

In view of the fact that only a couple of weeks ago Gen. Sherman rode in an ambulance from Prescott to Yuma, attended only by Gen. McCook and the driver of the ambulance, and was unmolested throughout the tedious and lonely journey, the danger from robbers does not appear so clear.

So much for the letter. If any intelligent reader fails to see why it was written and the purpose it was designed to subserve, he will be better informed hereafter.

In this connection it is interesting to note the opinions of the Two Republics, a newspaper published in the English language in the city of Mexico.

The Constitutional Convention. SACRAMENTO, Oct. 22.—The Convention met at 10 o'clock. Hale offered a resolution reciting the resolution passed by the Convention on the 17th, requesting the Secretary of State to furnish the Convention a detailed statement connected with corporations, other than municipal, formed in the State, and further reciting the action of the Secretary in forwarding the volumes in which records of corporations are entered, concluding as follows: "That it is the sense of the Convention that the Secretary of State has not complied either in letter or spirit with the resolution of the Convention; also, that it is his reasonable duty to furnish such statement in writing, or so much thereof as he is reasonably able to furnish, and that if he is unable to comply with the request of the Convention, to report the cause of such inability."

Hale made a speech in support of the resolution, declaring that the levity which had been exhibited in this matter was most ill timed. Blaine, of San Diego, seconded the resolution, declaring that the reply of the Secretary of State was neither courteous nor satisfactory.

Wicks, of Nevada, submitted an amendment, that a committee be appointed to make such examination of the books of incorporation as will determine whether the demand of the Convention was inconsiderately made.

their own corps of interviewers. The Sun's correspondent further says: "It must be remembered that this newspaper (the Herald) is speaking through the mouth of a visitor by General Sherman to the city where it is printed, and not unlikely reflects opinions or expresses views used upon information dropped by that eminent soldier during his visit. Indeed, the Herald, after protesting that it has not hitherto believed a war with Mexico probable, now says, as prophetic to its warlike editor, that 'within the past forty-eight hours we have been placed in possession of facts and theories which have led us to utterly change our opinion.'"

As we stated at the time, the information obtained by us came in a form which involved secrecy. Everything that has transpired since General Sherman's visit tends to confirm us in a favorable opinion of the reliability of our informant.

DAY by day we hear the cackle of imbeciles who are talking about the Democratic party losing ground. This is all founded upon the fact that the Republicans of Ohio have a plurality several thousands less than the majority which that State gave to Hayes in 1876. On the other hand, the Democratic majority is precisely twice what it was in Indiana in 1876. But the struggle was absolutely for members of Congress, and nothing else. In the present House of Representatives the Democrats have 152 and the Republicans 140 members. Let us suppose that the Congressional elections had been ended in October, and reckon up how the case would stand. The Republicans have lost four members in Maine and Vermont. Although two of the new members are Democrats we should have a clear Democratic majority of 28, which is about half what it will really be in the next Congress. Go on with your Republican victories at that rate, say we! But a sensible Republican will feel like exclaiming, as Pyrrhus did on a certain memorable occasion, "one more such victory and I am undone."

We are glad to note, by our colleagues, that the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, yielding to the exhortations of the Herald, has reversed its action on the proposed French treaty, and pronounced against it. In behalf of Los Angeles county and California at large, we beg to return sincere thanks to that body. They have realized that, better late than never, one should be responsive to the interests of one's own section.

LAST NIGHT'S NEWS.

ANAHEIM, Oct. 22.—A fierce fire has been raging in the mountains back of Anaheim for two days, and to-night the scene is grand beyond description. A conflagration of fire has been burning for eight miles. Thousands of acres of valuable sheep feed will be destroyed and it is likely that some bee ranches will meet the same fate. The fire is now raging on the Santa Ana range, and will amount to thousands of dollars.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 22.—Mayor Chamberlain to-day sent $83 more to the Howard Association of Me uphis aid of the fever sufferers, making a total of $745 from his own purse, and which he sent privately and by Wells, Fargo & Co. FATAL WRESTLE OVER A DOG'S SAPPER.

