SAM BRANNAN'S PATRIOTISM. The Old California Pioneer Interviewed.—He explains the story about the bloodthirsty Ute Indians—His Grant of 4 square leagues to throw open to colonization.

From the S. F. Chronicle, May 23. The Hon. Samuel Brannan—Sam Brannan, in fact—and looking "the same old Sam," arrived in this city yesterday afternoon from New York by the southern overland route.

The object of Mr. Brannan's return from Mexico, where he has resided for the past eighteen months, is for the purpose of arranging for the completion of the survey of his Sonora lands, where it is his intention to colonize all the Americans who are sufficiently interested with the prevailing civil service or United States climate to want to Mexicanize themselves.

Mr. Brannan informed a Chronicle reporter that he (Mr. Brannan) is the fortunate possessor of eighty-four square leagues of Sonora land in the State of Sonora, between the Mayo and Yaqui rivers.

This land he has thrown open to colonization upon terms which he would not have thought of a few years ago. Board of Directors. A man with half an eye can see that General Grant, at the head of such an enterprise, desires two conditions above all things—peace between the United States and Mexico and perfect quiet in Mexico itself.

Trouble between the two Governments or internal trouble in Mexico would harm him more than anything else.

Mr. Brannan will remain in this city two or three weeks, when he returns to Mexico. He is domiciled in the house of his niece, Mrs. Judge Winans, and is suffering from a severe cold contracted by exposure to the night winds of the Arizona plains, introduced to his system by an injudiciously opened sleeping-car window.

He spoke of his latest and grandest project in hopeful terms, asserting that in addition to its valley lands of unrivaled fertility, the grant includes 50 by 100 miles of mineral lands containing many mines which have already been worked with great success.

A Child in a California Lion's Mouth. (From Santa Barbara Press.) Mrs. Long, who lives between the Mission and San Roque Cañons, while milking her cows one evening about ten days ago, was startled by a scream from her 4-year-old daughter in hastening to see a large California lion with the child in its mouth, making toward an adjoining thicket.

She fled, helplessly screaming, when the brute, taking fright at her cries, dropped the child, and fled to the mountains. Although severely bitten and bruised, the little one was not seriously injured.

The animal hung around the premises for several days afterwards. Thursday Mrs. Long, while looking at some timber was driven out of the cañon by the same lion. She has two cubs, and I. K. Fisher has offered a reward of twenty five dollars apiece for them. We understand a party is being made up in town to go out and capture them.
