WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The ante room at the jail was filled to-day with people waiting to be conducted to Guiteau's cell. He gave his autograph to almost every visitor. A new arrangement has been made by which Guiteau has to submit upon the ordinary prison fare, throwing the responsibility of his food upon the Warden of the jail, probably from fear of poison. Guiteau is not to receive his letters any more and is not to be supplied with newspapers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—On the opening of the court Seville resumed the cross-examination of Dr. Gray. The witness in giving his opinion on the direct examination that the prisoner was sane had not taken into account the evidence of the prisoner himself, but taking that element into consideration, his opinion would still be the same, that the prisoner is sane, and was sane on the second day of July. The witness was asked if he was familiar with the case of Lieut. Sanborn who was killed by Dr. Wright at Norfolk, Va., and replied: "Yes sir, I was sent by the President to make an examination and give my opinion on the case."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The arrival of the New Year and the throwing open of the White House has broken the season of universal mourning in Washington society over President Garfield, and sociability will resume its sway.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 3.—The Herald's Shansville, Ohio, special says of Saturday night's disaster: The band had just ceased playing when the first crash was heard and the floor began to settle lengthwise in the center. The joists slipped off the post in the rear and pulled over the brick wall in front. The centre settled rapidly and broke lengthwise. The joists kept up at the outer ends in the side walls and this threw up tables, stoves and all together. Falling doors barricaded the front doors, but were soon chopped down. The chandelier in the store room below was broken, and the oil spilling over a number of persons burst into a blaze which in a few minutes Milton Yoder, a five-year-old boy, was burned to death in his mother's arms. She was also fatally burned. Fortunately the building did not catch fire. The storm added to the confusion. As complete a list of the casualties as it is possible to get gives, dead, Miss Mary Neff, 20 years old, skull fractured; Milton Yoder, five years old, burned. Fatally burned: Mrs. Dr. Yoder, Mr. Allan Goeler, Miss Annie Ord. A large number are seriously injured.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—A Washington special says that Senator Sherman's friends have implicit confidence in the result of the investigation into the disbursements of the contingent fund, now in progress by the Senate Committee. Said a prominent Republican today: "I have known John Sherman in public and private life for over a quarter of a century, and you may set it down that he will never be convicted of petty larceny. His hands will be found clean and no amount of investigation can hurt him."