WILLIAMS, Oct. 22.—A quarrel occurred last evening, six miles west of this place, on Jack Brim's ranch, between Brim's Chinook and his sheep herder, which resulted in the death of the latter. The herder came in from work at half-past five last evening and asked the cook for something to feed his dog. The Chinaman replied that he must wait, as there was nothing for him. Angry words followed, until the herder clinched with the cook. In the fight the Chinaman drew a knife and stabbed his antagonist in the left lung. The Chinaman called in the ranch hands and told them what had occurred. A man was immediately dispatched to this place for a doctor and an officer. The wounded man lingered until to-day, when death ensued. Soon after the deed was committed the Chinaman left the ranch, and up to this time the officers have not succeeded in capturing him. Deceased was a native of Oakland, and had been in Mr. Brim's employ for the past four years.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—President Hayes will accompany Governor Curry to the Agricultural Fair on Thursday next to visit the Agricultural Fair. WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Information has been received at the Mint Bureau that the recent order for the purchase of a resolution at Charlotte, N. C., and Denver, Colorado, is a complete success.

The Cabinet was in session to-day. The heads of several Departments presented estimates for the year to the lowest figures possible in view of the falling off in revenue. The aggregate amounts required will not vary materially from the appropriations for the present fiscal year, with the exception of the vein fidelity in the Postoffice Department and increased expenditures in the Indian Office.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, in deciding the matter of the Hope Mining Company's application for a patent for the Potomac, announced the following and important ruling in regard to the width of all lode claims. Referring to section 2320, revised statutes, which provides that no claim shall extend more than three hundred feet from the surface to the vein outcrops. He says, when the vein outcrops at the surface there can be no question as to the point from which the lateral measurement must begin, but when the discovery is made at some distance below the surface and the locator does not determine by any further prospecting that the nearest actual surface point is elsewhere and the fall does not otherwise appear, I am of opinion that the point of the vein so discovered must be assumed to be the middle of the vein and the lateral measurement must be calculated therefrom. The law is mandatory and compels that but three hundred feet shall be taken on either side of the vein and compliance with the law necessitates the fixing of the point from which these measurements begin. I think the rule above indicated is the only one that can be applied in this case, the width of the claim on one side being more than three hundred feet from the discovery opening, the plot and field notes are returned to the Surveyor General for correction. All other objections and protests against the company's application are, however, overruled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The suspension of Dudd, Brown & Co., of St. Louis, has caused much excitement in the dry goods trade of this city. The greater portion of their liabilities are in New York.

CHABLESTON, S. C., Oct. 22.—At a special term of the U. S. Circuit Court for this district, Friday last, Judge Bond, of Baltimore, presiding, Elections were appointed for each precinct in the State. District Attorney Northrop says he had nothing to do with the arrest of three men on correction, Friday last, for violation of section 5,530 in connection with the Sumner outrage and he knows nothing about the matter.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—Senator Wilton, of New Brunswick, will be President of the Senate and a member of the Government without a portfolio.

BARRE, Ont., Oct. 22.—Two trains on the Hamilton and North-western Railway collided near here to-day. Both engines and several cars were wrecked and three employes seriously injured.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 22.—Judge Brill, of the District Court, decides that the reasonable duty to furnish such statement in writing, or so much thereof as he is reasonably able to furnish, and that if he is unable to comply with the request of the Convention, to report the cause of such inability.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—The North German Gazette, commenting upon the Ultramontane opposition to the Socialist Bill, declares that so long as the Ultramontane party in the Reichstag forms a centre around which all elements blindly hostile to the Empire of Prussia group themselves, every attempt to terminate the trouble by a peaceful understanding will be fruitless.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The trial of thirty-eight persons arrested for the recent attempt to hold a Socialist Workingmen's Congress, has commenced. The prosecution alleges that the prisoners had relations with foreign Socialists.

"Yes," the Indian Commissioner said, in a low tone of regret—"Yes, I believe it is true that the Cheyennes were compelled to leave their reservation because they were starved to death; but then, you see, if the Indians had a good common school education and could sing Moody and Sankey's revival ballads they wouldn't care so much about something to eat."
