Pasadena, July 16.—A large fire occurred at Steamboat yesterday. A number of persons lost their lives. Eight corpses have been extricated from the ruins.

Pomona Items.

The Company are at work on two more artesian wells. A depth of one hundred and fifteen feet has been reached, with a good prospect of striking a flow soon.

The building boom continues in Pomona. Life and prosperity prevail. Money is plentiful and happiness is depicted on the face of the mechanic and merchant.

The several brick blocks that are now under course of construction in Pomona have an assured effect on old and new residents, but these are only a commencement of many to follow.

Mr. Earle has completed the pipe for carrying the Cienega water to the reservoir, and has removed his camp to the San Antonio for the purpose of finishing up the lower portion of that line of pipe.

Mackay in Paris.

(Cable to the Carson Appeal.) Paris, June 26.—The round of amusements which Mr. Mackay is providing for the American colony is a side turn from the fetes at Moscow...

Mr. Mackay stood the raise with true American spirit. By 4 o'clock the king was completely blown with his social exercises and taken from the room in a fainting condition.

The Biggest Sponge Ever Found.

(New York Sign.) "A Monster from the Sea" is a sign which attracted attention by its size and in front of a sponge store on William street.

In the case is a large sponge, which looks as though it might be appropriate to present to Chang or Capt. Bates.

Alongside is another sponge suitable for the Mah or Major Alton.

"This big sponge," said the dealer, "was fished up off Key West. When the fishermen saw it through their magnifying glass they could hardly believe their eyes. When they fished it up and measured it they found it to be the largest sponge they had ever seen. It is fully eight feet in circumference. We have had an offer of $300 for it, but we don't care to sell it."

"It weighs considerably more than the small sponge near it, does it not?"

"I should think so. About thirty of those small fellows go to the ounce. The big sponge weighs fifty-five pounds. It would take a long time for any one who used it to squeeze it out."

Too Sober to Shoot. At the recent pigeon shooting at Houston, a gentleman who had claimed to be a crack shot missed six successive birds, and his disgusted friends, who had been betting on him, were mad enough to throw him.

"What kind of shooting is that?" inquired one of them indignantly. "I know it's my fault. I am too sober. No sober man can expect to hit birds that fly so crooked. If I had had three more beers I'd have scattered feathers, and don't you forget it!"—Texas Sifters.

The Mayor and Aldermen of Portland, Maine, have just voted into themselves a good laugh and had from 15 cents upwards.

Brood, calves and pigs for sale. Lambies put up in abundant supply. Los Angeles, California and Fish Market a specialty. Summer the place.
