THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day uring the year to come. Its purpose and need to present all the news in a realable hape, and to tell the truth though the correst fell.

shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all classes in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politican or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is THE SUN'S idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1379 than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

Whilst the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and wemen of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the promptest, fullest and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country and the uncertainty of the future lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Revelic and which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact estimation in each of its varying phases, and ent with accuracy and clearness me intuition in each of its varying phases, and according to its well-known about guide to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will te an important part of THE SUN'S work for 1879. We have the means o making THE SUN, as a literary, a political and a gen-the Execute presents a greater variety and higher standard of literature than any periodical can hope to do that depends exclusively upon home talent.

A knowledge of the current literature of other cenutries is indispensable to all who would keep pace with the progress of the human mind, and the Eelectic offers the best, and, indeed, the only opportunity for obtaining this knowledge within a reasonable compass, and at a moderate price.

Among the writers represented in recent numbers of the Eelectic ere: The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, James Anthony Froude, Matthew Arnold, Charles Kingsley, Robert Buchanan, Geo. McDonald, John Ruskin, Alired Tennyson, Thomas Hughes, William Morris, Miss Thackeray, Mrs. Alexander, Profs. Huxley and Tyndall, Richard Protor, B. A., Prof. Owen, Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Max Muller, J. Norman Lockyer, Herbert Spencer, and others equally eminent, Besides the regular articles in the body of the magazine, there are four original Editorial Departments. Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes. Science and Art. and Varieties.

With regard to the character of the selections, the aim of the Eelectic 1s to be instructive without being dull, and entertaining without being trivial. While each number of the family circle, it addresses itself particularly to that great body of intelligent readers who seek profit as well as amusement in solid and healthful literature, Besides the 128 pages of reading matter, each number of the magazine contains a fine steel engraving—shally a portrait—executed in the most artistic manner.

Terms.—Single copies 45 cents. One copy one year, $5, two copies, $9: five copies, $1.0. Trial subscriptions for three months, $1.0. The Eelectic and any $4 magazine to one Midress, $8.
